FEB. 18.—Mr. Richard O'Leary was banquipped by his friends at the Revere hotel last Friday evening on the event of his leaving the town to go into commercial business in some eastern part of the province. Among the gentlemen present were: Rev. J. L. McDonald, Mayor Doherty, and Messrs. Jas. E. Price, Wm. Rennie, J. A. Johnson, L. S. Brown, S. H. Lingley, J. Howe Taylor, and mine host Desmond. The Girls are Very Bitter Partizans.

The girls in the Victoria school are evidently very bitter partizans. They even go so far as to write poetry on the subject. Here is a sample:

Conservatives ride white horses,
Liberals ride mules;
Conservatives are gentlemen,
Liberals are fools.

PROGRESS was unable to secure the Liberal side of the question from the same institution, but hopes that this is not a sample of the campaign literature in store for the people, when the country is "prepared for woman suffrage."

"Beauty And the Beast."

Once, when in New York, Adelaide Neilson, who had just finished an engagement there and was about to make a tour to Florida, asked me for a little souvenir before setting out. She said she would leave the choice to me; any trifle would be valued as a parting gift from such an old friend as I was. Whereupon I asked her, on the spur of the moment, whether she would like a grizzly bear as an appropriate playmate and a pleasant ornament to a lady's chamber. She replied in the same spirit, "Yes, send him up," and there the banter ended.

However happening half-an-hour afterwards to meet Mr. Moss, the treasurer of Mr. Wallack's theatre, he mentioned that he was very much annoyed by a confounded bear that somebody had sent him from California, and which he did not know what on earth to do with.

"Where is he?" said I.

"At the back of the stage," said he, "with half-a-dozen men sitting on his cage to keep him quiet; one of whom has already lost all his trousers and a good deal of his flesh through the bars."

"Good," said I. "I will relieve you of him. I know just where to place him."

No sooner said than done, and in half an hour "Grizzly" was landed at the Fifth Avenue Hotel by four porters, with a stout chain about as big as the cable of a man-of-war, and a muzzle like a fire-grate, in the middle of Miss Neilson's drawing-room and a numerous company of guests, who had called to bid the fair "Juliet" adieu.

Miss Neilson took the jest in good part, kept her temper, and tried to keep the bear, but that was an effort beyond her, and Bruin was finally presented to the Zoological Gardens in Central Park, thus ending the modern adaptation, "with a difference," of the old story of "Beauty and the Beast."—E. Voters Not to be Trifled With.

The free and independent voter is a person to be respected and not interfered with these days. A hustler who has charge of one of the conservative halls in the North end is decidedly of this opinion. The frequenters of the committee room enjoy life while there, and when the owner of the hall dropped in one night this week, the air was blue with tobacco smoke, and the floor wet with the juice of the article that the Telegraph proposes to raise a revenue on. The landlord looked about him somewhat disgusted, then called the hustler aside and asked him to try and induce the voters to abstain from tobacco while in the hall. His request was not acceded to. The hustler took a political view of the case and decided that it would be in the interest of the party to let the voters do as they pleased, rather than hurt their feelings and drive them into the opposition camp. So the air got bluer than before.

Purify The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla to remove all dis-blood. This fairly expel every scrofula or removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

If you need a good blood purifier or building up medicine, be sure to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Further information and statements of cures sent free to all who address us as below.

MORLEY McLAUGHLIN'S
GRAND FLORAL CONCERT.

A Brilliant Sunday School Entertainment. Original, Bright, and Pleasing. Can be given by Children of any ages with equal success.

An entire departure from the old, tedious programme of Sunday School Entertainments.

The book is beautifully printed, full size sheet, 24 pages, and contains the music, words, design of platform and directions in full for the giving of the concert. The music is particularly bright and suitable for children's voices, and includes solos, trios, quartettes and choruses.

The entertainment was given in St. John with marked success, as will be seen by the following newspaper comments:

"The Grand Floral Concert given in the Centenary school-room, last evening, was a complete success. By the time for opening not a seat was vacant and standing room was hardly available. The various and beautifully arranged numbers, were received with marked appreciation."—[Telegraph].

"It was well, in one respect, for those who attended the Floral Concert in Centenary last evening, that the weather was unpropitious: otherwise the crush would have been unprecedented. Of the concert itself nothing too high can be said in commendation."—[Globe].

The Concert is descriptive of the coming Spring. The children, dressed in the colors of the flower^s they represent, make their appearance on the platform following the coming of the flowers in the Summer. The Crocuses, Wildflowers, Dandelions, Violets, Daisies, Rosebuds, Garden Flowers and other pretty flowers are represented, not forgetting the Bachelor's Button. Children from three years of age and up can take part.

The Concert is about to be given in Boston and other American cities.

The book is just the thing for those in search of something new for entertainments.
