PERSONAL

new year's day in town with his mother at her home on Steadman street.

The many friends of Mr. Albert Macalarey, who has been very ill, and has spent most of the autumn under treatment at the St. John hospital; are glad to see him in town again.

Miss Ruggies, of Weymouth, N. S., has been spending some time in Moncton with her sister, Mrs. O. S. Weeks.

Mr. W. C. Ross returned, on Saturday, from his fortnight's visit to his home in Montreal.

Dr. Somers is receiving warmest sympathy from his many friends in the severe loss he met with last Monday evening, when his office was almost entirely destroyed by fire.

New Years eve was marked by one or two pleasant events in the form of presentations.

The Salvation Army celebrated New Year's eve after a fashion of their own, even a midnight parade, down Main street, which they seemed to enjoy thoroughly.

Amongst the many New Year's presentations which have taken place in our town during the last week, one which is worth mentioning, seems to have escaped the public notice, perhaps on account of the extreme modesty of the recipient, which doubtless caused him to shrink from publicity.

The many friends of Mrs. Woodman will regret to hear that she met with a very severe accident last week during the slippery walking, falling on the ice and fracturing her shoulder.

The congregation of St. John's church, on behalf of the congregation, with a valuable Astrachan coat. The presentation took place at the closing of the prayer meeting on New Year's evening.

Mr. Wier has been an elder of the church for over 30 years, and is the founder of the Sunday school here; he was very pleased and surprised at such an evidence of affection and esteem.

Mr. Samuel Hunter celebrated New Year's eve by entertaining some 30 of his friends at supper at his restaurant, where they saw the Old Year out and the New Year in, amid songs, speeches, and general jollification.

Mr. Ernest, of St. John, was registered this week at the Windsor hotel.

Mr. Richard Gentry, of Kansas City, who is visiting here, this week the guest of her niece, Mrs. Waterbury.

Miss Emma Harris gave a very pleasant evening party at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Todd, last evening. There were not a large number of guests, but I heard it was a most enjoyable evening.

Strangers visiting our town can no longer complain of lack of hotel accommodation equal to any town in the province, for the Windsor hotel is now open to the travelling public. It is a very handsome house, and on entering one is struck with the lofty and elegant appearance of the halls, and the most imposing and comfortable of the whole house makes one wish it were their lot to abide there. I hear it will be a popular place for parties and reunions, and that one who spends a few days intends to give a party there some time during this month.

Mr. Percy Lord, pale blue silk, trimmed with white lace, diamonds.

Mrs. Lewis Dexter, dark blue silk, with adornments of pink.

Mrs. Henry Eaton, black lace and black satin costume with ornaments.

Mrs. Charles Eaton, black satin with pearl ornaments.

Miss Mina Downes, yellow sash silk with trimmings of white pascament.

Miss Helen McNeil, cream colored sash silk, trimmed with cream ostrich feathers; diamond ornaments.

Miss Alice Boardman, pale pink silk, with trimmings of pink ribbon, corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Maud Murchie, pale pink plush, trimmed with white silk cord.

Miss Clara Jordan, scarlet and white silk dress, with cream ribbons.

Miss Lillie Eaton, cream colored cashmere, with pink and green ribbons.

Miss Annie King, pink silk, pink ostrich feathers and diamonds.

Miss Bessie King, cream sash silk, on train, with trimmings of lace and ribbon.

Miss Mary Newton, cream cashmere dress, with trimmings of down, ornaments gold.

Miss Kate Washburne, black satin and fish net costume.

Miss Margaret Todd, pink silk, trimmed with pink fringe, with a wreath of daisies in her hair.

Miss Berta Smith, pale blue cashmere, with trimmings of cream lace, corsage bouquet of ivy leaves.

Miss Alice Galar, pale blue, and white silk, with trimmings of down, ornaments gold.

Miss Alice Cullinan, pink gauze adorned with pink ribbon and applique embroidery, corsage bouquet white lilies.

Miss Mary Cullinan, black silk with silver trimmings, silver ornaments.

Miss Emma Harris, black lace, with necklace of gold beads.

Miss Alice White, white gauze with cream sash and ornaments.

CUTICURA

Cold, raw winds of winter fan to fury itching, burning, and scaly humors and diseases of the skin, scalp, and blood. No pen can describe their severity, no language can exaggerate the suffering of those afflicted, especially of little babies, whose tender skins are literally on fire.

Winter is the best time to effect a permanent cure. Cuticura Remedies are the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times, are absolutely pure, and agreeable to the most sensitive, and may be used on the youngest infant and most delicate invalid with gratifying and unflinching success.

CUTICURA SOAP, the only medicated toilet soap, is indispensable in cleansing diseased surfaces. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood and skin purifier and greatest of humor remedies, cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus removes the cause. Hence, the Cuticura Remedies cure every humor of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, from pimples to scrofula, from infancy to age, when the best physicians fail.

How to Cure Diseases of the Skin and Blood. Mailed free to any address, 64 pages, 300 Diseases, 50 Illustrations, 100 Testimonials. A book of priceless value to every sufferer.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; CUTICURA SOAP, 35c.; CUTICURA RESOLVENT, $1.50 Prepared by POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

Pimpily Skin, red, rough hands, painful finger-ends and shapless nails are prevented and cured by Cuticura Soap, incomparably the greatest of toilet and nursery soaps.

A young son of Mr. George Ford's met with a severe accident, on Saturday afternoon, while climbing up on an icy shelf. He fell some fifteen feet. I did not hear the nature of his injuries, but imagine they must be quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clerke, on New Year's evening gave a very pleasant card party. The guests invited were: Hon. James Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clerke, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Vroom, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill, Mrs. Helton, Miss Mary Abbott, Miss Louis Melick, Miss Thomas, Misses Annie and Addie Trimmer, and Miss Mabel Clarke.

BATHURST.

[Progress is for sale in Bathurst at A. C. Smith & Co's store.]

Jan. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cowperthwaite were very agreeably surprised, on New Year's day, by a visit from their friends, Mr. Barbarie, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, of Bathurst. The gentlemen spent the day only, but Mrs. Johnston remained Mrs. Cowperthwaite's guest till Saturday.

Miss Helen McNeil is visiting her brother, Rev. H. A. McNeil, at Moncton.

Mr. and Mrs. Terrence McManus and family, of Dakota, U. S. A., are spending the winter here.

Mr. E. L. O'Brien was home for the holidays. Richibucto air (?) evidently agrees with our friend, for each visit home, finds him looking happier and healthier.

Mr. W. F. Draper made a short visit to his home people, in Dalhousie, during the holiday season. I don't know whether it was the snowy or rainy attractions of this place that caused him to make such a brief stay away; but his friends were pleased to see him back so soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harrington and children have returned from a pleasant holiday trip to their home, Chatham.

Mr. J. J. McGaffigan, of St. John, is in town today.

Mrs. Frank McNeil, who has been for quite a while suffering from inflammation of the lungs, and a relapse of the malady, is improving in health.

The curlers social which generally heralds a pleasant round of social gaieties is to be given, in the hall of the Y. M. C. A., on Monday evening. The absence of Miss Josie Burns will be much regretted this year; but the knowledge that she is enjoying herself in New York will serve to temper our regret.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Willbur returned from Woodstock in time to entertain their friends, New Year's day.

WELDFORD STATION.

[Progress is for sale in Weldford at Gordon Livingstone's.]

Jan. 7.—Mr. Fred Ferguson, of Richibucto, was here on New Year's day, visiting his sister, Mrs. Gordon Livingstone, Mr. Brown, Mr. Wilson, Mr. John A. McAlmon, of Kingston, was at the Eureka Sunday, on his return from an extended pleasure trip to British Columbia and the North West Territories.

Mr. John W. Miller, of Millerton, was at the Central yesterday.

Mrs. James McDermott and Mr. J. Warren McDermott drove to Richibucto Sunday afternoon, and returned home Monday.

Mr. Allan Smith, of Woodstock, and Mr. Frank Tilley, Waterville.

TRURO, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's.]

Jan. 7.—Mr. D. H. Smith left, last week, for St. John.

Mrs. Isaac Snook entertained a number of Miss Bette's young friends, last Tuesday evening, in honor of the latter's young friends, Miss Addie Bell of New Glasgow, who is her guest.

The juvenile event of last week was Master Eugene Cummings party, at West Wednesday, at his home, 101 St. John street.

His young friends in a velvet "Fautouerie" costume and proceeded to do the honors with a gusto and abundance that very soon set his friends at ease. Dancing was the first amusement indulged in, being inaugurated by Sir Roger DeCoverly, followed by Mrs. Thomas Mason gave a very pleasant dancing party for her young friend, Lora Hyde, Monday evening last.

Miss G. B. Faulkner, provided a very pleasant surprise for the choir of St. John's and a few intimate friends, last Friday evening after practice, at the music room. A few hours were spent very pleasantly, discussing the genial host's good things and listening to some choice musical selections.

Miss Clara King has returned to her studies at Wolfville.

Miss Hyde, the Misses McNaughton and Misses Edith and Grace Patterson, Annie Tupper, Marion Longworth, Isabel Chambers, and Masters Walter Muir, Mel. Blanchard, Kenneth Mackenzie, Jack and Dave Muir, Leslie and Ashley Langley, Harry Kaubach, Edgar Miller, Lewis Harding, Douglas Cummings, Frank and Fred Tupper, Douglas Patterson, S. G. Chambers. The revels lasted until after 9 o'clock p. m., and when the young guests went home they all declared they had never enjoyed a gladder time.

Mr. Archibald Kaulbach, because of a renewal of his throat trouble, is again obliged to rest from most of his pastoral duties, which are being attended to by Mr. Lutes, who is a guest at the rectory.

Miss Marion Ross returned on Monday from New Glasgow, where she was spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. New-omb, who has been visiting friends at Fern Hill, left last week for Boston, where she will spend the remainder of the winter among her friends.
