

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL.

[Progress is for sale at Annapolis Royal at Fred S. Symonds & Co.]

MARCH 12.—The opera of Phaëton under the able management of Prof. Barnaby is progressing finely. It promises to be a success. The principal parts are well taken and the chorus is a rousing one. Every body is expectantly looking forward to May 24th, when it will be produced.

The last carnival of the season was given on Monday night. The evening was spent in the ice in fine condition. Quite a large number of skaters in costume, and spectators were present. It would have been most enjoyable if the air had not been thick with tobacco smoke, which permeated the clothing of those present, and had drunkenness been less common.

The rink has been well attended this winter, having had excellent ice. The races last week between Mr. A. H. Whitman and Mr. K. D. Leavitt proved quite an attraction, Mr. Leavitt winning the gold medal. Mr. Whitman was so unfortunate as to fall, otherwise, public opinion says, he would have been the victor.

Miss Dougherty, of St. John, is the guest of Miss McLaughlin.

Mrs. Arthur Rice, of Bear River, is visiting at her former home.

Miss Lizzie Pickles is at home, having had to abandon her music class at Weymouth for an indefinite time, owing to diphtheria being prevalent there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burrill of Weymouth, and Miss Dunlap, of St. John, were in town last week. Mr. Johnson left on Monday for a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. G. R. Thomson is instructing a large class of young men in the science of penmanship.

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," seems to be holding good in Annapolis, for already I hear rumors of betrothal engagements, but will withhold the names for the present, it being Lent, and there may be some mistake.

The choir of St. Luke's church is preparing some excellent music for Easter, so I hear. Lenten services are held on Wednesday evenings. JONES.

TRURO, N. S.

MARCH 12.—Mrs. D. B. Cummings has returned from Boston.

Miss Carrie Calkin, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Carson in Pictou, is home again.

Rev. Mr. Kline, of Halifax, preached for the West End Baptist body in the Y. M. C. A. last Sabbath to large congregations, both morning and evening.

The same church held a most successful social on Monday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Fleming.

Mr. Edmund Calkin and his son, Mr. Arthur Calkin, of Kentville, have been spending a few days with the former's brother, Principal J. B. Calkin and family, at Fern Hill.

Mr. O. P. Wilbur, of Amherst, spent Sunday with his parents at the Cedars.

On Friday evening a large party of ladies and gentlemen repaired to a hill in the vicinity of the Seaboard and indulged in coasting. After a couple of hours of this sport they accepted Miss Webster's invitation to Riverside cottage, where they partook of light refreshments and tripped the light fantastic.

Dr. Smith and Miss Maggie Taylor, of Moncton, spent Sunday in town, the guests of Miss Jennie Webster.

Mr. Jack Scovill, of St. John, and Mr. P. H. Sheridan, of Amherst, paid flying visits to their old homes this week.

On Monday evening Mrs. J. Newman entertained a number of her young lady friends at tea. I hear that a good many young gentlemen made it convenient to call during the evening.

Several gentlemen from Moncton and Dorchester took advantage of the good sleighing and drove to Shediac, returning in the evening.

Mrs. D. B. White entertained a few friends on Tuesday evening. OBSERVER.

people here and in Calais, will soon leave for a tour in Europe, with Augustin Daley's theatrical company.

[FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.]

Through the enterprise of Miss Jessie C. Whitlock, the Band of Hope enjoyed a sleigh ride on Saturday, the 8th inst., in which 150 children participated. Teams were provided by the following gentlemen: Messrs. J. T. Whitlock & Co., Harby & Bridges, F. M. Marchie, Frank Todd, C. H. Clarke, Henry Eastman, Dr. Todd, C. N. Vroom and W. F. Todd.

The concert given by the Band of Hope, Tuesday evening, was a decided success, in regard to the rendering of the programme, as well as the receipts, which amounted to about $30. The recitations, duets, solos and choruses by the children showed evidence of careful training, and reflected credit upon the ladies in charge.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

or persons who can find out who "Clums" are. Wonder if "Clums" had't better go in and win it? Mr. L. E. Baker and Miss Florence Baker are in Halifax. Mr. William Law returned home Saturday from Halifax. Lent is being observed very strictly here. "Clums" beg to apologize to Mr. J. L. Crosby. He has not gone to New York to be married, but to get spring goods. The rink is still open for skating, although the floor is visible in several places. Miss Jean Crowl, who has been spending the last six months with friends in Lockport, returned home on Saturday. The Quadrille club met at Miss Sabra Killam's on Thursday. Although a very stormy evening, a good crowd was there—broke the rules again and stayed till the wee hours, "tripping the light fantastic."

DIGBY, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Digby at Mrs. Morse's.] MARCH 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Munroe have arrived home from a trip to Boston and Montreal. Mr. Campbell, of St. John, has been visiting at Topik Rectory, but was called back very suddenly on account of her mother's death on Saturday. Our people did not represent Digby largely at the carnival at Annapolis on Monday night. I think a party of four went up; the others are keeping Lent. Miss Edith Ambrose has arrived home from Boston via St. John.

ONE OF HIS OFF DAYS.

The Millionaire not Anxious for Gas when his Spree was Ended. Money was no object to him. He had plenty. He owned a beautiful place on the other side of the bay. He had a vineyard, an orchard, stables and all sorts of luxuries. On day a few weeks ago he got upon a little spree, as millionaires will, and it dawned upon him when he was at his liveliest that he wanted to put gas on his place. He went up to the plumber's. "I want gas," he said, "gas. Send a man over to my place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and I'll show him what I want." He kept up his little spree, so that when the plumber's man met him next morning he was still lively. "Yes," he said, "I want gas. Gas here all over this garden, and I want the finest gasaliers you've got put up in this stable, and then I want you to lay pipes all over this vineyard, and put up lamp posts, because sometimes I want to come down here in the middle of the night and see the vines grow. Gas—gas—"
