SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

St. John—South End. A most enjoyable juvenile party was given on Friday evening last by Mrs. Thomas McAvity, at her residence, King street east, at which a large number of the friends of her little daughter were present. Dancing was indulged in by the young people, and everything was done to make the evening pass off pleasantly, including a very elegant supper. The table, besides being filled with every delicacy that could tempt the appetite, was most tastefully decorated with cut flowers. The members of the Bread and Butter Club met at the residence of Mrs. Watters, Princess street, on Friday last. Quite a number were present who not only enjoyed the bread and butter but a very pleasant dance. Mrs. G. R. Ellis entertained a number of her lady friends at an afternoon at home, yesterday, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock, at her residence, Union street. During those hours the rooms were filled with guests, for whom refreshments of all kinds were provided. Mrs. Ellis was assisted in entering her friends by her mother, Mrs. Armstrong, and her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Pugsley. This afternoon, a reception will be held at the residence of Mrs. Robert Thomson, Sydney street, for which about 100 invitations have been issued. As this will be the first large entertainment given in this new and elegant house it will doubtless be well attended. Miss Kate Disbrow, who was so severely burnt last week by her clothing catching fire while standing at an open grate, is still suffering much from the injuries sustained and it is feared it will be some time before she is able to be about again. Miss Maggie MacLaren left yesterday for Toronto where she spends some months with her sister, Mrs. T. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Scott, of Meadowlands, Gagetown, spent this week with relatives in the city. Miss Annie Symonds left this week for Philadelphia where for the present she will make her home. TERSICHOIRE. Mrs. J. Thomson entertained her lady friends at a very pleasant "at home" on Friday afternoon, the 7th inst., at her residence, Germain street. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number were present, and spent the time most pleasantly with their bright and charming hostess. Among those present were Lady Tilley, Mrs. Tuck, the Misses Tuck, Mrs. Allison Wishart, Mrs. James Robertson, the Misses Robertson (Rothsary), Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod, Mrs. J. DeW. Spurr, Mrs. Charles Watters, Mrs. Warner, the Misses Warner, the Misses McLaren, the Misses Blair, Miss Kitty Crookshank, Miss Murray, Miss Katie Smith, Miss N. Robinson and others. Mrs. Pugsley's "at home" on Saturday afternoon, was one of the most pleasant entertainments of the winter. A large number were present. Among them were Lady Tilley, Mrs. John Boyd, Mrs. T. W. Daniel, Mrs. W. Hazen, Mrs. Tuck, the Misses Tuck, Mrs. J. Thomson, Mrs. Robt. Thomson, the Misses Robertson, Mrs. Murray McLaren, the Misses Dunn, Miss Dever, Mrs. G. R. Pugsley, Miss Warner, the Misses Parks, the Misses Blair, the Misses Crookshank, Mrs. R. R. Inches, Mrs. D. McLellan, Miss Macrae, and many others. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rodgers gave a very pleasant party to a number of their young friends, on Monday evening, at their residence, corner of Elliot Row and Carmarthen streets. Whist was enjoyed until about 12 o'clock, when the guests sat down to supper, and after it was concluded, dancing was enjoyed until the party broke up at 2:30 o'clock. Among those present were: Misses Bonnell K. Knodell, G. Knodell, A. Racine, A. Mc. Nichol, A. King, H. Patton, E. Hoyt, J. Hoyt, Hayward, Mrs. Dearborn, Mr. W. Rankine, W. W. Jordan, A. Wetmore, W. Knodell, A. G. Boyne, E. Blair, Reid. A sleighing party was held at Mr. Treadwell's on Monday evening. It was composed of the young folks of the South End. A very enjoyable time was spent, and all returned well satisfied, which was in a measure due to the genial hospitality and kindness of Mr. Treadwell. On Monday evening, the 9th inst., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Vaughan celebrated the 20th anniversary of their married life. A large number of their friends were present to enjoy the festivities of the occasion, and some useful and ornamental articles were presented to the bride and groom of a score of years. The evening was spent in playing whist. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mc. Nichol, Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. R. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gordon Boyne, Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haslik, Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson, Mrs. John Horn, Mrs. William R. Russel, Mrs. William T. Mc. Leod, Miss Baxter, Miss Frances, Miss Jennie Boyne, Miss Orr, Mr. Frank Rowan. After partaking of a bountiful supper, dancing was indulged in until the small hours of the morning, when all the visitors departed to their homes, leaving the happy couple their best wishes. Misses Bella Holland and Stella Moore, of Boston, who have been on a visit to their friends in this city, returned home on Wednesday evening. St. John—West End. Miss Harding is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Clark, Lancaster. Dr. James Steeves, superintendent of the P. L. asylum, returned on Monday from Halifax, where he has been spending a few days. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dunn are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jewett in Boston. Mrs. Richard Lewin, with her eldest daughter, is spending a few days in Boston. As regards sleighing parties, our little community has been quite gay this winter. Nearly every evening that is fine and the sleighing is favorable, two or three merry parties leave the West End for a drive to South Bay, Lake Louisa, and enjoy a lively dance and hot coffee before returning home. On moonlight evening the hills at the West End are alive with the young people whose merry voices may be heard from afar, as they go coasting down the steep inclines. Mrs. Woodman had a very pleasant small family gathering on Tuesday last, at her home at Spurr's Cove. Mrs. Tilton has gone to Ottawa to bid farewell to her son, Charles, who leaves there in a few days for the West, where he has accepted a position. Mrs. Munroe is still with the Misses Tiltons. Mr. J. V. Ellis, is in Moncton, having accepted a position on the Transcript staff, during the campaign. I hear "rumors" of weddings, but so far none have come to pass, although spring will open with bright prospects for one young lady I heard of has gone so far as to pick out her bridesmaids. The driving party given last Thursday Evening by Mr. Robert Cowan was a very pleasant affair. The party numbered about 40, from East, North and West St. John. They drove up to South Bay, to the residence of Mr. Stevens, taking with them Mr. Scribner to provide music for the dancing. Some of the gentlemen took their "fair" ones in single sleighs. The light fantastic was tripped until 12 o'clock, when a very bountiful supper was served. Dancing was again resumed until 3 o'clock, when the party broke up, arriving in the city about 4:30 a. m. Among those present were: the Misses Louise Tapley, Mary Tapley, Gregory Tapley, Gerie Holly, Nettie Holly, Bessie Egley, Farmer, Peck, Ewing, Beverly, McInnis, Thompson, Watson, Hayes, Clark, White and Estey; Messrs. W. Holly, Flemming, Thompson, Armstrong, Robertson, Sime, J. E. Cowan, Ewing, Dr. Addy and many others. Rev. R. S. Crisp is in Moncton, and will remain over Sunday. Mrs. Dr. Purdy left for her home in Moncton the last of the week. She was called away very unexpectedly, her visit not being as long as was anticipated. There is to be a great deal of moving at the West End this spring. Among those who give up their houses are: Messrs. Arthur and Charles Coater, Mrs. Coy, Mr. I. Olive, Mr. Charles Nelson and Mrs. Woods. I hope all do not intend going to the East End. Mr. Frank Olive left last week for Boston, where he has accepted a position. Mr. I. C. Olive is again able to be resume his duties at his office. WEST END.

St. John—North End.

Feb. 11.—Miss Carrie Barnhill is visiting friends in Nova Scotia. Dr. March left yesterday for a trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Arch Purdy are the guests of Mr. S. Purdy. Mr. Joseph Knight returned from Boston on Monday. Congratulations are being offered Count and Madam de Bury on the advent of a little stranger. Mrs. Stephenson, Douglas avenue, has been confined to the house for a few days past. Miss Eva Lynch went in the convent as boarder last week. Miss Mamie Coleman, of Fredericton, who is attending the convent, spent the "first Saturday" with Miss Maggie Shaw. The Harrison socials came to a close last Friday evening. Mrs. Wm. Keltie has issued cards for a progressive whist party, which takes place, I believe, this evening. The Hamilton-Tapley whist party met last week at Mrs. Wm. B. Hayford's, Main street. The first prizes were won by Mrs. D. F. Tapley and Miss Letta Tapley, as gentlemen. The booby prizes were carried off by Miss Letta Tapley and Miss Cassie Tapley. The party met again last evening at Mrs. C. Miller's, Douglas avenue. The first prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Hayford, and the booby prizes by Miss Cassie Tapley and Mr. D. Tapley. The next reunion takes place at the home of the Misses Tapley, Holy street. There was a fine concert in the Baptist church last evening. A complimentary assembly to Messrs. Holly and Armstrong, of the Portland committee, will be held in the Mechanics Institute, next Friday evening. As this will be one of the series, no invitations will be issued outside of the original list. FREDERICTON. [PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.] Feb. 11th.—The conversation at the University Monday evening, was without any exception the greatest social event of the season. Out of the six hundred invitations issued, there were four hundred accepted. The students have every reason to congratulate themselves on the success of their entertainment. Every thing connected with it was simply perfect. The decorations were exceedingly fine. A magnificent arch of evergreens and colored flowers was erected between the front and back halls. Suspended from the centre of this arch was a red panel, with black walnut border with "U. N. B. 91" in gilt letters and figures, and in the centre was a photograph of the University. Red and black are the college colors. The pillars, windows and walls were gaily decorated with festoons of evergreen and bunting. The large entrance door was covered with red bunting, and on it were the words "Alma Mater." The guests, on entering the College Hall from the east door, were received by Dr. and Mrs. Harrison, Miss Harrison, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Bridges and Dr. Hyde. The large hall was perfectly adapted for dancing, and the floor was in fine condition. There were as many as a hundred couples on the floor at one time. Two large class rooms were also used for dancing, one on either side of the hall. The Band School Band furnished excellent music, and the dancing began at a quarter to ten, and was kept up with great interest until half past one, when the Band played "God Save the Queen." Uptairs, refreshments were served in the College reading room throughout the entire evening. The science rooms and the laboratories were open, and Dr. Bailey and Professor Duff conducted very interesting experiments, much to the enjoyment of the guests. The museum and library were also open, as well as the apartments occupied by Dr. Harrison and Dr. Bridges, making an innumerable number of quiet little retreats and flirtation nooks. I shall only be able to give a description of a limited number of dresses, as it was impossible in such a crowd either to see or to remember them all. Mrs. Harrison wore a very handsome black silk. Mrs. Harrison, white silk, low neck, and short sleeves. Mrs. Bailey, brown silk, with white lace trimming. Mrs. Bridges, dark green velvet and pink satin trimmings, elbow sleeves and medall collar.
