SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW N SWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

at that there are so few social gatherings or enter tainments to tell about.

Seldom has there been such a sad death to record as that of Mr. Andrew Cowie, of the well known firm of Cowie & Edwards, of this city. When Mr Cowie left his home on Saturday for Waterford, Mrs.

Cowie left his home on Saturday for Waterford, Mrs. Cowie did her utmost to prevent his going. On reaching the I. C. R. station, rather late, he omitted (as was always his custom) to purchase an accident policy, saying to the ticket agent, "he would let it policy, saying to the ticket agent, "he would let it go this time." Mr. Cowie had resided in this city for the last sixteen years. Mr. James R. Kaye is also able to be out again after a similar attack.

Miss Avery, (sister of Mrs. Andrew Cowie,) of Liverpool, N.S., is in the city.

Mr. C. M. Bostwick, since the death of his daughter, has been and still is seriously ill.

I hear that Mr. Alfred Morrrisey, has purchased the house on Hazen street, owned and occupied by Mr. James Flemming. The house was formerly owned by Mr. Morrisey's father-in-law, Mr. C. H. Fairweather, who sold it many years ago to Mr.

Mr. J. R. Ambrose, of the Bank of Montreal, who has been confined to his house for several weeks through illness, has been ordered by his physician to his home at Digby, N. S., to recruit for two or three months. He left for that place the first of the week. Rev. Mr. Raven, who was detained by the storm last Saturday, assisted Rev. J. M. Davenport, at the services at the mission chapel, on Sunday last, and returned to Annapolis this week. The Misses Nicholson, left by the C. P. R., on Monday last for Montreal, to pay a short Mr. Morris Robinson, I am sorry to hear is again suffering from throat affection. On Thursday evening last, Mrs. F. W. Hathe way, Coburg st., entertained a number of friends at dinner. Among the guests present were Rev. J. and Mrs. de Soyres.

A number of young people took advantage of the good sleiging, (an unusual amusement in St. John,) on Monday evening, and drove out to Torryburn. They made a very gay party.

Mr. E. Willis, postmaster, is seriously ill at his residence, Duke street, with hemorrhage of the

The Victoria rink presented quite an old time ap. pearance on Wednesday evening, when a fancy dress carnival was held. There were 500 skatres on the ice as well as a large number of spectators, and though the originality of the costumes was not a noticeable feature, there were many very handsome ones, especially among the ladies present.

The ladies prize of $10 was divided between Miss Scovil and Miss Parks, the former representing "Valentine" and the latter "North Pole." The judges were Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Busby, and Messrs. Robertson, Cleveland and Jardine.

The gentleman's prize, also $10, was awarded to Mr. Fred Thitts, as Cow boy, while Dresden China, Hymen, Esquimaux, Humpty Dumpty, and Mary Queen of Scots r 3 eived honorable mention. TERPSICHORE.

St. John-West End.

Among the new families who will reside at the West End this summer is that of Mr. Herbert J. Wright, general agent for the New York Mutual Life Insurance Co, who has purchased the fine property recently owned by Mr. D. W. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be warmly welcomed as citizens of

A welcome will also be given Mr. and Mrs. Purdy, whom Dame Rumor says will occupy the McWil-liams cottage on the corner of Tower and Lancaster

Mrs. John White, mother of Dr. White, died at Sussex last week at an advanced age. Owing to Dr, White's recent illness, he was unable to attend Mr. John K. Taylor, who fell on the ice last Thursday, and sustained a severe injury in one of his shoulders, is able to be out again. The music loving congregation of St. Georges' church are mourning the loss of the valuable services of Mr. Coster as organist of that church. Master Fred Blair, of Chatham, will fill the vacancy. Since Mr. Tyler B. Thompson, left the West End for Missoula, Montana, many pleasing accounts of his success there have been received by his friends. The latest report is that he has been appointed manager of one of the departments of a great wholesale and retail mercantile establishment. Mrs. James McWilliams, who has been for many years, an earnest worker in the interests of the Carleton Methodist church, and who leaves for Chatham in a few days to reside with her son, Mr. R. H. McWilliams, will be universally regretted by a large circle of friends.

The many friends of the Rev. Robert Duncan heard with regret the news of his death which oc-curred in Brooklyn, N. Y., of congestion of the lungs. The late clergyman was for some years pastor of the Carleton Methodist church.

St. John-North End. Miss Mary Shaw, who has spent several weeks in the house with a slight attack of influenza, is well Miss Jennie Holly, since her return from Boston, has had a severe attack of illness, but is much better. Hon. James and Mr. Alexander Holly are able to be around again.

I remarked the week before last that the attendance at the dancing assembly at Good Templars hall was so small that the committee decided that unless the attendance increased the following meeting, they would discontinue the series, there being six more fair and genial refreshment distributors than coffee bearers. The attendance on Friday evening was very encouraging. The first evening of the series was the best, has not yet been approached, and is only likely to be rivalled by the closing evening. After the first meeting I waited a few weeks to hear on whom the majority would decide as belle, so that I might give an impartial decision, and named the one I found in greatest favor. It is, however, only justice to say that Miss Hamilton, Miss Morrison, and Miss Ruddock looked strikingly pretty that evening, and had many warm admirers. The former was considered belle at the party given recently by the Misses Tapley. Who will be belle the closing night?

Miss Bertha Shaw, of Cedar street, went to Moncton last Thursday to spend six weeks with her sister, Mrs. Murray. Owing to the announcement of a marriage I made last week and which takes rlace on Thursday next, a certain young dentist of North End has I am told received many congratulations with regards to the approaching event, all of which were taken in good part, and the persons left ignorant as to the truth. To be more definite I would say that the gentleman referred to last week resides at present in North End, but his professional services are rendered in the South End.

Many friends assembled at the I. C. R. Station, on Wednesday evening, to witness the departure of Miss Carvill for Paris. Mr. Frank L. Carvill accompanied Miss Carvill as far as New York, from where she sails by one of the steamers of La Ligne Nationale for Havre. Among the passengers will be Madame Carvill, who goes from Loudon, Ont., with several other religious of the Sacred Heart, to take higher orders. Miss Carvill will be absent abroad about it until next Marsh, is to have a large party on Friday evening. abroad about six months, and will probably visit

England and Ireland before her return.

This week another old and respected resident passed away, in the person of Mrs. Flewelling. She resided here nearly all her life. At the time of the great Indiantown fire she moved to the city, but came back to the North End to live, some years ago. Her husband, Mr. James Fewelling, was in a time employed in H. M. customs. Mrs. Flewelling is a sister of Judge Travis. Her death is not sudden, she having been ill for over a year. She leaves three daughters and one son. Miss Lou Parks brought the carnival honors to North End. She obtained first prize at the Victoria rink last evening.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais. Etc.

Instead of filling my column with pleasant news of late there seems to be nothing but sickness and sorrow to relate, and as either one or the other has entered the homes of so many it is not to be wondered at that there are so few social gratherings or other that there are so few social gratherings or other series of the state of the social circles of Tilley, at Government House, last Thursday evening, was an exceedingly enjoyable affair. About 50 guests were present, all in handsome evening costume. The programme embraced solos by Mrs. Currie, Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher, Mrs. Bridges, Miss Harrison, and Prof. Stockley; duetts by Prof. Bristowe and Miss Harrison, and Prof. Stockley and Mrs. Maunsell. Miss Bailey played two solos on the violin. The large double drawing-rooms of Government House are well adapted for an entertainment of this character, and the decorations were tainment of this character, and the decorations were exquisite. A platform was erected at the east end of the room, for the singers and piano. It was covered with oriental rugs, and on either side pots of tropical plants. The ceiling was festooned with evergreens brightened by colored flowers, and the walls were decorated with Chinese fans and panels.

for the last sixteen years. He was only 33 years of age and was much esteemed, being a most honorable business man, an affectionate husband and father, and one who was ever ready to aid any charitable work.

Mr. R. R. Ritchie returned from Ottawa on Tuesday, where he has been visiting his parents, Sir William and Lady Ritchie.

Mr. Edwards went to Sussex on Wednesday last to assist in the search for Mr. Cowie's body.

Dr. McAvenny has recovered from an attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Crockett in brown velvet. Mr. Herbert Tilley was home for the musicale. Mrs. Montgomery Campbell, gave a very delight-ful party at her handsome residence, last evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montgomery Campbell, who was visiting her. The guests numbered about 65. Ice cream and cooling drinks were served through the evening, and at 12 o'clock a delicious supper was served, the supper table being a marvel of beauty and luxury. The music, by Hanlon's orchestra, was all that could be desired for dancing. Everything was done by Mrs. Campbell and her daughter for the pleasure of their guests. Miss Campbell was pronounced a perfect young hostess. It was impossible to decide the belle of the evening, where all the young ladies looked charming, but I did hear Miss Blair spoken of as looking particularly pretty. Mrs. Campbell received her guests in a dress of handsome black silk white leas head dress silk, white lace head-dress.

Miss Campbell appeared in a very pretty costume of robin's eggs blue silk and coffee lace. Mrs. Henry Montgomery Campbell, in a charming gown of white corded silk, made very plain, square neck and half sleeves.

Miss Blair, in an elegant black lace costume, low dice, short sleeves, and cream natural roses. Mrs. Gordon, in a costume of red satin and silk net. This was an exceedingly handsome costume, and as Mr. Gordon is a handsome brunette, it suited her to perfection.

Miss Elinor Powys in black lace trimmed with the ribbon, blue esysette in hair. Miss Winslow, in Black lace, pink china silk sash, Mrs. Forgon, in black silk, long train. Mrs. Hemming, in Blue satin and net. Miss Sophia Tippet in black lace. The coaches were ordered at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Street had a large whist party one evening last week.

Mrs. Winslow had quite a large tea party at her residence, King street, last Wednesday evening. It is quite a treat to hear of a tea party in these days.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Byron Winslow entertained quite a large number of their friends at whist party.

Mrs. Gordon entertained a number of her lady friends at luncheon at 1.30 today.

Mr. Jack Ruel's shoe-shoeing party that was to have taken place last week, had to be postponed, owing to the rain, until Monday evening of this week, and as the snow still remained insufficient for week, and as the snow still remained insufficient for the state of the snow-shoeing, it was turned into a dancing party at Mr. Ruel's residence, Gibson, where a very de-lightful evening was spent. An excellent supper was served, and the tired party returned home in the early morning.

The Fossils met last Friday evening at the residence of Mr. Fred Fisher, and, as usual, spent a delightful evening.

To-morrow evening will be Judge and Mrs. Fraser's ball. This, it is said, will be the ball of the season; but as it is so late in the week I shall

There was a large party intending to go up to Marysville Rink last evening, but they received word in the afternoon that the ice was not good. They were much disappointed.

The evening before Mr. Frank Gregory's departure for British Columbia he was the recipient of a very handome gold watch, presented to him by Rev. Mr. Mowatt, Messrs. E. R. Everett and D. R. Forgon, on behalf of the congregation of St. Paul's Church, of which he was a member. Mr. Gregory, who did not anticipate such a thing, suitably acknowledged the presentation. He left on Friday by the afternoon train. the afternoon train. Mrs. R. D. Wilmot, wife of ex-lieutenant governor Wilmot, died at her residence, at Belmont on Thursday evening. Mrs. Wilmot had been in poor health for some time, having nevor recovered from a paralytic stroke, from which she suffered about four lytic stroke, from which she suffered about four years lago. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and many will remember her kind and pleasant manner who partook of her hospitality while at government house. Mrs. Wilmot makes the third ex-governor's wife who has died in the last two years, and the second in as many months. Mrs. Wilmot was Mrs. Chandler's successor as lady of government house.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs Jas. F. Mc-Murray sympathize with them deeply in the loss of their bright little son, Frank Neill, who died on Thursday morning from inflammation of the bowels,

Mr. Melville Jack is about moving his family to St. Andrews to live. Their many friends in this city will be very sorry to lose them. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jack are attractive members of society, and Miss Bessie Jack, their daughter, will be very nuch missed.

Miss Winnic Johnstone left home on Saturday for Miss Winnie Johnstone left home on Saturday for a two months visit in Boston and New York.

Mrs. Carmicheal, of St. Andrews, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack, in this city.

Mrs. Palmer returned to her home in St. John last Friday morning. The judge is still at the Barker House and Judge King is at the Queen.

Miss Florie Watters, of St. John, came to Fredericton yesterday. She is the guest of Mrs. Bailey.

Mrs. William Phair is spending a few days at Mr. William Rainsford's, Kingsclear.

William Rainsford's, Kingsclear. Mrs. Temple is slowly recovering from her illness.

Mr. Hilyard is also recovering.

The many friends of Col. John Robinson are pleased to know that he is again out of danger. Miss Ida Schurman, of Point du Chene, is visiting Mrs. J. G. Thompson, Westmorland street. Mr. D. F. Maxwell, of the Short Line survey, arrived here from Ottawa yesterday, and left for his home at St. Stephen this morning. Mr. J. F. McMurray, who has been suffering from la grippe for three weeks, was able to be out to business yesterday.

Mrs. Coburn is able to be out again after her recent attack of la grippe. Private advices from Fredericton state that the rumor of the engagement of a prominent clerical gentleman has not been confirmed and is not likely to be. In fact it is understood that the rumor has been denied flatly by the gentleman, and with every wish to do justice, Progress makes this statement.

LADIES' JERSEYS, Newest and most Fashionable

Mrs. Francis, of St. John, has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Borden, at their home on Botsford street The members of the East End Whist club met and thoroughly enjoyed themselves last week at the house of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris.

The West End contingent were entertained on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Butcher and to say that they enjoyed themselves is to but faintly express their feelings.

Not to have had a fall on the sidewalk lately is to be almost as much out of fashion as if you had not had the la grippe, and one or two of our citizens have met with rather bad accidents. Mr. Joseph Killam sustained quite serious injuries from a fall almost at his own door, on Fleet street. He slipped on the ice and fell in such a manner that his back received the full force of the blow, causing severe spinal shock and other injury, which will lay him up for some little time. Drs. A.H. and E. B. Chandler are in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boggs left town on Monday to spend a few days in Halifax.

Hon. L. H. Davies, of Charlottetown, passed through Moncton Tuesday.

Strolling up to the station on Sunday afternoon on the arrival of the belated Quebec express, I saw ribbons and cream lace.

Mr. J. S. Chandler, of Halifax, spent a few days in town last week, the guest of his brother, Dr. E. Mr. J. R. Bruce, of the I. C. R., returned on Saturday from his trip to Quebec.
Mr. L. B. Archibald, of Truro, paid a short visit to Moncton last week.

Miss Annie Cooke, who has been spending a fortnight in Truro, returned on Monday.

A largely signed requisition is being circulated urging Mr. F. W. Sumner to become a caudidate for the office of Mayor at the coming civic election. Mr. Sumner is already one of our most prominent merchants in spite of his youth, and has always taken a great interest in civic affairs. The town council, which has been composed this year almost exclusively of young men, has proved itself a most exclusively of young men and has a most exclusively of young men and has efficient body. "The town youngsters," as they were called at first in contradistinction to the City Fathers, have covered themselves with glory. The East End whist club met last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Cooke, on Steadman street. A large number of guests were invited outside of the club, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held their anniversary meeting, on Monday evening, at their hall on Main street. The president, Mr. J. C. Wilbur, occupied the chair and delivered the opening address, to some few words of which I must take exercise. The president hegan by saying that she ception. The president began by saying that she had little doubt there were some present who looked upon the W. C. T. U, as a few fanaties who were willing to work in the cause of temperance, in order to secure public notice or cheap notoriety, and others again who pitied them in a sympathizing manner and said they did no harm, and very little good. Now I must differ with Mrs. Wilbur, here. The union has never had the slightest reason to think it was so regarded in Moncton. The ladies who comprise it are regarded as a little band of earnest workers, who, though they make no noise about it, yet do an incalculable amount of good in their unassuming way, and who, were it only for the work they do among the poor and fallen, could the work they do among the poor and fallen, could ill be spared from society.

I hear rumors of several parties during the next week, especially one large party which is to take place next Monday evening, in Enman's Hall, but as yet I have not heard any particulars.
