school furnished a guard of honor and band. The weather is cool and delightfully fine.

The great attraction for today outside of the exhibition itself was the fine parade of the Knights of Pythias.

The tableaux and musical entertainment given by the parish mission band last evening was a grand success.

Every seat in the opera house was filled and a large number obliged to stand. The tableaux was under the management of Mrs. E. M. F. Randolph and the musical part of the programme under the management of Miss Rainsford and Miss Bailey.

About 50 took part in the entertainment—little girls and young misses, with a very few boys. This autumn band is composed entirely of little girls, none older than 15 years, and many of them much younger.

Miss Kathleen Gordon is the president and Miss Maggie Babbitt, secretary. This is the first public entertainment they have given, and every one present was so pleased with it that they are sure of a warm reception for any future entertainment they may give.

Although the admission was only ten cents they had $300.00 which they presented to the coadjutor Bishop to purchase a font for the Doaktown church.

These same little girls were very handsomely entertained Saturday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Kingdon, at their pleasant home, they were invited from 4 till 8, and had different kinds of games for amusement, and at 9 o'clock they sat down to a sumptuous supper, the table extending the whole length of the large library, and beautifully decorated with flowers and fruit.

The pleasant party broke up each of the little girls was presented with a very pretty little booklet by Dr. Kingdon, and a card by Mrs. Kingdon. The secretary, came forward and presented her with a most exquisite bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern, asking her to receive it as a token of their appreciation for her kindness in assisting them with their entertainment.

This fragrant and beautiful gift was very highly prized by Mrs. Randolph, expressing, as it did, so plainly the kind and loving hearts of these young girls, whom she willingly helped.

Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley, and Miss Howland, of Toronto, who is the guest of Lady Tilley, are at the Barker house.

Miss Powys, of Springhill, is spending a few days with Lady Allen, on King street.

Our city is at present in holiday attire, for the exhibition opened yesterday, and Charlottetown is filled with visitors. Our hotel accommodation is limited, and crowds of weary travellers may be seen going from door to door in search of a night's repose.

The weather is everything that can be desired, and all goes "merrily as a marriage bell," but I will tell you more after I visit the scene and see the fun.

Dear St. Peter's Church is soon to be the scene of a gay and happy event, when a well-known and rising barrister will lead one of our popular city belles to the altar.

The many friends of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor will regret to hear of his illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Koss, of Moncton, are visiting the exhibition.

Mr. Charles Fawcett, of Sackville, is in the city.

Miss Rhodes, of St. John, is a guest at Government House.

Mr. J. Quigley, of Amherst, was a passenger in the Mayflower yesterday from Pictou.

Mrs. David Dickson, of Moncton, is visiting friends in the city. She is accompanied by Mrs. W. Newman.

Mr. George McSweeney, of Moncton, is registered at Hotel Davies.

Chief Justice Sullivan left for Summerside on Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Bagnall, daughter of the Hon. Peter McNutt, of Miramichi, were surprised to hear of her death on Saturday, and sympathize with Dr. Bagnall and her parents in their great affliction.

Mrs. Carvell is visiting friends in New York.

Mrs. Hixes has returned from Virginia, and we are all glad to have her with us again.

Mr. J. S. Boyd, of the Moncton Times, arrived today and will take in the exhibition tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Matherson, of Campbellton, are visiting the city.

Major Wright, of Quebec, is among the arrivals at the Davies.

Mr. W. A. Brennan, of the Summerside Journal, is in town.

Mr. Bent, of Pictou, the managing owner of the Mayflower, is also in the city.

Oct. 7.—For the last few weeks I have searched among the society items in PROGRESS for some trace of "Jack," but as week after week has passed without one line from his clever pen, I may be forgiven if I make tender enquiries after his welfare.

It is unfair to our city to allow the many social events to pass without being chronicled in the columns of PROGRESS, and as "Jack" has always borne our banner faithfully, I hope he may long continue his good work. True, he made a little slip about the "shop" on board The Canada, but I take it "there was method in his

Oct. 7.—It has been terribly dull here for the last week or two, not a party of any description, and even tennis is being given up lately. The last tea, given two weeks ago by the gentlemen of the club, was a great success, although there were not a great many people present, still those who were, enjoyed it immensely.

Miss Campbell, of Tatamagouche, spent a day or two in Pictou last week, the guest of Mrs. Howard Primrose.

Mr. W. Cook, of Moncton, spent last Sunday in Pictou.

Miss Annie MacDonald, of Pictou, spent two or three days in Halifax last week.

Rev. Mr. Falconer, of Pictou, was in Halifax last week, attending synod.

Mr. J. Ferguson, of Pictou, spent last week in Charlottetown.

Dr. Helmer and Miss Helmer, of New York, who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Snow of Pictou, left for home last Monday.

Miss Minna Macdonald, of Pictou, spent two or three days in Charlottetown last week.

The farewell social given to Mr. Howard Primrose, by the Y. M. C. A. in their hall last Monday evening, was a grand success. The music which consisted of several pieces from the choir and two or three solos was very good indeed, but the gem of the evening was the solo by Miss Annie MacDonald which was beautifully sung.

A GOOD FEE.

A Minister who received Raspberry Jam for his services.

Ministers in New England villages are not usually the recipients of liberal salaries, and the number of marriages in a year is seldom large enough to make the fees much of an addition to the slender sum.

The fees themselves are apt to be slight and sometimes are omitted altogether, although the clergyman is usually presented with some little "remembrance" of the happy occasion.

One clergyman has a good many amusing stories to tell of his "wedding experiences," but he once received a wedding fee which has never been duplicated, and which he says lasted ten times as long as any other which was ever given him.

He performed the ceremony which united the daughter of the Widow Robbins, the thriftiest housewife of his parish, to a poor but estimable young man, whom the widow had selected for her son-in-law, and with whom her daughter had dutifully fallen in love.

The wedding was a merry one, and as the "officiating clergyman" was putting on his coat in the hall, ready to start for home, the Widow Robbins bustled out to him and said, "I sent Harry over with your fee about half an hour ago, Mr. Lathrop. I told him people wouldn't miss the groom for a few minutes; and sure enough they didn't. He said he gave it to your wife, and I hope you'll like it; you always have."

Influence.

A man may strive for influence and miss it. But let him grow within himself—in self-control, in conscientiousness, in purity and submission—and then he will not miss it. Every step of inward progress makes us worth more to the world and to every cause with which we may be identified.

The road to influence is simply the highway of duty and loyalty. Let a man press nearer to Christ and open his nature more widely to admit the energy of Christ, and whether he knows it or not—it is better, perhaps, if he does not know it—he will certainly be growing in power for God with men and for men with God.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong."

That Tired Feeling creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

Fagged Out "Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BRIGGLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out "Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. FRIBBE MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Insist upon having
