

WASH WITH IDEAL SOAP.

Wash everything. It cleans easily and thoroughly. Makes a complete job of anything it touches. It washes one thing as well as another, and does it WELL.

Takes Little Labor and Time.

ASK Your Grocer for it. If he offers you a substitute, tell him you did not come to him for advice but for Ideal Soap. You'll get it if you ask for it that way. There's no substitute; you'll say so after using it.

Mr. John Chipman, St. Stephen, was here Tuesday.
St. Andrew's church Sunday-school presented a very pretty scene Tuesday afternoon and evening, when the girls connected with the church held a rainbow sale. All the decorations were suggestive of the primal arch, and were well carried out in every detail. Over each of the booths was a large number of primitive colors, while a mammoth arch in the centre of the hall carried out the rainbow idea more fully. The effect was very pretty indeed. The decorations, which were both novel and attractive, donated by Messrs. Macaulay Bros. & Co., were admired by all. Following is a list of the ladies who had charge of the different tables, and made the sale the great success it was: Tea table, Mrs. W. C. Whitaker, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Mrs. Dunlop, Miss Nellie Cushing, Miss Maggie Murray, Miss Nellie Cushing, Miss Rennie, Misses Jennie Robertson, Emma Rankine, Annie Stewart, Jennie Oliv, Ivy Bartsch, Mabel Drake, Blanche Draper, Abbie Bell, Hazel Rankine, Louise Gray, Florrie Rankine.
