WINDSOR, N. S.

Nov. 25.-The first concert of the Windsor Choral society took place last evening in Reform club hall. The club was assisted by Herr and Frau Doering. They received enthusiastic encores. The only vocal solo was "The Soldier's Dream," by Mr. J. R. Forbes, of Halifax. Mr. F. Shand took the tenor obligato in "The Wind is Whispering," with humming chorus by the club. I am sorry to hear that there is a prospect of Mr. W. H. Watts leaving Windsor He will be much missed in musical as well as in other circles. The stage of the anything but beautifal hall was bright and pretty with flags and tall lamps. The row of little spruces along the front of the stage would have looked very well if they had been left undisfigured by the blotches of red paper dispersed through them.

After a long social slumber Windsor is waking up. On Thursday evening there is to be another dance at Mrs. Moody's and I hear rumors of others to take place before Christmas. Windsor is to lose another of her daughters before the season of peace and good will is over. Mrs. R. S. Leckie is the guest of Mrs. O'Brien.

Miss Clarke, of Wolfville, is visiting in Windsor.
The art fair held on Friday and Saturday of last week by Miss Carre and Miss Prat, was I hear very successful. All the articles were extremely artistic and pretty and the moderate prices put them within reach of all. It was the intention of these young ladies to hold another tair a few days before Christmas, but the number of orders to be filled before that time will probably make this impossible.

Last Saturday was the "day out" for the girls of the church school, and many of them were entertained by their friends in town. I amy sorry to hear of the Rev. Father Daly's # illness, but hear that he is improving today.

Nov. 25 .- Miss Johnson left Saturday morning for Sackville. Before returning home she intends spending a few weeks in Halifax. Mr. R. H. Doherty passed passed through here

I have heard of still another engagement this week. I think it was only last week I told you of one. It seems to be quite the fashion to get engaged, and I suppose one might as well be out of Swedes and Norwegians-and of the the world as out of the fashion. I do not like the idea of loosing all our pretty girls. We have had a goodly share of weddings this fall, and I think more than our share of engagements.

After seven years he returned to Irevoyage to the same country, as he died in the odor of sanctity in 578, aged 94 years. The curious thing is that when Cortez invaded Mexico he found the natives in possession of some of the doctrines of christianity, which they said had been taught them by a stranger clad in a long robe, who came to them from the Holy Island beyond the sea in a "boat with wings" many centuries before and promised to return to them. The advent of Cortez was in fact hailed as a fulfilment of this

Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering sarning

I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Suffering Hood's sarsapait had wife of Suffering dispersia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man.
