JULY 15 .- The heat has been so intense since S at urday there has been but little going on. No one seems to have energy to care for amusement. On Friday last the members of the Wildwood Tennis club enjoyed a pleasant drive to Hotel-de-Monts. There are about 50 ladies and gentlemen members of the club. They left here at five o'clock in the afternoon in three large buck boards. Arriving at Hotel-de-Monts, they dined and in the evening enjoyed dancing for two or three hours. It was a delightful outing, and after the heat of the town everyone enjoyed the coolness of the salt sea breeze. I hear the drive is to be repeated again some time later in the season.

July 15 .- Shediac has been thronged with visitors for the past two weeks; the hotel is being rapidly filled with guests, also the private boarding houses. Notwithstanding the remark made by "Cecil Gwynne" about the heat and dust, etc., of Shediac, I notice that the people crowd over here on Saturdays and Sundays, only too glad of the opportunity to enjoy the heat and dust of the seaside, to say nothing of a good plunge in the water. selves of the opportunity.

The fancy fair and strawberry festival on Tuesday night by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, was a great success. The hall was beautifully decor-ated with flowers, evergreens, etc.; the abundance of roses was quite noticeable. The chief feature was the musical performance. A duett. "Where are you going my pretty maid," by Miss Beatie Harper and Master Charles Edmunds brought forth a storm of applause. It was both sung and acted in a pleasing manner. [Progress is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

JULY 15 .-"O gift of God! O perfect day: Whereon shall no man work, but play;

Whereon it is enough for me, Not to be doing, but to be!" Who does not echo the words of the poet! But alas! in order to "be," it is necessary to have the wherewithal, and that is just as hard to get in the beautiful July days as in the coldest stormiest weather old Boreas ever sent out of his forbidding store house. I observe that notes fall due withtheir accustomed alacrity, and bills take no heed of flickering leaves and snowy clouds; therefore we "get a move on," though with reluctant feet, and "chase the glowing hours" with care upon our brow. It is the time when one hies him to a picnic, and resolves, while lying prone in nature's lap, to and resolves, while lying prone in nature's lap, to come every week regularly—and does not, more's the pity. The long talked of driving party from Sackville, took place on Thursday evening, which proved to be a very fine one. Miss Alice Estabrooks, with about twenty of her friends, drove over to the home of her sister, Mrs. Oulton, where a number of our young people were invited to meet them. Dancing was the order of the night, and, with a pause for supper, was kept up until nearly two o'clock. The Judge and Mrs. Oulton are very charming as host and hostess, and everyone encharming as host and hostess, and everyone enoved the evening, apparently.

Mrs. Landry gave a whist party on Monday evening, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Costigan of Ottawa. There were seven tables, and the first prizes were taken by Mrs. Robb and Mr. A. N. Chapman. Some one said the other day that it was an outrage to play drive whist, and it does seem a kind of sacrilege to lovers of the splendid game; but people seem to like the excitement, and have even been known to cheat for the pleasure of bearing away the future home in Montreal. The heartiest good wishes of his many friends go with him.

Miss Rainnie, of St. Johu, who is spending the summer in Sackville, and Miss Alice Estabrooks, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. A. E. Oulton.

Mrs. J. B. Forster is expecting the Misses Gillespie of Chatham to visit her next week. They have already made many friends in Dorchester during a previous visit, and will be gladly welcomed again.

Not so gladly welcomed will be a sale and high tea, given by the Trinity church guild on Tuesday next. Because such festivities mean the expenditure of various and numerous bill dollars, and to the youth who would fain eke out a modest liveli. hood in these dull times it is lacerating to the feelings to have to part with such, even in a good cause. However, such things must be, and we must needs pay up and look cheerful. The women's guild has certainly accomplished a great deal of good work in the past, and ought to be encouraged, and after all it is they who have to bear the brunt, not we idle outsiders.

Mrs. M. G. Teed gave a whist party last evening for a number of married people, reinforced by a few of the golden youth. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. J. B. Forster, while Dr. J. F. Teed bore away the other. The boobies I shall not name. In fact I forget them. The party broke up about half past twelve, after a very pleasant evening.

The gun club purpose building a club house on the field, which I think a very fine idea. We may hope to have spectators of the fairer sex perhaps, when there is a shady verandah for their accommodation. Many girls take a great deal of interest in shooting, and I have seen very good shots amongst them. And certainly it is much more entertaining for the shooters when there is some one to talk to between the turns. So success to the club

JULY 14.-It is needless to say that with picnics excursions, drives, dances, etc., the summer girl is in her element, and as she appears in a dainty costume made on purpose to suit each occasion, I scarcely wonder that our boys hardly know whether their hats are hind side before or inside out, so bewitching does she appear. Papa has paid for the costumes with which to ensnare the everwilling victims, who finds to his sorrow he has to pay for the creams, horses, boats and everything else that goes to form the pleasures of the day.

How thankful Sunday-school superintendents ought to be that "pastures new" have opened up this season in which to turn out to grass the hundreds of school children for whom a pienic, and an enjoyable one, too, is always expected. At this season "The Fort," Westcock and Cape Tormentine have so often been visited, that when the methodists announced their Sunday-school would go on an ex-cursion to Pugwash, N. S., July 8, a howl of delight ascended from the small boys, for there they could swim, drive on the beach, spear lobsters, or go for hours in a steam tug—all of which pleasures were participated in. Five hundred people availed themselves of this the first excursion to go to so picturesque a place.

A Handsome Top Phaeton.

WE have been showing heavier Carriages for some time. This is a top Phaeton, so popular with many people. The advantages of such a vehicle for driving need not be spoken of here, for they are apparent. This carriage weighs 190 pounds. Among the numerous testimonials received by us from time to time is one from Mr. Golding, of Fredericton, who says:

"I have been using John Edgecombe & Sons' Carriages and Sleighs for twenty years in the I livery business and have patronized during that time other manufacturers in the provinces, but can 3 say I never found any to give me as good satisfaction as those manufactured by John Edgecombe & Sons'.
