MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

APRIL 2.—Holy week is scarcely a time for social enjoyment, consequently there is little news. The more devout amongst us are to be seen daily wending their way to St. George's school house between the hours of four and half-past in the afternoon, clothed in humility and penitential garments, while the unregenerate and hardened go about their usual avocations with customary stolidity.

I have heard rumors of Miss Weldon's return at Easter, and I hope that once dame rumor will redeem her reputation and prove a true prophet. Miss Weldon has been away from us for three long months, and we are all anxious to see her back again.

Among the old friends who left us for a time, but cherished a sufficiently warm feeling towards the smoky town to return, if only for a short sojourn, is R. B. Jack. He is looking very well in spite of having spent nearly a year in the land of codfish, and his many friends have given him a most cordial welcome. I do not know as yet whether it is his intention to remain in Moncton or whether he is merely on a visit. At present he is visiting friends in St. John and Fredericton, but I fancy Moncton will be his headquarters during his stay in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor left town on Saturday for Pictou, where they will visit Mrs. Taylor's former home.

Miss Bliss left us on Thursday, to pay a short visit to her home in Westmorland, returning on Monday.

I am afraid that Mrs. Newhouse, of Mexico, who has been spending a few weeks in town with her sisters, the Misses McSweeney, will be leaving her again soon. Mr. Newhouse was expected in Moncton last week, and I fancy he will take her back with him.

The many friends of Mrs. L. B. Botsford, formerly Mrs. Blair Estabrooks, of Moncton, will regret to hear that she has been very seriously ill nearly all winter, with malarial fever, the climate of the Southern States having proved too trying for her rather delicate constitution. I believe she will spend the summer in Canada, and regain her strength in the bracing air of her native land.

Mr. Percy B. Chandler left town yesterday to pursue his medical studies at either Boston or New York, I am not sure which. Mr. Chandler will be spending the next three months. Dr. Smith is a graduate of Edinburgh, and will doubtless spend many pleasant hours renewing old friendships. Indeed, to quote rumor once more, he is popularly supposed to intend not only renewing friendships but cementing ties of a more tender nature, and returning a member of the noble army of martyrs—I mean married men. But for the truth of this last piece of information of course I cannot vouch.

By the way, I threw out mysterious hints last winter, concerning a wedding of a most romantic nature, which was to take place in the spring, and I also promised further particulars. Well, I believe the time has been fixed upon, and the happy event will come off sometime between the middle and the end of this month; but alas! it will not be in Moncton, the future bride being the widow of a merchant in an adjacent town, while the bridegroom is an elderly divine, well known in Moncton, and also a widower.

Captain John Wright, long and favorably known in Moncton, has been in town for a few days past, visiting his sister, Miss Ellen Wright.

Mr. G. R. Sangster, who has been spending the winter in his orange plantation in Florida, is expected home at the end of the week. Mr. Sangster will be accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Harry Brown, who has been with him during the winter.

Mr. Harvey Atkinson returned on Saturday from a trip to the Eastern States. He was accompanied by Mrs. Atkinson, who has been spending some months in the Sanatorium at Battle Creek. Mrs. Atkinson's friends are much pleased to see her so greatly improved in health.

Mrs. J. L. Harris gave a small, but very enjoyable whist party at her home on Queen street, last evening.

Miss Campbell left town on Thursday to spend a short time with friends in Sackville.

Mr. A. H. Jones, son of Oliver Jones, of Moncton, has returned to Moncton to assist his father in his extensive business. Mr. Jones has been in the employ of a St. John firm for some years, and on the eve of his departure he was the recipient of a complimentary supper, and an address from a committee of the Y. M. C. A., of which body he was an active member.

Mr. R. A. Borden, who has been spending a fortnight in the United States, returned yesterday.

Judge Fraser passed through Moncton yesterday, on his way home, after his serious illness at Dorchester. He was looking wonderfully well.

A party of Moncton men on pleasure bent left town this morning to visit the sugar camps in the mountains. The ex-mayor was among the number.

Mr. H. R. Emerson, of Dorchester, was in town on Monday.

Mr. C. A. Steeves paid a visit to Fredericton last week.

The Moncton children are having a gay time just now, and are excited. You cannot walk down town without being waylaid half a dozen times by your own little friends and other people's little friends who pipe out breathlessly, "Dare you want to buy a ticket for St. George's concert?" There is a prize offered for the largest number of tickets sold, and the dear things are working their little feet off in their anxiety—not so much for the prize—as for the honor and glory of coming out ahead.

TRURO, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's.]

APRIL 2.—Mrs. F. A. Laurence gave a small drive whist party last Friday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The lady's first prize was taken by Miss Pratt and the men's by Mr. Shagreen. The booby prizes were shared by Dr. Manchester and Miss Hyde.

Miss Pratt comes from Northern New York and is visiting her sister Mrs. Smith at Government farm, Bible Hill.

There was also a small party at Mrs. Bent's, Prince street, the same evening, which was quite a success.

Mr. Watt of Montreal is in town. He is the guest of Mr. Tom McLehane.

Miss Lydia Page, who has been very ill all winter, is improving.

Miss Robbins is still very ill, but is considered out of danger.

Mrs. C. E. Cutten has returned from Boston.

Several of our young ladies who have returned from the "College," Halifax, have returned home for Easter. Among them I notice Miss Mary Black, Miss Maud McNaughton, Miss Lora Hyde, Miss Maude Archibald, and Miss Julia Dickie.

A few of the young friends gathered at Dr. Hyde's to welcome Miss Lora and her friend, Miss Maude Robertson, of St. John.

Dr. Manchester is still with us.

The new comedy company will make its first appearance on the 10th. It is in a case of this kind that we feel the need of a good opera house.

Senator McKay is at home for Easter.

Miss Aggie McKay still lingers in Boston.

Mr. Arthur Cox has returned from his trip to Boston, and I understand this will be his last trip home for some time, as he has accepted a position in Boston and will return there shortly.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Muir were passengers by the same steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gardner gave a most delightful drive whist and dancing party, at the Border City Hotel, on Tuesday evening last. Whist occupied the first part of the evening. Dancing began at eleven o'clock, and was vigorously kept up until morning, when the guests bid their hostess a reluctant adieu.

Mr. Duncan Stewart spent several days in St. John last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clarke have changed their place of residence, and are now occupying a pretty cottage on King street.

DYSPEPSIA WILL TAKE A REST.

Mr. Short Has Placed His "Dyspepticure" on the Market.

Someone has said that half the crankiness and ill-temper in the world is the result of indigestion and dyspepsia.

Mr. Charles K. Short evidently came to this conclusion some years ago, for he turned his attention to its cure. He made a special study of the annoying complaint and practiced his cure on some of his obliging and afflicted friends. When he had cured all within his reach he came to the conclusion that he had a good thing. St. John people have known this for years and Short's Dyspepticure has been a boon to them.

The writer, while fortunately not a victim to the complaint, has frequently purchased this remedy for out-of-town friends who could not get it in their own town. Today, the eighth anniversary of his business start, Mr. Short begins to advertise Dyspepticure and to place it on the Canadian market. Hereafter these few appended broken lines will be as familiar to maritime readers as a well-known baking powder announcement. They are:—

Dyspepticure not only aids Digestion, but positively cures Indigestion and Chronic Dyspepsia.

Mr. Short has copyrighted the name name "Dyspepticure" and also a little pamphlet which he is longing to send to any person suffering from the complaint.

A Fifty-Cent Kiss.

"Papa," cried a seven-year-old, "I want some money to get—"

"Don't go any further," he interrupted, throwing down a coin.

The child came slowly up to him, after pocketing the money, and barely touched his cheek with a kiss.

"Humph" ejaculated the parent, "from the kiss you give I should judge that you don't appreciate it very much."

She caught hold of his hands, and looking squarely into his eyes, solemnly said: "Do you expect a ten-dollar kiss for fifty cents?"—Atlanta Constitution.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, the recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail, with addressing with stamp, naming this paper.
