SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

And the Happenings in Social Circles of Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock, Dorchester, St. Stephen, Sussex, Amherst,

Mr. J. Miller, who has been so seriously ill with hemorrhage, is slowly recovering. Mrs. S. T. King has returned to St. John, and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James Straton. Miss Sara and Miss Belle Nicholson are visiting gaiety among the young people, and nearly every night there have been entertainments of some sort. Thursday of last week a very large and pleasant gathering of the members of the Half-Hour Reading Club were entertained by Mrs. Robert Crookshank, at her residence, Sidney street, when, after some hours spent in readings aed music, a handsome supper was enjoyed by the guests present. A number of the young friends of Mr. Morley McLaughlin and Miss McLaughlin were entertained at their mother's residence, Germain street, on Friday evening, when a delightful evening was spent in playing cards and other games, together with

On Friday evening a very enjoyable juvenile party was given by Mrs. F. Barker, Mount Pleasant, for the young friends of her daughter, Miss Madeline Barker. Everything was done to give the little ones pleasure. Dancing, games, and supper being the amusements of the evening.

On Monday evening the young ladies of the sew ng and whist club were entertained by Miss Annie Scammell, Leinster street. Only the ladies belonging to the club and their gentlemen friends were present. The first part of the evening was spent in playing whist, and after supper dancing was kept up until a late hour.

On Thursday evening Mrs. E. J. Symonds gave a arge and delightful ball at her residence, Waterloo treet. Cards of invitation had been issued to over 100 of her friends, and judging from the numbers who filled the rooms there were quite that many present when the party was at its height. The house is well adapted for entertaining, having a arge ball room attached, the floor of this was waxed, while over the large drawing rooms a linen was stretched so the dancers could not complain of overcrowding. The ball room was very tastefully trimmed and flags gracefully draped about it. A long programme of dances was gone through, as well as extras with only a pause for supper which I must say was a very handsome one, and Mr. and Mrs. Symonds are to be congratulated on the success of their ball. I noticed several new and pretty toilettes among the ladies, but time fails me to describe them. The arrangements for the exhibition of centuries, which is to come off about the second week in April, more centuries. A meeting was held on Tuesday

Union Street, and with her assistance, the ladies who attended it, made arrangements to represent the 12th and 13th centuries and by appointing subcommittees, etc., got things in: o good running order. An hour or two was spent in discus-ing the characters to be represented at this booth, and if some of those present were a little hazy in their nistory, I have no doubt, they will improve as time goes on. The ladies of each booth intend making everything characteristic of the century they are to represent and will have (as well as appropriate costumes,) fancy articles for sale, a refreshment counter, where the meat and drinks in vogue at that time will be dispensed. Another feature in the general entertainment will be a series of tableaux each evening, while the entertainment lasts, every booth contributing one. This if well carried out, as I have no doubt it will be, should prove a great attraction. For the booth over which Mrs. Coster is to preside, and in which characters of the 12th and 13th century, are to be represented. The following ladies and gentlemen will take part: Mrs. G. C. Coster, Mrs. E. P. Winslow, Mrs. Gardiner Taylor, Mrs. J. D. Shatford, the Mis-es Campbell, Miss Tina MacLaren, Mrs. E. I. Symonds, Miss Hazen, Miss E. Winslow (Chatham) Miss Gussie Wright, Miss Helen Smith, Mr. Gardiner Taylor, Mr. E. P. Winslow, Mr. C J. Coster, Mr.

Evil, Mr. M. B. Edwards, Mr. Schofield and Mr. G. B. Pugsley, having been appointed registrar of deeds, is obliged with his family to remove to Hampton. His handsome residence on Chipman's Hill has been purchased by Mr. Fred E. Sayre. On Thursday atternoon an afternoon "at home" was given by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hazen, at their resi lence, Hazen street, when a large number availed themselves of their kind hospitality, and from 4 o'clock until 7 the rooms were well filled

TERPSICHORE. Miss Annie Lugrin, of Fredericton, is visiting Mrs. W. II. Merritt. Miss Jennie Latta, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hazen, corner Germain and Union streets, has returned to her home, Burlington, New Jersey, U.S., after a most enjoyable visit. Mr. A. H. Bell has the sincere sympathy of many friends for the loss of his devoted wife, who passed away last week after a linge ing and painful illness, brought on, it is thought, by over-exertion and fatigue when on a visit to the Northwest last summer. She leaves one daughter, a bright little girl, to share her husband's loss.

PROGRESS is requested to state that the following ladies residing on Mount Pleasant will receive on the first three Tuesdays in each month: Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Mrs. Alward, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. J. H. Parks. Mrs. John Burpee, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Fred. Barker and Mrs. Stetson.

Among the largest and most enjoyable social affairs of the week was a party given by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Logan at their residence, Wednesday evening. The house was be utitulty decorated with flowers plants and fairy lamps, while Harrison's orchestra furnished splendid music for dancing. Those who did not follow the latter amusement found enjoyment in progressive whist. The first prize for which was wor by Miss Worrall, while Mrs. A. F. DeForest captured the booby trophy. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peters, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. JAN. 22.—The many triends of Mrs. McWilliams will be sorry to hear that she fell on the ice, one evening last week, and bruised herself quite badly, especially about the face. She will be housed for some time. Miss Norah Knight spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. J. Knight, at Musquash.

Mr. Wetmore spent a few days at the West Endlast week.

Mrs. R. S. Crisp, who has been quite poorly, is able to be out again.

Mrs. and the Misses Woods, expect to leave West End about March, to join Mr. Wood in Boston, where they will reside. They will be much missed, particularly in musical circles.

The sleighing party which I spoke of last week came off on Friday. It being a fine night, the drive to Westfield was enjoyed very much, and also the supper and the dancing.

MONUTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street] JAN. 21.—It might savor a little of exaggeration to the unbiased mind, if I said that our little city resembled Venice in carnival time, just now; because, you know, Venice naturally suggests the grand canal, and of the too confiding stranger who energy decorred the Maneton secrety notes. eagerly devoured the Moncton society notes, were taken in by the comparison, and then came to Moncton, and looking for the grand canal, found the Petitcodiac river, he would naturally feel disappointed. But we have been having a very gay time of it since the New Year, all the same. Why, during the seven days since I last wrote my little weekly "piece" we have hal two dances, a vestry meeting, and four fires. The dances were delightful meeting, and four fires. The dances were defigured in the extreme; but somehow or other there was more excitement about the vestry meeting and the fires. This week—but let me not anticipate.

The bread and butter club met on Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Harris, and had a delight ul time. These young people seem to possess a wonderful faculty for enjoying themselves and a wonderful faculty for enjoying themselves and making the most of life.

Miss Murray, of Chatham, is spending a few weeks in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Peters of Alma street.

The numerous friends of the Kev. A. J. and Mrs. Cresswell, of Springfield, were delighted to see them in town once more. They spent all last week in Moncton, the guests of Mrs. Cresswell's father, Mr. George Taylor, of the I. C. R. Capta n Deruier, returned home last week, and will spend the remainder of the winter in Moncton. Dr. J. C. Bridges, formerly of Moncton, but now of Queens county, spent some days in town last week among his old triends, who were glad to see him looking so well. He returned to Queens county on Monday.

The Rev. Richard Simonds of Oromocto preached in St. Georges church on Sunday morning and evenin St. Georges church on Sunday morning and even-ing. Speaking of St. Georges reminds me that the congregation of that church do not seem much nearer being provided with a rector than they were two months ago. A meeting of the parishoners was held on Monday evening, it was the other half of the adjourned meeting of last month, but no decision was arrived at. I believe the voting resulted in a tie between two of the clergymen nominated, in a tie between two of the clergymen nominated, and a further postponement of a month. I trust some result may be arrived at next time, the third time being the charm, according to tradition.

about 40. It is needless to say that everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The next social event to be looked forward to, is the Bachelors' and Benedicts' ball, which takes place on Friday evening, at Enman's Hall, and which will, no doubt, be a very great success, as our Moncron lads always seem to succeed in anything they undertake.
