

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, etc.

Easter Sunday was a very bright day, and the churches, one and all, were crowded, but I cannot say as much for the floral decorations as usual, the flowers having a very dead appearance, owing, I have been told, to their being unnecessarily forced to be ready for such an unusually early Easter.

Mrs. Jones, the florist, had such a demand for flowers that her own large greenhouses at Torryburn could not supply enough, and she was obliged to have the monopoly of another hothouse out of town. I do not think I will be interfering with "Tarbet" if I congratulate the new choir of Trinity, who, it is my opinion, as well as that of many others, rendered their parts admirably. The report I heard lately, "that the ladies of the choir were to receive a wedding gift from the rector and vestry," was quite true, and it certainly was a most kind act on their part.

The names of the new choir of Trinity church are as follows: Masters Perry Robinson, George Woodland, McArthur, Simson, Charley Harrison, Robert and George Matthew, F. and H. Sturdee, Alfred and Harry Clarke, P. Holden, Bailey, and Messrs. Smith, M. and H. Manks, Ewing, Howarth, Ingram, Kirkwood, W. Clarke, and one or two others, whose names I do not know.

A very pleasant but small dance was given by Mrs. Chipman Drury, Coburg Cliff, on Monday last, as a farewell to their daughter, Miss Blanch Drury, who left by the steamer "Narnia" this week for England, where she will spend some months.

Mrs. James Straton left for Boston this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. King, who have been here for some weeks. She will be absent only a short time.

One of the chief events of this week has been the sale and high tea in connexion with the Church of England Institute. As usual, there was no lack of visitors in the afternoon, and the handsome high tea was well patronized, and all seemed to appreciate the delicacies provided by all the well up in the art of cookery from all the different parishes. I have not heard what was realized. Instead of tableaux which I mentioned last week as taking place in connection with this sale I understand there is to be a drama, to be given under the supervision of Mrs. J. C. Allison, to raise funds for the city hospital flower fund, an object which will commend itself to the public of our city. It will take place next Thursday. Those taking part in it are the following well known ladies and gentlemen: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison, Misses Helen and Ethel Smith, Miss Develer, Mr. A. P. Tippet, Mr. C. Schofield, Master F. Sturdee, Mr. Wright, Mrs. Peters and Messrs. T. and H. Hartt. The name of the play they are going to undertake is "The Elevator."

A very pleasant At Home was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Taylor at their residence, Queen street, yesterday afternoon. The invitations had been issued for from 4 until 7 o'clock, and during that time the rooms were crowded, many remaining during the whole time. I noticed the gentlemen were not in such haste to return home as is usual at these gatherings, as the handsome and substantial refreshments quite compensated for losing their dinner.

Judge Palmer has returned home from his Canadian visit. Mr. J. L. Dunn has been seriously ill at his residence, Crouchville, for some days, and is still unable to leave his room. Mr. Fred Howard was so far recovered from his severe attack of rheumatic fever as to be able to remove from his boarding house to that of a relative, but at present he is suffering from a relapse of the painful disease. Miss Maggie McLaren is quite convalescent from her severe attack of the grippe.

Miss Ada Macdonald is visiting her sister, Mrs. Barker. Mrs. Albert Gregory, of Fredericton, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hurd Peters, Garden street. She has come to St. John for the benefit of her health, having been laid up for some months. Mrs. Samuel Berton, formerly of St. John, but now of Boston, is in the city. Mr. Walter Magee and Mr. E. Jarvis spent Easter in St. John.

Mr. A. C. Thomson, Bank of Montreal, is visiting New York and other cities for his holidays. Mr. E. Ambrose, son of Rev. J. Ambrose, Dugby, passed through St. John this week, en route for Moncton, where he takes a position in the Bank of Montreal there. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAvery have returned home from their trip to New York. Mr. Charles Lee, Bank of Montreal, spent Easter in St. John.

Miss Edith Sturdee, who has been suffering from the prevalent disease, is recovering. St. John has been quite gay this week, and the entertainments given were much appreciated by the young people especially, after the long penitential season they have passed through.

On Friday evening a pleasant party met at the residence of Mrs. George A. Knodell, Elliott Row. I have not been able to get a list of the guests, but I hear the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Dearborn (nee Knodell), were among them. I only wish people would send me particulars and list of guests, as it is impossible to give them unless present at the entertainment myself.

Another enjoyable dance was given by Mrs. Cowan, Hazen street, on Thursday evening. There seemed to be a great number present, and yet not crowded. Mrs. Cowan, assisted by her daughter, did the honors splendidly, as those who understand entertaining can. I thought all the arrangements, including the supper, were well carried out, and being present myself, can give a list of the guests, as well as I can remember, and which are the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fairweather, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. E. Ambrose, Miss Schofield, Miss Halway, Miss Turner, Miss McLaren, Miss Fairweather, Miss Parks, Miss Perkins, Miss Green, Miss Robertson, Miss Annie Turner, Miss Fraser, the Misses French, the Misses Adams, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Hartt, Dr. White, Mr. Keator, Mr. Blair, Mr. Kinneer, Mr. H. Deforest, Mr. C. Deforest, Mr. Troop, Mr. Sturdee, Mr. Ruel, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Temple, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Murray, Mr. Miller, and others.

Mrs. Edward Smith, Spring Garden, Halifax, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Saez. Miss Strickland, of Amherst, spent her Easter holidays in the city. She was the guest of Mrs. Saez.

St. John—North End. Miss Maclen, of Fredericton, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Robert Wisely. Dr. Smith went to Fredericton Tuesday afternoon, and returned home Wednesday.

Congratulations are being received by Dr. and Mrs. McInerney on the arrival of a little stranger to brighten their home. The little entertainment in the Methodist church on Easter Sunday afternoon was very successful. I have been requested to correct my statement with regard to several young ladies "failing to take part owing to the amount of hard work attached." The young ladies of that congregation are too enterprising to be set back by a little extra work in behalf of the church.

Mrs. Herbert Moore is improving. Her sister, Miss Halliburton, of Wolfville, N. S., is at present her guest. Mrs. P. Nae is having one of her houses renovated, which will shortly be occupied by one of our promising young men and his bride.

Hon. James and Mrs. Holly entertained a large number of friends Wednesday evening. It was stated last week that Miss Dorcas, of Boston, was visiting here, it should have read—of Fredericton, she is the guest of Mrs. McLellan. I am told that a prominent druggist, whom I mentioned some time ago, is to be united in wedlock within a fortnight. PEANETS.

St. John—West End. On Easter Sunday, the baptismal font in St. Jude's church presented a very attractive appearance. Unlike former occasions, when it stood on the church floor, it had been placed on a very handsome pedestal, which was covered with rich crimson felt, while artistically embroidered mats were placed on the steps. Around the font was a fine gilded rail of brass, and each section of the stand had on it a pretty upholstered cushion. In the stone basin was a handsome silver font, while the walls were touched with Easter roses and other flowers. The stand was the gift of Mr. Merritt Wetmore, the rail that of Mr. Charles A. Coster. The cushions were presented by Mr. Whitney D. Dunham, vestry clerk, the felt covering by Mr. Edwin Wetmore, while Mr. J. Arthur Coster gave the silver font, and Mrs. George Coster the pretty mats.

Mr. George Dunn, of Maine, spent a few days last week at Riverside cottage, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dunn. His two little girls, who have been spending some weeks with them, returned with him to Maine.

Mr. John V. Ellis, M. P., spent Easter with his family, and returned on Monday afternoon to his parliamentary duties. Miss Minnie Noble is passing a few weeks with Mrs. Fowler at the East End.

Mrs. Frank Daniels purpose spending a few days next week with her friend Mrs. Allison Wishart, on German street, East End. Mrs. Daniels will be accompanied by Mrs. Daniels, when she will return to her home in Campbellton.

Mrs. Hayes and Miss Flossie Hayes have returned from a very pleasant trip to New York. Mrs. M. Robertson, mother of Mrs. John Wilmot, is, I hear, quite poorly, but I hope it is not serious. Miss Edith Peters has once more been obliged to let her West End friends for a few weeks, having left on Saturday for a visit to Woodstock.

On Saturday Dr. C. T. Purdy arrived from Moncton to visit his wife, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Mingot, on King street. Justice Olive, of Fairville, who suffered very rude treatment at the hands of some ruffians a few evenings ago, is now able to be out again.

Mr. Tilton is said to be quite ill; his daughter, Mrs. Nae, has arrived from Moncton to attend him.

Mr. Arthur Lewin, who graduated from McGill Medical college this spring, is the guest of his grandfather, Senator Lewin, Lancaster Heights. A very successful musical and literary entertainment was held in the Fairville Methodist church on Thursday evening, under the direction of Miss Lewin. At the close of the programme refreshments were served.

Mr. James Manchester, and Mrs. Manchester sailed from England the first of this week for home. They have been absent for some months, and their many friends will be pleased to hear of their expected return to their residence on the Manawagonish road. Miss Wulbray, of Halifax, who has been passing the winter months with her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Clark on King street, has returned from a short visit to relatives in St. George, and will go home in a few weeks.

Master Fred Blair, of Chatham, who is the efficient organist at St. George's church, has been called to the main tenor by his wonderful playing. He is a manly, bright looking little fellow, and is much liked by the St. George's congregation. A heart of silver and gold has reached my ears lately, that of a bright young widow to a custom house officer.

Senator and Mrs. Richard Lewin left on Tuesday afternoon for Ottawa. Mr. Frank Morris, of Fairville, has not yet returned from McGill college. He is spending part of his vacation in Montreal.

Mr. Will Ellis has been passing a few days in Boston, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Cairns.

Mrs. Foster who came last autumn to reside at the West End, is thinking of moving to the East End. I can only regret that she, with many other residents, will leave us next month. PETS. MRS.

Mr. W. H. Dunlavey and family will leave the West End the first of May, to reside on the East side of the city.

Mr. Harry Dunlavey has returned from his trip to St. George. Mr. McLellan will occupy Mr. Dunlavey's house on Winslow street. The friends of Mr. Hardress Clark, at West End, will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from his late illness, and is able to attend to his business.

Mr. James Reed is again able to perform his duties at the post office. Mr. John Ring has been acting for him for the past three months. Mrs. George N. Clark, of Le Frobe Place, is out again after an illness of three months.

Mr. W. H. Harding has returned to the West End after spending at the East side. Mrs. LeBaron Thompson spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. G. F. Harding. Mrs. Calhoun is expected in June to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Ellis, St. James street.

Miss Jennie Clark still lingers in St. George. Captain Saunders, formerly of the West End, has been seen in and taken up his residence at Tacoma. He with Mr. Harry Linde, son of Mr. Fred Linde, King street, has opened a store there.

The friends of Miss Ellen, who has been ill for each week on which to receive their friends. It is an excellent idea. Mrs. W. C. R. Allan and Mrs. I. C. Olive, Tuesday; Mrs. H. J. Olive, Wednesday; Mrs. E. J. Scammell and Mrs. C. L. Nelson, Thursday; Mrs. Robt. Allan, the Misses Stewart, and Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Friday.

I hear that some of the society ladies are talking very seriously of organizing a sort of a club to be held fortnightly, in order to entertain a number of guests that are expected here the coming season. They have not yet decided whether to trip the light fantastic, or to have a drive whist club. "Y" would suggest having both.

Mr. Parsons, of Chatham, Hunter & Co., has built for himself a residence on Duke street. He expects to occupy it next month. Mr. Geo. Clark, of whom I spoke last week, is a little better, and was able to be moved to her home in Portland, Me., on Wednesday.

Mrs. I. Olive, Sr., and Miss Lee have been ill all winter, but are getting better now. Mrs. Helen Morrison, who has been ill for the past three years, is still confined to the house. Mrs. Purdy, of Moncton, left for her home on Thursday. Mr. Harry Scammell has returned from his visit to Ottawa.

Rev. Thos. Marshall, of the Methodist church, who has been with us two months longer. The residents of the West End will be sorry to part with him. His successor will be the Rev. Mr. Crisp, formerly of Portland. Miss Coy, who has been ill, is again able to attend to her duty as organist of St. Jude's church.

Mr. Harry McDuff is improving. He has been quite ill for some time. Miss Allen, wife of Rev. Mr. Allen, is again ill. Miss Bartlett has been confined to the house for the past two weeks. Mrs. A. M. Magee spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Robertson, Winslow street, who is quite ill. Mrs. Daniel is at present spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. H. Allen, Coburg street. Mr. G. S. Hayes has returned from Halifax. Rev. R. Houghton spent a few days at Lancaster last week.

Mrs. Albert Keating, of Boston, is visiting her nephew, Mr. Edw. J. Sheldon, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Allan's friends met at their residence, on Prince street, on Tuesday evening, and gave them quite a surprise, it being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. After congratulations the evening was indulged in and kept up until quite a late hour. "Y."

completely filled the building. Among those who took part were: Miss Byrne, Miss McGarrigle, Miss Laura (Neils), Miss McTinn, Miss Bessie Owens, Miss Flora (McTinn), Miss Dorothy, Master Gerald Sharkey, Messrs. Gilmont, Hayes, Perks, Neils, and W. Adams, Miss McAnley and the Misses McDonald. The tallian representing the Artists' studio and the Gipsy tent were particularly fine, and the costumes in all the pictures were beautiful.

Mrs. Dibble had a small card party in her rooms at the Barker one evening last week. She also had a small dinner party on Easter Sunday. Mrs. Dibble, who was present at Springhill, visiting Mrs. Charles Murray.

A number of young ladies met at Government House Saturday morning and organized an hospital aid committee, for the purpose of raising funds to endow a bed in Victoria hospital. The following were elected officers for the year: Lady Tilley, president; Miss M. Gregory, an Miss Blaikie, vice-presidents; Miss Harrison, secretary-treasurer. The concert in the City Hall tomorrow evening will be the first entertainment in aid of this worthy object.

A sad affair happened this afternoon by which Mr. and Mrs. Henry White were badly burned at their home on George street. They were engaged between 2 and 3 o'clock putting benzine on the parlor furniture to destroy moths. Mrs. White holding their young baby in her arms. Mr. White thought a less lighted match and the benzine caught fire. Before the fire was subdued the carpet and furniture in the room were pretty thoroughly destroyed, but this was nothing compared with the sufferings of Mr. and Mrs. White. Mrs. White was burned on the face and hands, but more on the back and shoulders. Mr. White was badly burned on the face and hands. When the flames burst out Mrs. White had the presence of mind to look first to the safety of her baby, and she carried it out in her arms. Both Mr. and Mrs. White are much prostrated by the shock and their injuries, but under the good care of the doctors and their friends they will, it is hoped, soon be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Council, of Woodstock, have been visiting their friends in this city. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. B. Fisher. Mr. Kenneth Hatt, who is attending Cornell university, spent his Easter holidays in New York. Miss Winnie Johnston returned home yesterday, after having nine delightful weeks in Boston, New York, Princeton and Philadelphia. Miss Winnie's friends are glad to have her home again.

Mr. W. Forester has been called to Quebec to take a special course at the military school. Mr. J. Douglas Hazen was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Wesley Vanwart presented her husband with a beautiful Easter present on Sunday morning—a little son. Mr. Temple, M. P., spent the Easter holidays at his home on George street.

Mr. W. H. Robinson, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, St. John, spent the Easter holidays with his friends here; also, Mr. Holmes, of the Merchants' Bank.

SPRING AND SUMMER COTTONS

For the Season of 1890.

We open the present season with a more extensive range of beautiful Cotton Dress Fabrics than any past season has ever shown—the products of the best makers of England, Scotland, France and our own country.

Mention is made of a few of the leading fabrics, but only by a visit to the counters can a correct idea be formed of the rare beauty and perfection to which the makers and printers of cotton fabrics have carried their art, even exceeding in certain effects the fabrics made of silk or wool.

Cashmere Ombre— one of the latest novelties in style and printing—is an article produced in England and confined to us for St. John.

The ombre effect has never before been produced in cotton goods. Unfortunately the quantity, although considerable, is not likely to be sufficient to supply the demand a little later.

Woodstock. Rumor says Mr. Holmes has strong attractions in Fredericton. Dr. Harry Gregory, of Stanley, has commenced the practice of his profession in Centreville, Carleton county. Mr. Robin Jack has returned from Newfoundland, where he was engaged on the government railroad surveys for several months.

The University sports are to be the 15th of May. Mr. Stephen Carman, an aged and respected resident of this city, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Cyrus Barr, on the 3rd inst. Mr. Carman was for many years a resident of St. Mary's, and was well known and generally respected. Mr. F. B. Edgecomb returned home from Ottawa on Wednesday last.

Dr. Inch, of Mount Allison, was here last week. Mrs. Fred Emery, of Penodiac, spent Easter Sunday with her friends in this city. Mr. Allen Ritchie, of Newcastle, was in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vanwart returned home yesterday from their trip to the West Indies. They had a rough passage both ways, nevertheless, they enjoyed the trip thoroughly. Fredericton has a new law firm, Messrs. John Black, Daniel Jordan, and Fred St. John Bliss, having formed a legal co-partnership under the name of Black, Jordan, and Bliss, and they occupy Mr. Black's office opposite the post office.

Mrs. Carney, of Florenceville, is here visiting her friends, she is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Wm. C. R. Allan, who will move the first of May to the house on the corner of Regent and New-ham streets. Mr. and Mrs. Akerly will move into the house at present occupied by Mrs. Vavasour, on St. John street.

Mrs. Vavasour will sell her furniture at auction next Wednesday at her residence, after which she will board with her son, Mr. Edwin Vavasour, on King street. Mr. Arthur Akerly is home from McGill college. Mr. Harry McAnley is home from the same university for the summer vacation.

The city school teachers have organized a kind of lodge and institute, to meet monthly for literary matters relating to their profession. The president is Mr. Palmer, of the High school, and the secretary is Mr. J. F. Rogers, principal of the Model school. SZZLH.

MARYSVILLE.

APRIL 9.—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Williams entertained a number of their friends on Monday evening. A very enjoyable and pleasant supper was served at 11.30 p. m. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Gibson, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, Mrs. John T. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Day, and Mr. F. A. Tapley, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Cadwallader, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Likely, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alexander, Mrs. C. O. Shaw, Mr. Thos. Shaw, Dr. and Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. B. H. Torrence (F'ron).

Some of the dresses worn were very handsome: Mrs. Alex. Gibson wore black silk, diamond ornaments; Mrs. E. A. Tapley was attired in a very becoming starch blue china silk, corsage bouquet of pink astors; Mrs. C. H. Hatt, black lace over old rose satin, ornaments gold; Mrs. Wm. J. Libby wore broche satin, cream vest, marceline roses; Mrs. John T. Gibson, black moire, old-point-lace, natural flowers; Mrs. W. T. Day, bronze satin, ruffled ornaments; Mrs. James Gibson and Mrs. Dr. Sharpe both looked exceedingly well in handsome black silk, gold ornaments.

Mr. John Anderson, M. P. P., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Elizabeth, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Robinson. Miss Maud Fisher spent Easter at her home. Rev. Dr. Sprague has tendered his resignation to the Methodist church here. Rev. Mr. Downey, F. C. Baptist, administered the rite of baptism to seven young ladies on Sabbath last. Mr. Harold Stickney was suddenly called to his home at St. Andrews, by the death of his cousin, on Saturday last.

Mr. Payne, of Fredericton, officiated at the Marysville Methodist church on Easter morning. The anthem, "Behold I tell you a Mystery," was very finely rendered, Miss Mary Gibson taking the solos. SCRIBBLER.

A Danger Signal!

A Cold in the Head may be aptly termed a danger signal warning you that if neglected that dangerous and disagreeable disease, Catarrh, is sure to follow, perhaps leading to Consumption and the grave. At no season of the year is Cold in the Head more prevalent than during the Spring months, and at no other season do the people of this country suffer more generally from Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and annoying effects. Do not for an instant neglect either of these troubles, but apply NASAL BALM, the only remedy that will give instant relief and effect a thorough cure. The following testimonials from many thousands in our possession bear witness to its sterling merit:

Wm. L. Lucas, Dempsey Corners, N. S., writing for a second supply of Nasal Balm says: "On Sept. 21 I got two bottles from you, and it has done me more good for Catarrh, than all the other numerous and costly remedies and treatment I had tried. I feel better now than I have for years, and have every reason to believe the two bottles I am now sending for will completely cure me. I consider Nasal Balm worth its weight in gold to any person suffering from Catarrh."

Wm. Clark, baggage master, W. & A. Railway, Annapolis, N. S., writes: "Please send me another bottle of Nasal Balm as my first bottle is gone, and I believe, had I used it according to instructions, it would have cured me; as it is I am very much better, in fact feel like another person."

Wm. Chas. Hanley, postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says:—"I submit the following to the public that any one who may be afflicted may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your Nasal Balm has restored to perfect health a four year old child of ours suffering from Catarrh."

Robert C. Woodman, Digby, N. S., writes as follows: "Enclosed find $1 for another large bottle of Nasal Balm which you will please send me by first mail. The bottle I sent for some time ago benefited me very much more than any other preparation I ever tried."

Mrs. M. Ray, Canoe, N. S., writes: "I have used Nasal Balm on several occasions with the children for cold in the head, and always find it effects a rapid cure."

Mr. Alex. Moore, Mechanics' Settlement, New Brunswick, says: "I am going on 75 years of age, and had very little hopes of anything to relieve my Catarrh. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised, I sent to you for a package. It has done me a great deal of good. I enclose you $2 for a further supply, part of which I intend giving to an afflicted friend. I advise all sufferers from Catarrh to use Nasal Balm."

D. S. McDonald, Mabou, C. B., writes: "Nasal Balm has helped my Catarrh very much. It is the best remedy I ever used."

Abraham Grant, Grant P. O., Westmorland, N. B., writes: "My daughter has used one bottle of Nasal Balm, and it has helped her Catarrh wonderfully. It gives general satisfaction in this neighborhood."

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Payne, of Fredericton, officiated at the Marysville Methodist church on Easter morning. The anthem, "Behold I tell you a Mystery," was very finely rendered, Miss Mary Gibson taking the solos. SCRIBBLER.

If Nasal Balm is not kept in stock by your dealer it will be sent post-paid on receipt of price (50 cents for small and $1 for large size bottles) by addressing FULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.
