Before I went out to the riding grounds on Saturday I knew that "Gymkahana" meant athletic sports of every description all crowded into one afternoon-running, leaping, tilting, boxing, etc.,sports on horseback and on foot. But before sending my letter to PROGRESS I thought I would look it up in the "dic." However, neither Mr. Walker nor Mr. Webster has deigned to claim relationship with gymkahana though why these gentlemen should'nt admit this very big word into their volumes as well as "gymnastic" is to me a mystery. My big brother arrived very opportunely so I confided in superior knowledge. He says, rather contemptuously, how should a girl know it was a Hindoostani word signifying games. How, indeed! yet, strange to relate, though the girls don't know much, the dear boys can't get along without them. Even sisters are occasionally indispensible when the shirt button flies off and lodges at the other end of the room. But recons a nos montens as they say over room. But reons a nos moutons as they say over in France, I really must apologize for digressing at

I sat down intending to tell you how successfully the games went off on Saturday last and here I find myself flying off in a tangent as usual. We rather feared owing to the weather in the morning that there would be no sports, but by the afternoon the rain had ceased, the fog cleared away and in its place the sun shone brightly in a cloudless sky, the only drawback to the afternoon's enjoyment being the heat, which was in tense. On the grand stand, however, it was as cool as it was possible to have it on such an The awning kept off the fiercest rays of the sun, while fans and sunshades carried by the fair sex did the rest. The sports were excessively enjoyed by the large assemblage of spectators. Society was there en masse. The ladies' dresses were much admired; light, cool looking fabrics were the order of the day. White seemed to be the prevailing color. Miss Daisy Watson looked very sweet in a white costume, with a white sailor hat sweet in a white costume, with a white sailor hat. Miss Morsely looked remarkably well in a very stylish gown, pale mauve and bonnet of the same

I find society has been enjoying itself quite as well this week as it did last. People are beginning to return from seaside and inland resorts, so I suppose it will go on as in former years, getting gayer each week, ending in what we may call a grand rally just before the fleet departs, after which there will be a sudden and universal collapse until after

Mrs. Justice Graham gave a large children's dance on Thursday last. The young people had a delightful evening tripping through the mazes of the waltz, and voted it with one accord the most successful dance of the season.

On Friday of last week Mrs. Chas. Wilde gave a very pleasant dance. Among those present were Miss West, Miss Slayter, Miss Robinson, Major and Mrs. Waldron, Capt. and Mrs. Mullins, Miss Morsely, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Morrow, Miss Goldie, Miss Stairs, Miss Abbott, Miss Farrell, Dr. and Mrs. Grier, Mrs. Cotton, Miss Thompson, Miss Almon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stairs, Mrs. Stairs Duffas; also officers of the fleet and garrison.

Lady Thompson and Mrs. Plunkett gave, last week at Bedford, a very successful children's picnic. The young folks went in boats to the other side of the basin, where in one of those charming little coves the party went ashore. A sumptuous luncheon was spread on the sylvan green, after which various games became the order of the day. Just as the shades of evening were beginning to tall all returned to the hotel, where a dance was gotten up. Need I say the youngsters enjoyed every minute of that happy afternoon and evening.

Among the guests were: Miss Violet Morsely, Mr.

B. Fuller, Miss Trixie Fuller, the Misses Armstrong, Miss Daisie Farrell, Mr. Louis Farrell, Mr.

Edward Farrell, Miss Kathleen Dwyer, Miss Mary
Dwyer, Master John Dwyer, Miss Eleanor Ternan,
Miss A. Thempson Miss Helene Thompson Miss Miss A. Thompson, Miss Helena Thompson, Miss

Frances Plunkett, Master Harry Plunkett, Miss Maud Vizard, Mr. John Thompson. Mrs. Stubbing gave a very enjoyable dance at the Dockyard on Tuesday evening last. The night was quite cool and very pleasant for dancing; the hostess was therefore very happy in her choice.

Among those present were: Miss Watson, Miss Robinson, Miss Thompson, Miss Stokes, Miss Kanny Miss Farrell Miss Goldie Kenny, Miss Farrell, Miss Goldie.

There was a large dance at Mrs. Justice Townsend's on Thursday. Judge Townsend's resi-dence is admirably adapted for a dance, the rooms are many and spacious. On Thursday evening they were well filled by a large number of guests. A splendid orchestrà was present, the floor was in excellent condition for dancing and the atmosphere excellent condition for dancing and the atmosphere comparatively speaking, cool. Among the numer' ous guests were Dr. and Mrs. Tobin, Mrs. Mare' Justice and Mrs. Graham, Hon. H. H. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. L. J. Fuller, Maj. and Mrs. Vallamy, Col. Goldie, Mrs. and Miss' Goldie, Miss Noyes, Mrs. Edward and Miss Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. Stairs, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dwyer, Capt. and Mrs. Mullins, Miss Thompson, Miss Stairs, Mr. Hart, Mr. Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Cotton, officers of the fleet and garrison. of the fleet and garrison.

There are on the tapis several prospective dances for next week. I regret that my letter must go before the ball comes off at the Bedford hotel (Morrisone) son's). It is to be by subscription and invitation, and its advent is greatly anticipated both by the large number stopping at the several hotels at this popular seaside resort and a great many in the city who have received invitations. There is a large ball room in the hotel, consequently it is the right place for an affair of this kind to pass off successfully. I will tell all about it when I write again. Another dance, which is as yet among the tobe's, is that to be given by the XIX. club. About a year ago 19 young gentlemen organized themselves into club and gave an initial dance at Maplewood. That dance resulted in making those enterprising young spirits so popular that I suppose they wish to perpetuate their popularity by giving another this season. Invitations are out for Tuesday next. I can wish the XIX. club no greater success than that their dance may come off as successfully as did that their dance may come off as successfully as did that of last year. Some of the members are, viz.: Messrs. Oliver, Mott, Harrington, Seaton, Anderson, Almon, Staynser, Bauld, Nagle, Harvey, Lyde, Chipman, Wylde and Henderson.

Mrs. Frank Rhind gave a small dance on Tuesday evening of last week. It was given for Miss Brock, of St. John, who is visiting Mrs. Rhind.

Mrs. Edward Adams gave a large five-o'clock tea on Wednesday last, at her residence, Inglis street. Her friends all voted it a thorough success. The Ladies' Rifle Association is now in full swing. The fair marksmen are very enthusiastic, and spend The fair marksmen are very enthusiastic, and spend hours practicing, each member bent on out-rivaling the other and hitting the bull's eye. Frequently, instead of at the association's grounds, the practices take place at the Wellington or Artillery bar-racks, at which the sterner sex have a hand. Fiveo'clock tea follows, after which the ladies shoulder arms and march off. Rather startling to the uninitiated to encounter, on the street, these embryo daughters of Mars—Mais que voulez vous? Society, like everything else in this world of ours, longs for change and new distraction. Besides, in England rifle shooting has become a very popular pastime among the upper crust.

I was told yesterday of several engagements. Two are brand new; so I promised not to divulge this week. However, I made no promise for next week, and perhaps I may tell Progress. An engagement I know is always so interesting. I am delighted for the dear girls, but we shall miss them awfully, as they are all very popular young belles. Truly matrimony is on the ascendant in our town. But, entre nous, don't you think the men have excellent taste in selecting Halifax girls for their wives. All over the world they are known for their beauty,

Judge Morse, of Amherst, is in the city.

Paul's in this city in 1888.

The officers of the Mackay Bennet gave a very successful picnic at Cow Bay on Thursday last.

About 40 carriages formed the party, which left Dartmouth for this charming and—this summer—most popular picnic resort. If Cow Bay could but be set of a good hetel or indeed any hetel at all boast of a good hotel, or, indeed, any hotel at all, no other seaside resort in Nova Scotia could hold a candle to it. Perhaps in the dim and distant future some capitalist may wake up to the fact that there is a fortune in it. Who knows? Rome wasn't built in a day !

YARMOUTH.

PROGRESS is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. I. Vickery and Harris & Horsfall.] SEPT. 2.-Thursday last an "at home" was given by Miss Kelley, at her art school, in which she was assisted by her pupils. The great number of guests present (between 300 and 400) showed, in a slight degree, their appreciation of the kindness shown by Miss Kelley in thus thrown open her studio to the public. Apart from the exhibition of art in its various branches, it certainly was a decided success as a social reception. The guests, after viewing the beauties of the reception room, repaired to the refreshment room, where coffee, tea, sandwiches, cake, and fruit were served. The studio and reception rooms were tastefully decorated, the floral decorations being particularly fine, and reflected great great and the decigner and the indeflected great credit on the designer, and the inde-fatigable and energetic students. The charcoal sketches were good, and some of the still life work was exceptionally so. The landscape work from nature gave evidence of careful training and pains-taking students. The hand painted china surpassed any that has ever been exhibited in the provinces, some of the Royal Worcester work being par-ticulary fine, also the work in raised gold. There was part of a sett of landscape plates (Scottish scenery) which were simply charming, and very much admired, as well as part of a salad sett, done in sea mosses, the work being very fine. A tea sett shown was very dainty: also fruit, salad, and other dishes, too numerous to mention. The quantity of china shown for decoration was exceedingly pretty, of the best manufacture, and unique in design, particularly the belleek ware. I know I am only echoing the sentiments of all present in congratulating Miss Kelley and students on their grand success, and wishing we may again enjoy another such treat. Mr. J. F. Merritt and Mr. McBeath, of St. John, were in town for a few days last week.

Miss Butcher, of St. John, is making her usua summer visit to her aunt, Mrs. L. G. Crosby.

Prof. Gladwin, wife and daughter, returned to their home in Worcester, Mass., last Wednesday. Prof. Gladwin made some charming sketches of our town and vicinity, and expressed his delight at the beautiful scenery about here.
Dr. DeWitt, wife and son, of Cincinnati, passed through here last week on their tour through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. Some wicked fairy must have had a spite against our Cape, or at having it turned into a pleasure ground, for let one even hint "picnic at the Cape," when, lo! the fine weather takes its departure and a regular gale will blow up on that day, or else a heavy rain or thick fog will overtake them before half the day is spent. This was the fate of Miss Eva Pelton's picnic, which had been postponed for a week, and, as last Friday seemed just the day for a picnic, fine and sunshiny, in fact the heat was so oppressive it was declared by one and all that a day the Cape was preferable to being baked in town.

About 25 ladies and gentlemen proceeded in both row and sail boats. Very few were prepared for the sudden change in the weather, and were thoroughly drenched before reaching home. I would suggest that some other place be chosen for a picnic, where, in case rain or fog should make their appearance, home could be reached before everyone is thoroughly soaked, and some as thoroughly Miss Josie Troop, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wilson gave a large party on Friday evening, in honor of their visitor, Miss Alison, of St. John. Mrs. Selden W. Cummings, of Truro, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Byron Robbins.

Miss Lulia Almon met with a warm reception us lady friends, on her arrival from Boston last Tuesday. She is the guest of Mrs. E. F. Parker.

Mrs. Arthur Clark, of Carleton, N. B., is visiting her uncle, Mr. Geo. S. Taylor.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather last Thursday and Friday evenings, the bazaar held in the rink in aid of the Milton brass band proved a financial success. The band's funds are increased to financial success. The band's funds are increased to the extent of about $150, all due to the strenuous efforts of a number of their young lady friends: Miss Lou Goudey, Miss Eva Robbins, Miss Nellie Gardner, Miss Minnie Burrill, Miss Sadie Wilson, Miss Dexter, Miss Nellie Crowell, Miss Taylor, the Misses Cann, Miss Mary Gardiner, Miss Dora Munro, and all under the able management of Miss Georgie Gardiner. The attractions were numerous Georgie Gardiner. The attractions were numerous, including Indian grotto, art gallery and express office. The band furnished a long and choice programme, and the rink was handsomely decorated with flags and brush.

Miss Amy Huntington, formerly of Yarmouth, is the guest of Mrs. Job Hatfield. Mrs. A. W. Masters went to Boston last Tuesday, where she intends making a short visit.

GRAND FALLS.

SEPT. 1 .- For the past week our young people have been enjoying every one of the beautiful sunny days by giving a number of picnics and a few very pleasant private teas. MR. HAROLD LESLIE, tenor with the Adelaide Randall Opera Company, says concerning Ale and Beef:

HALIFAX, N. S., 25th July, '91. MESSRS. CANADA P. B. & A. Co.

Gentlemen,-I have used Peptonized Ale and Beef and have received so much benefit from it that I feel it my duty to let others know of the wonderful virtues of this combination. After being worn out, both physically and mentally, on account of over-work in my profession, I used a few bottles of your Peptonized Ale and Beef, and the results were far beyond my highest expectations. It agreed with my stomach admirably, helped my digestion, and gave me renewed strength and vigor, making me feel like a new individual altogether.

Yours truly, HAROLD LESLIE, Adelaide Randall Opera Co.
