young friends at her home, Elliot Row, last Wednes-PROGRESS readers will all admit that it has eay evening. The young people enjoyed themselves always had one very capable and careful society to their hearts content in dancing. Ice cream was correspondent in "Terpsichore," and for sometime served during the evening. Among those present we have had regular contributors from the West were : Misses Bessie Peters, (Hampton) W. Peters, A. Spencer, Lizzie Hawker, May Rogers, Maud and North Ends. It is, however, as impossible for one correspondent to collect all the social news in Addy, Nellie Hayward, G. Adam, Eva Kerr, the South End as it would be for one writer to Tinny Kelley, Mrs. S. Hawker, Mrs. E. M. Robertcover the ground for a daily paper. We want one son, Clara Williams, Messrs. Allie Jordon, Dr. or two more correspondents, and will be glad to George Addy, A. Boyne, G. Moore, S. The At Home given on Saturday last by Mrs. R. Thompson, Sydney street, was very largely attended by the lady friends of Mrs. Thompson, gentlemen not having been included in the cards of invitation. Conversation is always the chief pastime at these afternoon gatherings, and the principal topic at this one was the new and elegant residence under whose roof they were being entertained, and everyone was in raptures over it. Many, I fear, breaking the tenth commandment, when they returned to their own homes. Fres burnt brightly both in the rooms and hall, and the guests were waited on by the following young ladies who dispensed, tea, coffee, ices and cake: Miss Macrae, Miss Tina and Miss Berta Maclaren, Miss Bessie, Flossie, and Maud Robertson, Miss Katie Smith, and the Misses Dunn. Among the other guests who were present were : Mrs. James Robertson, Mrs. Allison Wishart, Mrs. and Miss Warner, Mrs. C. A. Mcdonald, Miss Perkins, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. Herbert Street, Mrs. Chipman Smith. Mrs. Charles Mc-Laughlan, Mrs. and Miss Leavitt, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. G. Pugsley, Mrs. A. Morrissey, Mrs. J. Magee, Mrs. W. H. Scovill, Mrs. Vroom, Mrs. E. young bankers of St. John and some members of the Saturday Night Hockey Club. The gentlemen who took part were: Mr. Boies DeVeber, of the Halifax Banking Co.; Messrs. A. C. Thomson and J. McDonald, Bank of Montreal; Messrs. Wilson and Armstrong, Bank of Nova Scotia: Messrs. Short and Mackay, Bank of British North America. Against-Messrs. A. W. Adams, R. R. Ritchie, V. R. Vickers, H. Godard, George Jones, H. Drury and Dr. Esson. The rink had been engaged for the match, and a limited number of tickets issued to the friends of the players, who manifested great interest in the game. The bank clerks were badly beaten by the club, among which are some very efficient players, losing the game by a score of 12 to 2. Every allowance, however, should be made for the bankers, who were not in practice as were their opponents. Everyone who was present hope that other matches will come off in the future. Mr. George Dean returned from Quebec the first of the week, where he spent a few days. On Wednesday evening the members of the Whist Club, who, with their gentlemen friends, have met every fortnight at each others' houses, varied their recreation by having a very pleasant drive to Rothesay. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. C. H. Fairweather. On arriving at their destination they alighted at the residence of Mr. S. S. Hall and there finished the evening by dancing. A very elegant little supper was provided by Mrs. Hall. The party did not reach home until 2.30 o'clock. Mrs. S. T. King left for Boston on Wednesday to spend some little time.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Maunsell spent this week in the city. Col. Maunsell was registered at the Royal; Mrs. Mauusell was the guest of Mrs. Mills, Coburg street

Mr. F. M. Maunsell, of the Bank of Montreal, has been confined to the house through illness for the past week.

A great number of St. John's handsome residences have been sold of late, and in the spring it will be like the children's game of "post town." The residence of the late Mr. S. P. Osgood, Germain street, has been purchased by Mr. Emerson, of the firm of Emerson & Fisher. The house occupied by him on Princess street has been purchased by Mr. W. M. Jarvis.

The house on Chipman's Hill, owned by Mr. G. R. Pugsley, has been purchased by Mr. C. W. Weldon

Mr. G. Sydney Smith offers his residence on Peters street for sale, and has purchased the one on Dorchester street, at present occupied by Mr. Wm. Davidson, and built by Mr. John Wright, formerly of this city.

The residence of the late Mr, S. T. King, Germain street, was offered for sale on Saturday last, but was withdrawn, in consequence of the price offered being much less than its value.

Mrs. Charles Merritt received the sad intelligence on Saturday last of the death of her sister, Mrs. Nehemiah Merritt, which occurred at Toronto. She succumbed to an attack of Pneumonia. Mrs. Merritt has many friends in St. John, and for some years has spent part of the summer in the city.

Mr. Alex. Macaulay left for England last week to make his spring purchases.

Mrs. Allison Wishart entertained her lady friends at an "at home," on Tuesday afternoon, at her residence, Germain street. A large number of guests were present.

Mrs. Wishart gave a very pleasant little dance on Thursday evening, which was much enjoyed by the young people who were fortunate enough to receive invitations

Mr. Alfred Mills returned this week from a trip to New York. Miss Bessie Tilley, of London, Ont., and Miss

Todd, St. Stephen, are the guests of Lady Tilley, Carleton House. Mr. Stuart Fairweather returned home from Halifax this week, having completed his studies at lat better. Dalhousie college. Mr. J. Miller, who has had such a serious illness. was able to be out again this week. celestial city. Mr. Arthur Thorne, who has been confined to the house through illness for the last few months, is also convalescent.

enjoyed the drive very much, and showed their ap preciation of the kindness shown by singing "Jack is every inch a sailor," etc. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. J. Ritchie and Miss McCoskery. The Holly-Armstrong complimentary ball took place last night at the Mechanics Institute, and was a grand success. There was a large attendance at Templars Hall last Friday. The reunion takes place again next Friday.

The Hamilton-Tapley whist party met this week at the Misses Tapley, Holly street, where all were treated to an extra good time. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. J. Brannan, and the booby prizes by Mrs. Geo. Tapley and Mr. Fred Tapley.

Mrs. Wm. Keltie held her whist party on Tues. day evening. PEANUTS.

Mrs. E. J. Armstrong gave a very pleasant whist party on Friday evening last at her residence, Rockland road. There was a large number of guests present, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.] FEB. 18.-Now that Lent is here large parties are out of the question; but there have been numerous small ones during the last week and many more to follow. Snowshoe parties, lunches, and whist, seem to be the correct thing during the penitential weeks. The Fossil snowshoe party last Thursday evening was a very enjoyable affair. They tramped about two hours, when they returned to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen, where a delicious supper was awaiting them, to which they were able to do ample justice; games of various kinds were then indulged in until about midnight, when this pleasant party, like all nice things, came to an end. Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt entertained a few of her friends to a tea party last Thursday evening; this was also very enjoyable. Miss Bessie Hunt also entertained a few of her young friends last Thursday evening. Mrs. Geo. Hunt had a small party last Monday evening at her pleasant home on Regent street, when a very pleasant evening was spent.

The Fossil's are become very lively since Lent came in. They had another snowshoe party last evening. After two or three hours tramp they returned to the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, where they had supper and a dance until about 1 a m.

Capt. and Mrs. Akerley had a very pleasant party last evening.

Mrs. Byron Winslow gave another children's party last evening for her young son and daughter, Carrie and Fraser. There were about 50 present and all enjoyed it thoroughly. The hours were from 7 till I1, and about 10 o'clock a lovely supper was served them.

Mrs. Allen F. Randolph will entertain a number of her lady friends to lunch on Thursday at 1.30. Mrs. Thomas will give a tea party on Thursday evening.

Miss Mira F. Randolph entertained a few of her friends at Frogmore, on Monday evening last. Mrs. E. W. Miller will have a small party on Friday evening.

Miss Maggie Allen and Miss Johnston returned home from Toronto on Thursday last. The hosts of friends of these young ladies are delighted to welcome them home again.

Mrs. Fred Richards left for Boston this morning for her health. She has been in very poor health for some months.

Miss Allen, at St. Mary's, fell at her own door and dislocated her hip and knee, from which she is suffering very much. Mrs. W. B. Phair has been very ill, but is now Buda.
