MARCH 19.—The ladies of Fredericton are taking advantage of the brilliant oratory in the House of Assembly this season Every atternoon and evening the gallery is crowded, and many of the fair admirers of the genius of this province sit till the midnight hour drinking in the debates. If some of them are not theoretical lumbermen after today's proceedings, it will not be the fault of the extensive information given them on this industry.

The musicale given by Dr. and Mrs. Currie last Wednesday evening was a brilliant success in every Wednesday evening was a brilliant success in every particular. There were about 80 guests present. The programme comprised a solo by Miss Lugrin; two quartettes by Messrs. Spurden, Easty, Richards and Cooper; a trio by Mrs. Currie, Mrs. Flewelling, and Miss Lugrin; a reading by Mr. Creed, and a recitation by Miss Mary Gunter, a little neice of Dr. Currie's. An excellent supper was served at the usual time.

MAR. 19.-Talk about the way of the transgressor being hard! Why it is not to be mentioned in the same breath with that of the society correspondent of a popular paper during the dull season, when society people will continuously insist on not doing anything worthy of note, and the correspondent's life stretches out before him one grey expanse of nothingness. That sounds so like W. D. Howell's that it restores my self esteem to read it over.

A Danger Signal!

A Cold in the Head may be aptly termed a danger signal warning you that if neglected that dangerous and disagreeable disease, Catarrh, is sure to follow, perhaps leading to Consumption and the grave. At no season of the year is Cold in the Head more prevalent than during the Spring months, and at no other season do the people of this country suffer more generally from Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and annoying effects. Do not for an instant neglect either of these troubles, but apply NASAL BALM, the only remedy that will give instant relief and effect a thorough cure. The following testimonials from among thousands in our possession bear witness to its sterling merit: A Cold in the Head may be aptly termed a danger signal warning you that if neglected that dangerous
