SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst, Calais, Etc.

The dance given by Senator and Mrs. Boyd at their residence, Queen square, last Thursday evening, was complete in all arrangements and on a very elegant scale. The house is well adapted for entertaining, and those who participated in this party, voted it a great success. A large number of the young friends of the host and hostess were present, and also those of Miss Jones, of England, who is their guest, and for whom the entertainment was given. A very handsome supper was served on Monday evening Mrs. Charles Kinnear entertained a number of the young friends of her son, Mr. Frank Kinnear, at her residence, Carleton street. Dancing was the amusement of the entire evening, which all present participated in with much spirit. An elegant supper was partaken of, and dancing kept up for sometime afterwards. Among those present were:

Miss Winnie Wright, Miss May Beer, Miss Mollie Robinson, Misses Patton, Miss Louise Holden, Miss Edith Robertson, Messrs. C. and F. Schofield, Miss Edith Huntington, Miss Alice Walker, Mr. Willie Robinson, Mr. Mortimer Robertson, Mr. Harold Wright, Mr. C. Kinnear, (Sussex) Mr. B. Robinson, Messrs. Hunt Campbell, Miss Forbes, Miss Gertrude Schofield, Miss Florence Smiler, Mr. Harry Robinson, Miss Nellie Jarvis, Messrs. Bowyer and Harold Smith, Mr. Frith, and others.

Mrs. A. Hanington entertained a few of the friends of her son, Mr. Charles Hanington, at her residence, Sidney street, on Wednesday evening, when a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. S. T. King, who, with Mrs. King, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Richey, Chicago, was last week seized with paralysis, and still continues in a very precarious condition.

Mr. F. H. J. Ruel, of the Bank of Montreal, is spending his holidays in Boston.

Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, who was seriously injured a few weeks ago by being thrown from a sleigh, will be laid up for some time, as two ribs were broken, and her shoulder dislocated. She was taken to the residence of her brother, Mr. Howard Troop, Orange street, after the accident occurred, and will remain there until convalescent.

It seems like a revival of the good old times at the Victoria skating rink this season, as I see it is being largely patronized by our young society people, and bids fair to be, as of yore, the favorite pastime this winter.

The Misses Stanford, Nova Scotia, are the guests of their brother, Mr. J. D. Stanford, Sidney street.

Dr. Albert Lockhart, who after several years successful study at Edinburgh, has been visiting his friends in this city, left for Montreal this week where he has a very good opening for beginning a professional career.

I regret to hear that the youngest child of Mr. T. Barclay Robinson has been alarmingly ill with scarlet fever for the last week, but at the time I am writing hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The death of Mrs. James McMillan which occurred on Monday last was a great shock to her many friends and her loss will be keenly felt by a large circle of both relatives and acquaintances. She leaves one son, Mr. John McMillan, for whom much sympathy is felt. Her funeral, which was very largely attended, took place on Thursday afternoon.

On Tuesday evening last a large sleighing party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Allison Wishart, started from town at 7 o'clock, and drove as far as Rothsay. Snow had fallen heavily all day, but notwithstanding their destination at half past eight o'clock. One of the most hospitable houses of Rothsay was thrown open for their reception, where after spending the evening in dancing, the party returned home, arriving in town about 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

Miss Helen Walker is visiting Musquash.

Miss Grace Skinner entertained her friends to a tea party, on Wednesday evening, the gentle men appearing afterwards.

Among the early intimations of desirable Germain street residences that will be vacant this spring is the handsome residence of the late Mr. S. P. Osgood which is announced for sale, and the spacious flat at present occupied by Mr. Robert Turner which will be vacated the first of May.

A most enjoyable "At Home" was given Wednesday evening by Miss Butler, Queen street, assisted by Miss Pullen and Misses Gerrie and Nettie Holly. Despite the storm, over thirty young ladies came to bid Miss Jennie farewell before leaving for Sackville, where she goes to attend the Ladies college. After a pleasant chat and sociable cup of tea, the girls dispersed, wishing someone else would soon have another "At Home." Among those present were: Messrs. Paddington, Dunbar, Fowler, Taylor, Worrall, (Stouffville, Mass.), J. Bullen, Armstrong, Gregory, Barr, Eagles, Vincent, Courtney, Peters, Ferguson, and McE. W. Merritt.

St. John—West End.

JAN. 8.—The annual New Year's entertainment at the P. L. asylum, on Lancaster Heights, was held on Thursday evening of last week. The chapel, which had been very tastefully decorated with flags and garlands for the occasion, had lovely two long tables, extending nearly the entire length of the room, were spread with a bounteous repast, while on the platform toward the two stately Christmas trees. While the inmates were doing full justice to the good things set before them, the King-village band, which had kindly offered their services for the evening, played several very pretty selections. During the intervals Mrs. Perley, who has always been a welcome guest at former entertainments, delighted her hearers with songs that were familiar to all present, and when the sweet strains of "Annie Rooney" floated through the room, their delight knew no bounds, and she was truly enjoyed. After the hearty repast had been made glad, the banishment were invited down to supper, which had been thoughtfully provided by Dr. Steeves. The guests, including Rev. Mr. Mathers, Mrs. Perley, Mr. and Mrs. David McLellan, Miss Edith Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harding and Mr. Joseph Steeves, then adjourned to the dining room, where, after partaking of supper, speeches were made by Dr. Steeves, Rev. Mr. Mathers and Mr. McLellan. On the following evening a similar entertainment was given at the same place.

Rev. Walter A. Taylor, who has been spending Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Taylor, left on Tuesday morning, to continue his theological studies at Harvard.

Rev. V. D. LeBlanc, who has been assistant at the Roman Catholic chapel, has gone to Milltown, to replace the present one, which is rather out of date, besides being too small for the evening congregation.

The holiday season now being over, our young collegians have returned to their respective seats of learning.

Mr. Harry Scammell and Mr. Kimball Scammell, left for McGill, Montreal, on Sunday evening, and Mr. Will Ellis, returned to the same college, on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Nase, of Chicago, spent last week with his grandfather, Mr. B. Tilton, en route to his former home in Moncton. There seemed to be more calling done at the West End this year, than in days gone by. The young ladies whom I heard, received, were Miss Ellis, Miss McDuff, Mrs. Flossie Hayes, the Misses Wilmonts, Miss Hattie Olive, Miss White and Miss Beatty.

Congratulations to W. O. Taylor, son of J. K. Taylor, upon his success as a Divinity student at Harvard. Mr. Taylor captured the Hopkins scholarship, and also preached the Christmas sermon.

On Wednesday evening Miss Mullen, organist of the church, was presented with a very handsome album and gold leaf pencil by some of the members of the church and the choir.

A great many enjoyed sleighing on New Year's day, particularly the young men and maidens. The Manawagonish road seems to be the favorite drive.

Mrs. Roberts gave a family party on New Year's. Mrs. J. E. Hamn is able to be about again, after being confined to her bed for several weeks.
