

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

TRURO, N. S.

[Progress is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulson's.]
Dec. 16.—Mrs. R. T. Craig has gone to Pictou where she will spend a short time among some friends.

The progressive whist party given by the Messrs Stanfield, for their brother, Mr. John Stanfield, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind yet "on" this season. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Miss Stevens, Miss Blenkinsopp, Miss Peck, Miss Partridge, Miss Smith, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Wilson, Miss Brown, Dr. Yorton, Dr. Kent, Mr. O. Christie, Mr. C. R. Coleman, Mr. Styles, Mr. A. McCulloch, Mr. H. C. Young, Mr. Johnson, Mr. McDonald, Mrs. Bishop, and Miss Smith, being desirous to decide for the ladies' first prize they played a game of euchre. As this was intense, Miss Smith was presented with the trophy, an elegant visiting card case. The gentlemen's first, a very handsome cigar case, filled with choice weeds. Ladies' booby won by Miss Partridge, gentlemen's like prize fell to Mr. Johnson. Supper was announced at twelve, and soon after was concluded what was unanimously voted a most charming party.

The concert in the Y. M. C. A. last Tuesday night attracted but a small audience, which was some what surprising. Mrs. Whidden-Wallace being such a universal favorite here, besides being accompanied by such an artist as Miss Homer, whose selections won hearty encore. Mrs. Whidden Wallace at the piano was beautiful in execution as ever, Miss Annie McDonald second pianist, made her first bow to a Truro audience, as did also Miss Beatrice Whidden, who so prettily and gracefully performed some selections on the violin.

Mrs. D. T. Hanson returned on Saturday last from Woodstock, her father's condition being somewhat improved.
Mrs. Thos. McLellan issued cards for a dance on Thursday, tomorrow evening. Among those invited are: Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Muir, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Iremonger, Miss Tremaine, Miss Hyde, Miss Flora Hyde, Miss Sutherland, Miss Mary Sutherland, Miss Jean Crowe, Dr. Yorton, Dr. Kent, Dr. S. Walker, Mr. A. C. Lister, Mr. Campbell, Mr. E. R. Stuart, Messrs. Bowers, Taber, Cooke, Mr. Will Cook.
An indefatigable social hero, Messrs. Cook and Bowers, inaugurated a very pleasant skating party for last evening to Fairhaven's lake, and afterwards an oyster supper at Bates'. The evening was all that could be desired, clear and frosty, and the early moon shining gloriously. The party tried in that retired and quiet spot, and some of the vicinity of the Prince street baptist church.
Miss Gliska will soon conclude her drawing classes.
Miss Mary Smith gave a very pleasant progressive whist party last Friday night.
Mr. Hugh McKenzie gave a dinner party one evening last week. Among the guests were: Prof. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Bishop, Miss Atty Smith, the Messrs. Frazer, Mr. A. C. Ford, Mr. J. D. Koss, etc. The party though a small one was very lively. Mr. Mackenzie being an exceptionally humorous and very apt host.

HILLSBORO.

Dec. 16.—The young people of the village have been thoroughly enjoying the skating during the past week. The ice on the lake has been in good condition and the moonlight evenings perfect.
The party given by Miss Jeannie Kenny last Wednesday evening was very much enjoyed by all present. The guests numbered about 20. Games of various kinds were the amusement, and cakes and ice cream were served during the evening.
Among those present were: Miss Lottie Steeves, Miss Lizzie Jump, Miss May Steeves, Miss Kate Gross, Miss Annie Beattie, Miss Lizzie Steeves, Miss Gertie Smith, Messrs. Archie Steeves, Jr., Frank Smith, Percy Steeves, A. R. F. Randolph, Harry Burges, George Marven, Ross Steeves, C. Mullin. This pleasant party came to a close about 12 o'clock.
A number of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steeves' friends gave them a pleasant surprise party at their home in Surrey last Thursday evening. This party numbered about twenty, and various games were indulged in, and nuts and confectionery enjoyed. This enjoyable little gathering broke up at midnight.
The guests were: Miss Maggie Steeves, Misses Maimie and Gertie Jones, Miss Maggie McKinnon, Miss Annie Todd, Misses V. and Annie Blake, Miss Lizzie McKay, Messrs W. E. Robinson, J. C. Steeves, W. Laurence, W. Kerstead, J. Price, A. H. F. Randolph.
The wedding I spoke of in my last letter will take place on Saturday, when Mr. O. E. Blakely will lead the hymeneal train. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Robert Blake.
Dr. Somers, of Moncton, dentist, spent Monday in Hillsboro, on professional business, returning to Moncton on Tuesday.
Dr. Lewis, M. P. P., returned home from Toronto Tuesday, where he has been making a short visit.
Mr. W. W. Wells, of Moncton, made a flying visit to Hillsboro on Saturday, returning same evening.
Mr. Herbert Steeves is here from Moncton, visiting his relatives.
Mr. Will King, telegraph operator on the I. C. R. at the North Shore, is here spending his Christmas holidays with his relatives.
Mr. J. S. Duffy spent Sunday at Pettedio, rumor says Mr. Duffy has an attraction up in that village. He returned on Monday.
Ernest Lyons and Capt. Arlington Dickson spent Friday in Hillsboro, returning to their homes at Hopewell Cape on Saturday.
Mr. H. B. Dixon, of Moncton, was in the village last week, and not Mr. Dixon, of St. John, as I put it last week.
Miss Florence F. Randolph is expected here tomorrow, from St. Martin's U. B. seminary, to spend the Christmas vacation with her mother, Mrs. E. M. F. Randolph.
The public schools close here Friday for the Christmas holidays, and that evening the school children will give a concert in the vestry of the baptist church. Choruses, songs and recitations are being prepared for the occasion.
Mr. George Wallace, of Dorchester, was in Hillsboro yesterday.
The remains of Mr. Palviser O'Brien, a former employee of the I. C. R., were interred in the burial cemetery on Gray's Island Sunday afternoon.
Mr. R. Slater is just now transferring his domicile from the Mansfield houses, so called, to the Walters, the former being under lease to R. L. Blake. The new lodge, with 45 charter members, is in session this evening, the dealer of Salem adding to the harmony thereof.
Mr. and Mrs. Butland, daughter of the late James Carnarvon, have just returned from Minneapolis, where they have resided for some years, to visit once more the scenes of their childhood, with hearts echoing "There is no place like home."

BRIDGETOWN.

Dec. 16.—Mrs. M. Johnston, who has been spending the summer and autumn months with her parents left last week for her home in the States.
Miss M. Cornack, daughter of Mr. John Mc Cormack, who has been attending the art school in Boston, has returned home.
Mr. Beattie the contractor, has gone to Stellarton to erect a new episcopal church.
Miss Bertha Tupper who accompanied her brother and his wife to Boston, was married on Friday evening last to Mr. Sleep, a former resident of Wolfville.
Mr. W. W. Chesley and his daughter, Miss Lizzie, who have been on a short trip to Boston, have returned home.
Master Arthur Williams, who has been attending the military school at Fredericton, is home for a few days.
Mr. H. Waddell, son of Professor Waddell, of Dartmouth, is spending a few days with friends in town. C. C.

MONCTON.

[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

Dec. 16.—It seems to be a common weakness of human nature to find fault with the existing state of things, especially the weather. But I doubt if any of us, even in our own estimation, could have improved upon the weather which has been served up to us this autumn; and it really seems to me that some notice should be taken of it, some slight acknowledgment made to show our appreciation of the gifts the gods have given. Who ever remembers such an autumn? Not even the oldest inhabitant, I trust, though I must say that my experience of the O. I. goes to prove that by reason of his great age he is about the most unreliable person one could possibly have around, since his memory is so defective that he does not know himself whether he is telling the truth or not. This is a disgraceful, I suppose, so I will proceed with the regular business of the day.
To begin with the children's bazaar, which was by many degrees the most important event of last week; it was, like Artenuk, and I think an unparalleled success! So great a success, that those young people have banked $150 as the result. And when one considers that the entire bazaar was arranged, managed, and carried out by a few ladies who undertook to manage things for the children, and that these same ladies were obliged to get along as best they could, entirely without even the superficial masculine assistance which is usually rendered on such occasions the result is even more gratifying. It must be a grim satisfaction to these dauntless dames however, to reflect that they have proved their superiority to the stronger sex not only in their intellectual, but in their muscular strength as they performed unaided all the rough work in connection with the bazaar, the lighting, the carrying, the carpentering, the trucking, while the truly pious amongst the sterner sex gave them their blessing, cheered them on to still further efforts, and went eagerly because they did not feel strong enough to assist. In fact, it may be said to be largely a case of "Do as I say, not as I do." Dear, dear me! when we all of us try to get to that gate of St. Peter keeps the key, the man who hasn't some woman whose skirts he can sweep, and so squeeze in somehow, is going to feel lonely.

The bazaar was held in the upper flat of Miss Wright's restaurant, which had been specially arranged for the occasion, Miss Wright having kindly assisted the ladies by placing her kitchen at their disposal, and being in charge of Mrs. A. C. Borden, Mrs. A. H. Beddome, Miss Chipman and Miss Stevens. While the refreshment table was looked after by Mrs. S. E. Wilbur, Mrs. James Sayre, and Mrs. F. W. Byers. Mrs. T. V. Powke, occupied the tireless, and very important position of doorkeeper, and tea was served by the most charming young ladies in town, so it is not to be wondered at, that the number who sat down to that dainty and well served meal, was large, and a number I believe. A novel feature was an orange table, presided over by four or five small maidens, who wore caps of orange silk, and sold you an orange or some yellow material, which contained a present when opened. The little maids were the Misses Mary Beddome, Frisby Hamilton, Dot and Sadie Borden, and I think, but I am not quite sure, Tottie Crossdale, and Mabel May. Altogether it was a grand success, and Mrs. Borden, Miss Chipman, and Miss Stevens, who have worked so hard and untiring zeal, are to be warmly congratulated.
Mr. and Mrs. John Galt, left on Wednesday evening for Antwerp, Ont., en route for the Holy Land. A number of friends assembled at the station to wish them a safe journey.
The West End Whist club, met on Friday evening at Mrs. Peter McSweeney's hospitable home, and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.
There was a parlor concert given on Friday evening at the residence of the Wesley Memorial church, at which an excellent programme was rendered. Mr. G. B. Sangster presided, and the concert was most successful.
Mr. J. McC. Snow entertained the members of the city council, and the firemen at an oyster supper in the W. C. T. U. hall, on Thursday evening. It is needless to say that everyone enjoyed themselves. Did a number of men ever meet together and fail to have a good time? Toasts and speeches made the hour fly, and the time for singing "He's a jolly good fellow" came all too soon.
Mr. H. H. Hicks, of the I. C. R. freight department, and his brother-in-law Mr. Arthur Tuttle, left town on Friday for Denver, Colorado. Mr. Tuttle was returning from a vacation of some weeks spent at his friends in Moncton, having made his home in Denver for some time past.
A large number of Moncton's four hundred as yet are still larger contingent of those whom Moncton's four hundred don't know, assembled at the railway station last Friday morning to see the engine and the engine's pass through, and in what a night-wind swirling; their train alone being worthy of a visit. Of course the gallant task looked rather toilsome, and not quite so trim as usual after their six days journey from Vancouver, but still they were a fine looking body of men and well deserved the hearty cheers they did not get. The engine, after passing through to late on Saturday night for many people except the most enthusiastic to see them.

I am very sorry to say that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taylor have lost their beautiful little daughter Mamie, who died on Friday last of diphtheria. The child was one of the prettiest and sweetest children imaginable, and the deepest sympathy is felt for her parents in their trouble.
Many of our Moncton friends of Mr. Owen Campbell, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, were glad to see him in town last week. Mr. Campbell was spending a few days with his parents at their home on Bonhomme street.
Mr. J. L. Harris left town on Monday for a trip to New York.

Some of the people who remember Mr. T. W. Whitehead, of Moncton, who was here for some months in connection with the cotton factory, and who is now in California, will be glad to hear that he has returned to Moncton, and is now in the employ of the I. C. R. at the North Shore. He was married on Monday to Miss Fishwick of Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead were in town on Monday afternoon en route for Moncton, I believe. They will make their home in Halifax.
Mr. J. A. McQueen, M. P. P., and Mrs. McQueen, will visit to Moncton on Monday.
Mr. A. B. Sweeney, now of Chatham, was in town on Saturday, and left by the evening train for Boston, on his return from spending three months in prosecuting his military studies.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]
Dec. 16.—"All things come to those who wait," even the beautiful snow has got here at last, and like all good things it will be more enjoyed and appreciated because of its rarity. I venture to say that not even the oldest inhabitant has seen such superb weather for this season of the year as Sackville has been enjoying the last few days in Westcoast. The social of St. Paul's congregation in the school house on Thursday evening, was a most enjoyable affair in every way, and largely attended by old and young. Rev. Mr. Campbell, rector of Dorchester, who is ever ready to use his varied gifts for the pleasure of others, gave one of his delightful readings. Our local embryo comedian, Mr. Henry Facet, treated the company to some of his amusing and unique recitations, and Mr. Thos. Mcneay sang several of his songs in his very best style. It is always a pleasure to listen to Mr. Mcneay, especially as he is so ready to give his mate towards social pleasures and in more ways than one. During the evening cake and coffee were served, prepared by the ladies in the tempting style for which they are celebrated.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Barton Allison have returned from a very delightful trip of a week to Halifax, Truro, and New Glasgow, N. S.
The recital by the young ladies, pupils of the con. school, came off at Beechgrove hall, Mr. Allison, on Friday last. It was largely attended, and greatly enjoyed by all who were present. The performance was particularly successful, and in many cases marked the part of the pupils, who have had unusual opportunities for a thorough musical education, in the profession and his assistants in that one makes it the more difficult to attain to ability, as well as socially, while the new conservatory is equal to any other to be found in large cities; both in appearance and in value. Beechgrove hall has not its equal as a concert hall.
Mr. Charles Fawcett has been away this week on a business trip to different points in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island.
The fancy sale by the young people's sewing circle came off on Tuesday afternoon and evening. Fortunately the weather was fine, and the result was a large attendance. It was held in the office of Mr. B. B. Ford, who granted the request of the young people for its use kindly and willingly. During the sale Allison's book, or rather the sidewalk in front, presented a lively appearance. A large quantity of useful and fancy articles attested the industry of the young members of the society. A most attractive refreshment table, loaded with appetizing viands, was very generously supplied by the mothers, aunts, cousins, and friends of the young ladies (or I should say, young men) and well patronized. The result is very satisfactory, and the proceeds are for church purposes. The young members of this society have every reason to be proud of their success, and their industry is most commendable.

I would that Sackvillians got up a club for old and young, and would be permanent, who include all who wish to join, who will make it a success. It should not be too exclusive. A hall in a central place could be hired, where its members could meet once a week for their social, concerts, games, snow shoe tramps, dances, etc., as well as literary entertainments. Amusements provided should suit all its members, and the expenses met by fees of membership, and entertainments given by the club.
In summer, excursions, picnics, etc., could take the place of the winter amusements, and a plenty of talent in Sackville to make such a club a success. The members should join with the expectation to use their talents to the benefit of the club.
I know of such a club that has now 500 members, and started two years ago with only two members, in a place not much larger than Sackville, and possessing nearly as much talent among its townspeople. Such a club would be of lasting good, and benefit to society in general, and far better than the ultimate results than the evanescent "bread and butter club of former winters." SNOWBOP.

From an Occasional Correspondent.

Acacia grove was illuminated last Wednesday evening. Its hospitable host having thrown open his doors to entertain a select number of his gentlemen friends, who I believe, were in the neighborhood, and stand leaves shortly for his home in England. As there were some noted whist players among the party, the favorite game was pursued with deep interest till twelve o'clock, when supper was announced and the guests repaired to the spacious dining room where a delicious collation was served in the style of which that house is so renowned, and I was not surprised to hear of one gentleman who enquired if the relations lived anywhere in the suburbs. An hour or two was spent in diminishing the good things, when the guests departed all agreeing that it was one of the pleasantest evenings they had spent for some time, and few could surpass Senator Botsford in entertaining. Prominent among the gentlemen were: Josiah Wood, M. P., H. A. Powell, M. P., Mr. Edward Cogswell, Mr. J. F. Allison, Mr. F. W. MacDonnell, Mr. W. M. Crane, Mr. Thomas Murray, Mr. L. W. Bennett.

SUSSEX.

[Progress is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Bool and S. H. White & Co.]

Dec. 16.—A very pleasant event last week was the dance on Thursday evening in the Oddfellows hall. A goodly number were present but strange to say there were more gentlemen than ladies which is rather an unusual occurrence here. Probably that accounts for the declaration of more than one fair maiden "I never had such a good time in my life." Quite a number of visitors came from other places to attend the dance, among them were the Messrs Manchester and Fear-on, Messrs Manchester, Pearson, Messrs. Jones, Messrs. Hestis and Magee from Pettedio. The next one of these social dances will be held on New Year's Eve.
On the same evening another successful and very delightful event was the social given by the members of the baptist church and held at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Triles on Church street. Mrs. Triles is a charming hostess and her kind hospitality added much to the enjoyment of the evening. The social room were crowded with guests who fully enjoyed the lengthy and excellent programme provided for their amusement.
Mr. W. Arnold spent a few days in St. John last week. He was the guest of Mr. and Miss Shives.
Mr. H. Montgomery Campbell has gone to Chatham to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Winslow.
Mrs. C. T. White of Apple River, is making a short visit to her friends in Sussex. She will also spend a few days in St. John before returning home.
Mrs. Laurence and Miss Gussie Price, of Pettedio, were in town last week to visit their sister, Mrs. J. Daly, who was quite ill. Mrs. Daly's mother, Mrs. Warren Price, is at present visiting here.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

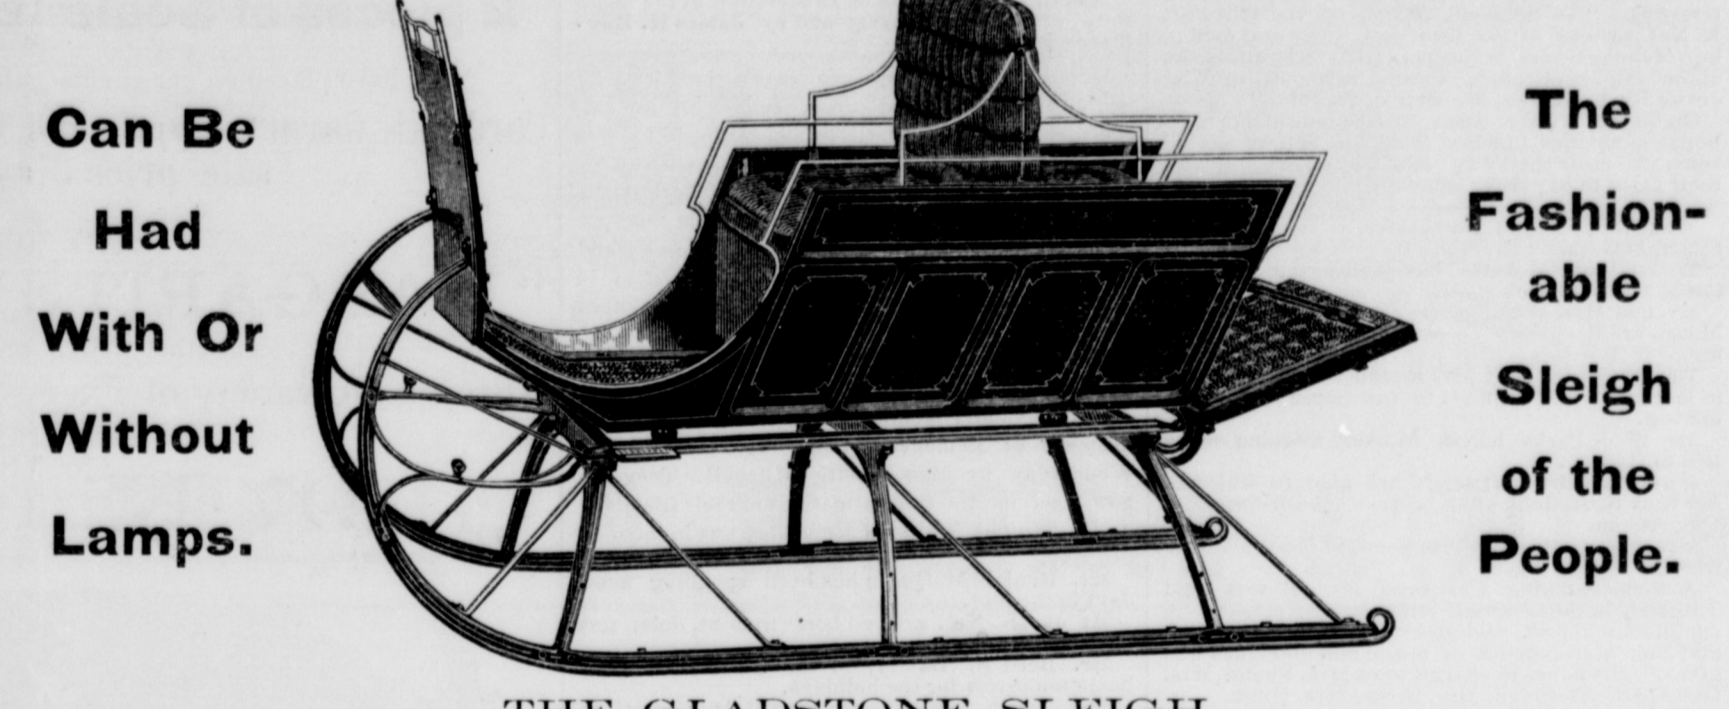

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trist and at the book stores of G. S. Wall and in Calais at O. F. Treat's.]
Dec. 16th.—The past week has been a somewhat quiet one, every one being busy with "Christmas" work, and too busy to do much entertaining.
Mrs. E. T. Lee entertained the "Round Table" club on Thursday evening last. More than the usual number of members were present. There being a few invited guests outside of the club; it made the contents for the prizes somewhat more zealous in the case, which resulted in the bestowal of a pretty toy Worcester cup and saucer upon Mrs. Perry Lord, and a very prettily done and effective razor case upon Mr. Charles Elliot Pike. The consolation prizes: an embroidered handkerchief, and a little china-ware filled with dainty confections, were presented to Mrs. Henry Fife and Mr. Percy Lord. After a very delicious spread, music being quite a novelty, the guests departed.
Mr. O. Bradford spent Sunday in town. Calais has a great and decided attraction for him at present.
Mr. Frank Russel, former teacher of the Grammar school, was the guest of Capt. Geo. W. Lord, Main street, for a few days last week.
Miss Howland, of Truro, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. D. Chipman, St. Stephen, left for St. John on Saturday last, where she will remain for quite a lengthy visit. The guest of her aunt, Lady St. John. It is hoped Miss Howland will again visit the St. Croix ere returning to her home, since she visits many warm friends during her stay here and was exceedingly popular.
Mr. Madigan, of Houlton, Me., visited Calais yesterday.
Mr. F. Wright, of Boston, also Mr. Steven Taylor and Mr. Whittier visited Calais the past week.
Rev. Fr. Hebert, who is on his way to St. George to spend the Christmas holidays with his friends.
Mrs. A. B. Sumner has returned to her home in Lunenburg.
There is to be a dance in the "G. A. R. hall" on Wednesday evening. There are also rumors of five large parties soon to occur.
Miss Carrie Lord entertained a few of her young friends on Thursday evening last.
Mrs. William Bennie has been seriously ill for some time past, but is slowly recovering.
Mrs. Geo. G. King has also been quite ill but is improving.
Most exquisite roses adorned the pulpit of the baptist church, Calais, on Sunday last, the donation of Mr. Julius Dickman.

HAMPTON.

[Progress is for sale at Hampton station by T. G. Barnes, and Geo. E. Frost, and at Hampton village by Messrs. A. & W. Hicks.]
Dec. 17.—The Methodist church near the station was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, the principals being Miss Maggie K. Barnes, youngest daughter of the late George Barnes, registrar of deeds, and Mr. J. Ernest Whittaker, of St. John. Notwithstanding the storm, the church was crowded in every part. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Paisley. The pulpit, platform and organ were elegantly arranged, and the bride looked charming in a beautiful dress of white silk, with veil of a orange-blossom. Miss Barnes entered the church bearing a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Lillie Whittaker, sister of the groom, and Miss George Wilton, little niece of the bride. The groom was attended by Mr. Stephen W. Palmer. The ushers were Mr. Frank N. Hall and Mr. Lemmie W. Peters, both young men performing their duties in a most efficient manner. Immediately after the ceremony the guests repaired to the reception hall of the bride, where the bride received many handsome and costly presents. The happy couple left by
