St. John—South End.

On Friday last a most enjoyable whist party was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Lee, at their residence, Coburg street. The guests numbered sufficient for eight tables. Very interesting rubbers were played, at the close of which prizes, consisting of silver souvenir spoons, china, etc., were presented to the winners. Afterwards the party was given a most elegant supper, the floral decorations and rich table appointments being much admired. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hazen, Miss Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. Moren, Miss Helen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coster, Mr. W. H. Thorne, Mr. Arthur Hansard (England), Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Simonds, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. B. Boyd, Miss Devere, Judge and Mrs. Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Macdonald, Dr. and Mrs. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. James Mowatt.

Miss Ethel Hazen is the guest of Mrs. Hurd Peters, Charles street.
Mr. H. A. K. Drury left this week for Kingston, Ontario, to visit his sister, Mrs. Porteus. On dit, that he will eventually make Kingston his home, taking a position on the C. P. R.
Miss Pauline Beard is home again from New York, where she has spent the last two years. Since her return she has been confined to her residence, Chapel street, through illness.
The Mission house, in connection with the Mission chapel, and occupied by Sisters Paula and Eunice, was blessed and dedicated by special services on Wednesday morning, consisting of an oratory, celebration at eight o'clock, and at eleven (in the presence of the sisters and a few friends) the blessing by Rev. Mr. George. The oratory, oratory, refectory, dispensary, and all the dormitories were in turn visited, the procession being headed by a cross bearer and two the choir boys. After the religious services were ended a light luncheon was served in the refectory. The interior arrangements of the Mission house are most complete, everything necessary provided. The oratory is well finished and includes an altar properly vested.
Mrs. George K. McLeod returned home after several weeks visit to Kingston, Ont.
The young people will be glad to hear that it has been decided by Col. Armstrong and officers of the artillery to give a ball either the end of this month or the beginning of next.

Mrs. James H. Ruel leaves for Nassau on Monday morning; her son, Mr. F. H. J. Ruel, accompanied her as far as New York.

By the death of Mr. Thomas Morley which occurred on Tuesday last at his residence, Coburg street, St. John, has lost the most able and finished musician it has ever known. Educated at Oxford, Eng., he afterwards accepted the position of private organist to one of England's noblemen, and since his arrival in this city in 1887, he did duty in the Mission chapel. Though most advantageous appointments have been offered him in the States, he remained faithful to his kind friend, Rev. J. M. Davenport, until health some months ago compelled him to give up his position as organist. Mr. Morley was twice married, and his second wife survives him. By his first wife he leaves a grown up family, and by his second, two small children. His remains were interred on Thursday, when a very solemn service was held at the Mission chapel.
Mrs. George Hazen, who has been in the city to visit her sister, Mrs. Milner, who is very seriously ill.

Miss Drury, who on the morning of the calico ball, lost a handsome purse, containing upwards of $7.00, has not recovered it yet.

Miss Shattford returned this week to her home at Halifax.

Miss Powys, of Fredericton, spent this week with Mrs. W. B. Robertson, Broad street.
