MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book-stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

FEB. 19.—As usual, the last week before Lent has been rather a busy one for the members of the church. The ladies of the church, who are so kind and generous in their hospitality, and who are so ready to give of their time and talent to the service of the church, have been very busy. There were a number of guests invited to the church, and the service was very well attended. There were a number of guests invited to the church, and the service was very well attended.

A number of Moncton ladies, who are interested in the work of establishing a hospital in town, met last Wednesday evening at the house of Mrs. C. I. Chandler, to discuss the project. The meeting was very successful, and the ladies decided to take the next step in the work. The ladies of the church, who are so kind and generous in their hospitality, and who are so ready to give of their time and talent to the service of the church, have been very busy. There were a number of guests invited to the church, and the service was very well attended.

Mrs. A. J. Cresswell, of Springfield, K. C., spent some days in town last week, visiting her father, Mr. George Taylor of Dorchester, and her mother, Mrs. W. Smith.

Rev. Mr. Hinson, whose health has not been all that could be desired lately, has been granted a month's leave of absence by his congregation. I believe that Mr. Hinson intends making use of his holiday to pay a visit to British Columbia. Moncton people were very much shocked to hear of the death of Mr. W. J. Gilbert, of Dorchester, which took place on Sunday. Mr. Gilbert was very well known in Moncton and was a great favorite. He was in Moncton only last Wednesday and apparently in his usual health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Osmann and Mrs. Tomkins, of Hillsboro, paid a short visit to Moncton last week. Mr. Percy B. Chandler, of Dorchester, who spent some months in Moncton two years ago is expected to return to Moncton again, and this time I believe he intends to stay. Mr. Chandler will be a welcome acquisition to our society and we will do our best to keep him here.

The West End Whist club met last evening at the residence of Mrs. Peter McSweeney and the members enjoyed themselves thoroughly. I have not yet heard whether they are to be continued during Lent. Of course we are all supposed to put away the pomps and vanities of the world from today forth and devote ourselves to fasting and penance for the next six weeks. How many of us will do it remains to be proved. But in my humble judgment the devotees of whist have these two evils to choose from: Their favorite game is either a pleasure or a penance all the year round. Its charms cannot vary with the season so as to be a delight all winter and an emblem of penitential mourning during Lent. Surely, if they have suffered martyrdom all winter it is time they eased up and tried some fresh mortification of the flesh now.

Mr. Herbert Arnold, of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Moncton, has been in Sussex for some time past, relieving one of the officials who is absent.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hocken, of King street, gave them a very pleasant surprise on Monday evening, the fifth anniversary of their wedding. Between thirty and forty relatives and friends arrived at their house all bearing suspicious looking parcels, which on being opened proved to contain a great variety of presents all resembling wood as nearly as possible. Mr. and Mrs. Hocken gave their unexpected guests a cordial welcome and the party settled down into an impromptu drive whist club, spending a most enjoyable evening. Mr. H. A. Whitney, mechanical engineer and the I. C. R., accompanied by Miss Whitney, left town on Saturday for Ottawa, where he will spend some days.

Miss Grace Thomson is in town again, spending a few days.

Dr. Mitchell, of Dorchester, paid a short visit to Moncton on Wednesday.

Mr. H. A. Powell, M. P. P., of Sackville, was in town last week. A number of the young men of Moncton, wishing to return some of the hospitality extended to them this winter, gave a dance in Emma's hall, on Monday evening. They were kindly assisted by some of their lady friends, and the entertainment was pronounced a success. It was certainly a delightful dance from first to last. Everything went smoothly and the music was as nearly perfect as possible, and the floor of Emma's hall is justly celebrated as the best floor for dancing in town.

Among the most beautiful dresses worn by the ladies, a few were particularly worthy of note:

Mrs. G. W. Lawton, of Shediac, wore a lovely dress of blue green silk, trimmed with silver passementerie, and natural flowers.

Mrs. H. H. Schaeffer, of Point du Chene, wore a most becoming gown of black lace, with natural flowers and gold jewelry. Mrs. Schaeffer is a very bright and vivacious brunette, who looks her very best in black.

Mrs. Bliss, of Amherst, wore one of the most charming costumes in the room. It was of pale pink cashmere, with black velvet trimmings, broad black velvet sash, and corsage garniture of pale pink; ostrich feathers.

Mrs. David Dickson wore black silk and lace, with maize colored ribbons.

Miss Minnie Estabrooks, of Sackville, who is an other charming brunette, was arrayed in a dress which it is difficult for the masculine mind to describe accurately. It was either a dark shade of old rose or a light shade of terra cotta, composed of plush and silk, and it was eminently suited to its wearer, who looked charming.

Miss Longfellow, of Boston, who is a tall and stately blonde, wore a most artistic dress of black and white, the dress of white silk, with sash and trimmings of black velvet.

Miss Bliss, of Westmorland, wore cream colored lace, with natural flowers, and a dress of cream colored cashmere, with crimson sash and ribbons.

Miss Florrie Peters looked charming in a dress of cream colored cashmere, with crimson sash and ribbons.

Miss Maggie McKean wore a very pretty gown of black lace.

The party given by Mrs. Blair at her residence on Wednesday, was pronounced a grand success. This being the first opportunity afforded, for several months to our young people of enjoying one of their favorite pastimes—dancing—it was gladly embraced. Mrs. and the Misses Blair performed their duties admirably, and did much to contribute to the success of the party. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

An informal dance given by Mrs. Habberley, on Friday evening, was enjoyed by a number of the young ladies and gentlemen. Miss Habberley leaves next month for Boston, where she intends opening an art studio.
