

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. [CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.] day evening, to attend a concert given by the pupils of Miss Williams' school. Miss McLeod, of Main street, entertained a num-ber of her friends at a party last Thur-day evening. Much regret is felt at the death of Miss Maude McLean, formerly of High street, who died very

Mrs. Gass and Mrs. R. W. Gass, with her three children, are expected to arrive here from Colorado in a 'ew days, they will go to Mrs. T. Wakeling's, Princess street

Prof. and Mrs. Trefry of St. Martins, accompanied by Miss Robms and Mrs. Smith, are spending a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little stranger. The first dance of the Gordon McMillan assembly is held on Thursday. I understand about 120 are expected to be present, and as the committee have been most defatigable in their efforts a most enjoyable evening may be expected. I hope to be able to send a list of guests and their dresses, (some of which are going to be "sweet") next week. The friends of Miss Mary Thorne are glad to see

The friends of Miss Mary Thorne are giad to see her able to go out again. As many people in this city have pleasant recol-lections of Miss Jessie Graves, who formerly resided here, the following announcement may be found in teresting. "At Belmont, Mass., on the 10th inst. E. N. Crawford, of the firm J. J. Crawford & Son, iron Manufacturers, of Nashua, N.H., and proprietors of the Highland Stock Farm, Belmont, to Miss Lossie H. A. Graves; formerly of St. John." Jessie H. A. Graves; formerly of St. John."

On dit that we are going to lose four of our most popular families "before the buds appear again" some will cross the briny ocean and others will take ON DIT. their flight to our sister country.

Miss Wetmore, of Dorchester, is visiting Mrs. Spurr, of Germain street. Miss Emma McInnis has jomed the Germain street baptist church choir. Mr. and Mrs. Hornblower, of Arlington Heights, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hard-

The many friends of Mr. Ruddock will be sorry to learn he is still confined to the house with rheu.

Mr. W. J. Parks leaves Monday morning for a trip to Halifax. Miss Ethel Estey's friends are glad to welcome her back to St. John after a two months' visit to Mrs. Enoch Chestnut has gone to Boston for the winter. A thanks-offering Christmas festival was held Thursday in the Germain street baptist church. A sumptnous repast was provided for the children, and an entertainment of music and dialogues was given. The ladies in charge were Mrs. Simms, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Hunt. PURITAN.

Mr. Rupert and Master Fred Blair spent Sunday in the city. Mr. T. P. Regan is visiting friends in Boston. Master Harry Blackadar, of Halifax, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Geo. Knodell, Elliot Row.

I hear rumors of an engagement of the daughter of one of our leading physicians and an American

Miss F. Seely, who has been visiting Mrs. Fair-weather, Rockland Road, has returned to her home

Mr. Ritchie, of Halifax, paid a visit to the city this week.

Miss Daisy Outram is home for her Christmas vacation B. B.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. John L. Har-rington received at their new home, No. 316 Pearl street, about 200 guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Harrington were married Nov. 25, at the bride's home in Norton, N. B. Mr. Harrington is foreman in our water department, and has been connected with the city works for the past eighteen years. He was pleasantly remembered by his associates at City hall by the presentation of a hat tree, and a beautiful sideboard from the members of the water board and employes in the water office. Among suddenly of congestion of the lungs at her mother's residence on Union street. ARISTOTLE.

Miss Blanche Wisely, who has been attending the ladies' seminary at Sackville, is expected home this week to spend her Christmas holidays.

Mrs. John Brannen has her mother visiting her. Mrs. Livingstone, Adelaide Road, has gone to Boston and New York. In the latter place she will spend the Christmas vacation with her son Mr.

Colin H. Livingstone. Miss Jennie Carpenter entertained about 30 of her young friends one evening this week. Dancing was he chief amusement.

Miss Annie Purdy, who has been attending the baptist seminary at St. Martins, is expected home to spend the Christmas vacation. CONSTANCE.

FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS IS for sale in Fredericton at the book-tore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.

DEC. 16 .- Now that the snow has arrived it really begins to look like Christmas, and as all the city like it, too. And the entertainment to be given tomorrow night in the city hall, for the girls' mission band, will certainly add to the spirit of the times, as Santa Claus will be there and Mother Goose, and there will be a rooster brigade and dancing by 14 daintily dressed little ones, and numerous other features of a laughable character.

The university closes on Friday for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Alexander Haining, chief clerk in the establishment of Lemont & Sons, was married last Wednesday to Miss Janette Mitchell. They are now receiving the congratulations of their friends. Mr. Samuel Watts, of McAdam, was in town on Monday Mr. Daniel McQueen has been spending a few days in the city. Mr Jas. S. Neil arrived home from St. John this

Mr. Bernard Baxter, of the University, goes ome tomorrow for the holidays.

The French class have abandoned their meetings till after the new year. I have heard of two engagements this week, both in military circles; the young ladies are both Frederictonians, the gentlemen are officers, one in Halierictonians, the gentlemen are officers, one in Hali-fax, the other in Kingston, Ont. Miss Mabel Hunter left on Monday for Halifax, to visit her sister Mrs. Fraser. Mrs. Chas. Everitt went to St. John on Friday last to visit her sister Mrs. D. Hooper. Judge and Mrs. Steadman left for California on Monday to spend the winter there for the benefit of the indge's heal. h. which I am serve to say has been the judge's heal, h, which I am sorry to say has been wery poor for some time past. Mr. Henry Estey, of the People's bank, went to Boston on Friday for special medical treatment. It is rumored that the Hon. A. F. Randolph, Mrs. and the Misses Randolph leave the first of the New Year for an extended tour of two years through England and Germany.

Mrs. Geo. F. Gregory went to St. John today for a short visit. Rev. Canon Brigstocke, of St. John, visited the ity last week. Mr. L. W. Johnston came home on Saturday to remain till after the holidays. Hon. Mr. McManus paid a visit to the celestial city this week. Mr. John R. Dunn, of St. John, has been at Full many a gem of purest ray serene The dark, unfathom'd caves of ocean bear, Full many a flower is born to blush unseen, And waste its fragrance on the desert air.

BIRTHDAY RINGS, FRIENDSHIP RINGS,

many other gifts were a china teaset, several p tures, a centre lamp, beside a silver service of eight pieces from the Four and Twenty club. The groom presented the bride with a handsome watch and chain. The parlor was prettily decorated with pot-ted plants, and Mr. John O'Brien remembered the couple with a large basket of cut flowers. Messrs. Blake, Henderson, Locke and Tarbell, fellow mem-bers with the groom in the Economy club, assisted during the reception. Among the guests were his honor, the mayor, Councilman Cheney, Mr. Francis L. Pratt, Mr. Hiram Nevons, Mr. Walter Harding, Rev. Charles Olmstead, Rev. George A. Tewksbury and Deacon Edward Kendall. M. R. Jones turnish-ed the refreshments. The bride wore white silk trimmed with down.-Cambridge Tribune.

St. John-West End.

Miss Nellie White has recovered sufficiently from her late illness to be out this week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brittain on the advent of a little stranger.

Mrs. Nice, who has been spending some time in Philadelphia, has returned and is at present at South Bay.

Mrs. Dr. Walker is expected next week from Halifax. She will spend Christmag at her home at South Bay

The whist club which I spoke of last week has been organized. The first meeting was held at the residence of Mrs, J. V. Ellis Wednesday evening last, but in the future they will be held every Monday evening at the different members houses. This week Mrs. Allan entertained them. I believe they intend playing all winter and at the end of the season prizes will be awarded to the lady and gentleman making the most points. Among the members are Miss Edith Peters, Miss Nellie White, Miss Annie Ellis, Misses Clark, Miss Fanny Scoboria, Miss Ella McDuffee, Miss Flossie Hayes, Miss Anme Tilton, Misses Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Rudman Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, Messrs. C. B. Allan, J. Tilton, J. E. Cowan, Frank Ellis, Ronald Clark, F. Beatteay, Dr. Kenny, Dr. Travers. Miss Hattie and Mr. Walter Olive are expected

Miss Beatteay will be at home on Monday. Mrs. Arthur Clark is better.

Mr. A. L. Bonnell met with quite a serious accident on Saturday last, while driving with his little daughter to his home at Sutton. His horse was attacked by a dog of Dr. James Walker, and was severely bitten on the leg. The horse took fright and threw Mr. Bonnell out of the carriage and dragged him quite a distance. Medical aid was summoned and it was found Mr. Bonnell had fractured his spine and also injured internally. The accident happening just now, seems to be particularly sad as Mr. Bonnell has been ill for a long time, and was just beginning to get out again. The little girl WEST END. escaped uninjured.

I hear a rumor of an interesting event to take place shortly, in which a young lady from the East Side, and one of our prominent West End officials will be the principals.

Mrs. Pitman, wife of Capt. Pitman of the ship Alert, had one of her arms broken in two places by a fall in her house.

Mr. Harry Cahalan spent a few days here last

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Keeffe are boarding at the Western House. Rev. T. S. Lavery of St. George was here last week.

The choir of the Presbyterian church gave a very enjoyable concert in the basement of their church on Monday evening of this week.

A very successful bazaar was held last week the Blue rock Baptist mission room. Mr. M. F, Mooney spent Sunday here with his family. VIOLET.

St. John-North.

Mrs. J. P. McInerney, Douglas ave who has been quite ill is much improved.

M.s. Barnhill left on Monday for East Boston where she will be the guest of her daughter Mrs. Ferris.

Mrs. Frank Rowan left on Thursday evening, last for Everitt, Mass., where she will reside.

Miss Nettie Pidgeon was quite ill this week. The assemblies have been postponed till after Christmas. Last Friday the Harrifon-Smith assembly met at the home of Miss Mabel Smith where the young folk received a warm reception. That they enjoyed themselves no one on Douglas Ave. doubts, as their merry laughter on their return home awakened more than one from their silent slumbers. Mr. Alfred Burns returned home last week from Nova Scotia where he has been the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Duffy are receiving the congratulations of friends on a recent interesting mestic event, a son.

Dame rumor says that an ex-alderman and apostle of Tubal Cain, is soon to lead to the hymeneal alter, one of Fredericton's charming widows. Already his friends are preparing a pleasant surprise for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Richards gave a very pleasant family dinner purty at their residence on Kingstreet, on Saturday evening. Mr. Jas. Yerxa, leaves for the south, on Thursday, to spend the winter there. Miss Bohn, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lynch, Regent street, returned to her home in Bath, on Monday. Mr. Geo. F. Gregory returned home on Friday, from Bathurst

Mr. A. F. Vanwart and son Chester, paid a flying visit to St. John, on Thursday. We had three weddings here last Thursday even ng and all Frederictonians. Orders from out the City Dr. Lunn, one of our popular dentists, has been Promptly Attended to.

visiting Blackville, for a few days. After ten days absence in St. John, Mr. Z. R Everitt returned home Monday.

Miss Mabel Powys is at home again, after quite a mgthy visit spent in St. John. Mrs. Hiyard returned home from St. John on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Tremaine Gard are here, the guests of Mrs. Gard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Regent street. Mr. John Gilman, of Bangor, is in the city, the guest of Mr. H. B Rainsford.

Mr. Charles S. Everitt went to St. John on Tuesday morning to attend the meeting of the presbytery. Rev. Willard McDonald, of Hampton, has acepted the call to St. Paul's church, Fredericton, and will be inducted into his charge on Dec. 30. Miss Maria Murray is here on a visit, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Vavasour. The friends of Mr. George Palmer will be pleased to hear that he is improving, although still nfined to his home, from a bad accident he met with two weeks ago. Mr. Geo Y. Dibblee is home for the holidays. Miss Maria Nealis has returned home from Chatham, bringing with her two children of Hon. Mr. Adams, Mr. Adams having gone to California for the winter, and Mrs. Adams accompanied him as far as New York.

Mr. Harry Atherton has returned from Deering Centre, Maine

Fredericton friends were sorry to hear that Mr. J. A. Humble's, major of the Stanley Grange, had met with a serious accident caused by slipping from Miss Barker, of St. John and Mrs. Shuttleworth, of Eugland, spent a few days in our delightfui little town last week.

Miss Etta Shaw who has been attending the universify here leaves for her home in St. John on Friday

A. E. Killiam, ex M. P. P., was in town Saturday. Dr. Myshrall, our former townsman has been visiting the city. Mrs. John McDonalds returned home, from a lengthy visit to New York on Wednesday. Mr. Ailison Bartlett, of Charlottetown, is spending a few days in the city. A very pleasant basket sale and social was held in Thomp-on's hall, Nashwaaksis, on Tuesday by the C. of E. church people. About $27 was realized which was very good considering the small number of entlemen present. Mrs. W. M. H. Clements and of entlemen present. Mrs. w. M. H. Or make it a suc-Miss Evans, who worked so hard to make it a sucess must feel much gratified at the result of their

Miss Maime Clarke, of the university, returns to her home in Woodstock, on Friday to spend the holidays there.

Mr. Blanchard Sewell returned from St. John on Tuesday.

I have heard of two juvenile parties to come off bout Christmas time. Mr. J. W, Robertson, of Montreal, paid the celestial a short and business like call this week. The many friends of Capt. and Mrs. Robinson, formerly of Fredericton, will be sorry to hear of the death of Capt. Robinson which occurred a short time since in Dublin, Ireland. Mrs. Robinson was CRICKET.

a Miss Black of this city.

DEC. 16.—An interesting event this week was the opening of the new hall, erected by the Tilley branch of the Church of England Temperance soci-ety at Morrison's Mill, on Monday evening last. This society was organized by Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley about two years ago, and now numbers over 100 members. They have built a very neat hall capable of seating 150 people, the ground for which purpose having been generously given by Mr. Morrison. A musical and literary entertain-ment had been arranged for the occasion and was carried out with success, at times causing much merriment. Specches were made by Rev. Canon Roberts, Rev. Mr. Parkinson, Mr. Wm. Wilson, M. P. P., and Mr. James Duffy. Two beautiful solos were sung by Mrs. John Black, several songs by Mr. Wilson who also told some humorous stor

KEEPSAKE RINGS, ENGAGEMENT RINGS, WEDDING RINGS, BABY AND PET RINGS. Plain Gold, Chased Gold, or Set

- WITH DIAMONDS, RUBIES, SAPPHIRES, PEARLS, Or Other Precious Gems.

Also, a Beantiful Selection of Fine GOLD and SILVER WATCHES, BRACELETS, NECKLETS, BROOCHES, and other forms of Jewelry, and a Fine Line of CLOCKS and SILVERWARE, READY FOR THE CHRISTMAS TRADE, OR ANY OTHER ANNIVERSARY.

W. TREMAINE CARD NO. 81 KING STREET.

town this week.

pressive sermon at the evening service in the cathedral, and appeared to possess much of his old-time vigor. On the occasion of his anniversary he entertained the choir at his residence, as he has done for many years. All trust that his lordship's health and strength may be preserved for many happy returns of the day, Capt. McKenzie, who has been visiting Halifax, returned home last week. Mr. Bayard Fisher, who has been attending the medical college in Toronto, is expected home on Saturday to spend Christmas with his relatives.

Mr. Hughes, of the British Bank, St. John is here filling Mr. Winslow's position, the latter being con-

Lady Allen, who has been quite seriously ill, is

Dr. Bridges leaves for Philadelphia next week, to spend his Christmas vacation. Miss Rosa Jack has returned from St. John, and leaves for Chatham next Wednesday, to visit her

YARMOUTH.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. I. Vickery and Harris & Horsfall.]

DEC. 15. -On Friday evening of last week there by Rev. Dr. Cartright and carried out by the ladies of the congregation. The orange tree stood in the centre of the well lighted room, and by the natural appearance of its fruit, did great credit to the ar-ribbon decorations of the same color. Mrs. G. W. Farish returned from New York on

Mr. James Brignel general superintendent of the Western Counties Rai¹way, has lately removed from his house at Milton, to the one lately occupied by Mrs. Joseph R. Kinney arrived last week, after

A great many persons have predicted a quiet winter for us. I am inclined to disagree with them, for already there are signs of quite a gay season. Wait untill the Leap Year Ball! One reason for thinking our winter will be a quiet one is, that so many of our young people are away. Some of them, however, are not far off, St. John can account for two or three. And at holiday season we are expect-ing our students home. Miss Helen Clements, Miss Wednesday last.

the late Rev. Mr. Sutcliffe.

an absence of some weeks in the States

VERA.

fined to the house with a severe sore throat.

their visit to St. John.

able to be about again.

sister, Mrs. Geo. Fraser. We understand that in the College on that occasion.

few days ago.

Col. and Mrs. Maunsell have returned home from Manufacturing Jeweler.

on Friday last. Mrs. Kaine is still in Yarmouth, but will join her husband some time during the Hon. L. E. Baker has made the town of Yar-

Mr. W. T. Ford, of Digby, spent a few days i bouth a gift of a valuable lot of land for a park The gift will be highly appreciated, as a park is one of the things greatly needed by the town.

ST. GEORGE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. George at T. O'Brien's

Mr. E. H. McAlpine, of St. John, was at the ueen hotel last week. Mr. Pugsley, solicitor general, was also in town Mr. John Markham, of Sussex, made a brief visit here last week.

> Mr. J. E. Algar, St. Stephen, called upon his riends here last week.

Mr. Geo. R. Cooper, Fredericton, was here this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Hern who has been spending a few weeks here with Mrs. O'Hern's parents Mr. and Mrs. Lynott, left here last evening, for their home in Lowell, Mass.

common with other A number of the young friends of Miss Blanche Canadian Institutions of learning, an invitation has Gilmor gathered at the depot last Saturday morning to say good bye and to wish her a pleasant and safe been extended to the University of New Brunswick, to send a delegate to the centenial of the Dublin University. It is probable that Dr. Harrison, who is a graduate of Dublin University, will represent passage to her home in Montreal. Mrs. Douglas Wetmore left here this week for Truro where she will remain all winter. Mis. Geo. W. Clark, West End, was here for ew days this week. Mr. Will Clark, St. Stephen, made a short visit to his friends here this week. Mr. John McWilliam, of St. Stephen, paid a flying visit here this week.

Mrs. Dan Gilmor and family left here on Tuesday for their home in Montreal. Mr. Fred S. Hutchison, of St. Stephen, made was a large gathering in the Sunday school room of brief stay here this week. Holy Trinity church, to witness the novel sight of Sheriff Stuart, of St. Andrews, was here this week. an orange tree entertainment, an idea introduced Miss Clara Dykeman returned last week from a very pleasant visit of three months to relatives in Wookstock and Fredericton. UNDINE.

SHEFFIELD.

tistic efforts of those who worked so hard to make DEC. 16 .- Dr. P. T. Kierstead left on Wednesday the thing a success. Each orange contained an arfor Woodstock, where he will practice his profesticle, the value of which corresponded to the price asked for the fruit. The rapidity with which they Dr. Day has returned from a very enjoyable trip sold perhaps was due in a great measure to the atto Yarmouth. tractive appearance of the young ladies in charge of

The first monthly "at home" given by the ladies the tree, who were dressed in white and orange. They were: Miss Alice Eakins, Miss Libbie Biaof the methodist church was held at the residence | thrown in as a premium : gay, Miss Mary Gray, Miss Susie Bown, Miss Dora Murray, Miss Lizzie Moody, Miss Bingay, Miss Marion Murray, and Miss Gussie Gray. The tables of Mrs. Chas. Barker on Thursday evening. About 30 were present. Mr. Richard Gilbert, of Gagetown, spent a few at which light refreshments were sold, were decked in white and orange and the ladies who presided had hours at "Riverview cottage" on Friday. Mr. Aaron Lawson spent Saturday in Frederic

> Mr. Fred Venning returned Saturday evening from St. John.

Miss Burpee is home from Amherst to spend Christmas with her father. Mr. Fred T. Hoben has gone to St. Martins, where he will attend the closing concert. Mr. George E.

Day accompanied him to Fredericton. Mr. Walter Venning has gone on a shooting ex-pedition. He will remain a week. YOLANDE.

Mr. W. J. W. Bridges visited the celestial city last Wednesday.

Mr. Sidney Burpee also made a trip to that city on Friday. Miss Minnie Taylor is slowly recovering from an

The Three Guardsmen, by Alexander attack of la grippe. Miss Agnes Hubbard expects to leave her home had as it is a special good Sen. I get nothing that Suite my customers like it, " NEWCASTLE. Go and See Him. Mr. C. E. Reynolds has always some-

Secure quite a Supply while it is to be thing new at his Charlotte street store, as

all who read his announcements in PROG-RESS know. He is one of the advertisers who has something to tell his customers

every week, but at Christmas times this is a task that few can accomplish. Nearly everybody is up town buying presents,

however, and for novelties and good substantial furniture, Reynolds' store is a

A Mohammedan Evasion.

Mohammedan religion it is a sin to make a

A gentleman who visited a mosque in Algiers found that the titles with which the building is decorated, which were very old and beautiful, are adorned with flights of birds. He expressed much surprise at this, and asked if the command against

"Oh, no," answered the pious Algerian

"But they are painted as it flying across

"Yes," the Mussulman replied, "but do you not see that about the neck of each there is a fine black line? That is to show that the artist painted only dead

birds, and the command of the Koran is

Makes the

Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves

the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant.

imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness

than before, but in the most natural way

That Tired Feeling

creates an appetite, purifies th blood, and,

in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's.

Sarsapa .lla, which I took for general debility.

It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out.

My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor

Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes and digestiv. strength.

to whom he addressed the question.

"These are not pictures of living birds."

the tiles," the other said in some astonishsuch representation were a modern edict.

According to one of the tenets of the good place to visit.

ment.

not violated."

picture of any living thing.

DEC 16.-We had a reminder of pleasure to come in the shape of a very pleasant little party given by Mrs Geo. Stables, last Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Ella McAllister who is visiting her, but whom I am sorry to say leaves for her home in the West, soon after Christmas.

West, soon after Christmas. Mr. Adams genial face is missed very much by his many friends, who hope his health will be bene-fitten by his winten's sojourn in the South. Mr. McShane of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, and Mr. R. R. Call rowed to Chatham on Friday last, but finding Dec. 11 almost too late for pleasure trips by water, returned by rail. Mr. W. M. Hall of Montreal, spent Sunday in town. On Friday next, those who have not vet procured their Christmas presents, will have an opportunity by patronizing the sale held in St. James' Sunday school-room. This should be a success, as the children have worked hard under the direction of Misses Aitken and Call.

On Saturday night the Toboggan slide was partly burned and the Club house, with several toboggan left there since last winter, totally destroyed. This will be a great loss to us, as we depend a great deal on this sport for our winter's enjoyment. It is to be hoped some of our enterprising young men will have it rebuilt. M. W. it rebuilt.

WESTFIELD.

DEC. 15 .- Miss Georgia Finley went to St. John on Wednesday and returned on Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Nase was in the city on Saturday. Miss Bertha Lingley returned to St. John on Monday after spending a few days with friends

Mr. F. Beverly made a flying trip here on Wed

Mrs. C. Duplissie went to St. John on Friday and r eturned on Saturday.

Miss May Lingley returned to her home on Wed nesday after an extended visit to friends in South Framingham and Boston.

Mr. O. Belyea went to the city on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson entertained a few of their friends on Saturday evening. Mrs. G. R. Willett was in St. John on Saturday.

Mr. W. Burgess went to the city on Wednesday. BLUE BELL.

An Offer For Teachers.

in the maritime provinces through the columns of the Educational Review for December, which is ahead of any inducement the publisher has ever made. For the names of 20 families who do not take

PROGRESS now, and for $1.35 in cash, the paper will be sent six months to any teacher, and the following ten books

John Halifax Gentleman, by Miss Mul-

The Woman in White, by Wilkie Col-

Lady Audley's Secret, by Miss M. E.

The Last Days of Pompeii, by Sir E.

Vanity Fair, by W. M. Thackeray.

East Lynne, by Mrs. Henry Wood.

Jane Eyre, by Charlotte Bronte.

Adam Bede, by George Eliot.

lock

lins.

Braddon.

Balwer Lytton.

PROGRESS makes an offer to every teacher

Messrs. Smith, Allingham and Simpson have started a series of assemblies, the first of which meth on Tuesday evening last at the new hall on Millingeville on Wednes. There were quite a large number in attend- ance. Refreshments were served during the cven- ing. Quite a number of our young folk enjoyed them- selves by driving out to Millidgeville on Wednes. Messrs. Sublex, Mr. and Mrs. Allex, Mr. T. C. Allen, Mr. T. C. Allen, Mr. Sharpe, and Mrs. Allex, Mr. T. C. Allen, Mr. Sharpe, and Mrs. Carpenter. Selves by driving out to Millidgeville on Wednes. Miss balcom while active for the first of which met for the previous Sunday his lordship preached an im-	to be out again. Rev. A. MacDougal has returned from his trip to P. E. Island. Miss Steadman leaves this week for St. John to P. E. Island. Miss Netice The Paradise Row. Miss Netice Thompson, of Washington Territory, is spending the Christmas holidays with her autron Douglas avenue. Mrs. Bustin's friends are glad to see her out again after a severe lilness.	Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is. V. Roberts. Is the guest of its latter is wised for a new assembly to be formed after is open to teachers only, and take was made last week regarding the visit of Mr. Ed. was made last week regarding the visit of friends in St. John. Jas. Valentine. He was not the guest of Mr. Ed. was due to St. John last Friday to visit Mrs. Morris Went to St. John last Friday to visit Mrs. Morris Went to St. John last Friday to visit Mrs. Morris Mrs. Bubbard, of New York, has been visiting her cousin Mrs. G. If regret that through a mischard regarding the visit of Mr. He due that through a mischard regarding the visit of Mr. He due that through a mischard regarding the visit of Mrs. He due that through a mischard regarding the visit of Mrs. He due that through a mischard regarding th
 Mar. Samuel Roberts, of New York, arrived here hast furgis to the event of the second of the beardy cheers is the guest of his father S. V. Roberts. The guest of his father S. V. Roberts. Mr. David Anderson, who has been ill for some furget that through a misunderstanding a mis tak wasande law week regarding the visit of Mr. Edv as Valentine. He was not the guest of Mr. Edv as Corner Union and Gramma. Mr. Robol Sci. John last Friday to visit Mr. Mories. Mr. No differ Christmas. Mr. Was Mr. Law or consisty sick although Mrs. Law Mrs. No. Law cornersisty sick although Mrs. Law Mrs. No. Law cornersisty sick although Mrs. Law Mrs. Alter Cropley, who has been visiting in the diseavement. Mrs. Alter Cropley, who has been visiting in the wist party at Mr. and Mrs. Raey's pased Mrs. C. C. Clinch spent a severe illows. Miss Alle Cropley, who has been visiting in the of the dat on Wednesday last. Mrs. Basting for some time past, arrived home last. Mrs. Basting for some time past, arrived home last. Mrs. Basting for some time past, arrived home last. Mrs. Gew. Bingar, Nas. Here Room Mrs. Bastin	Mr. Samuel Roberts, of New York, arrived here last Thursday after an absence of many years. He is the guest of his father S. V. Roberts. I hear of a new assembly to be for Mr. David Anderson, who has been ill for some time at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Charles Minital Roberts, of New York, arrived here hast Thursday after an absence of many years. He is the guest of his father S. V. Roberts. I hear of a new assembly to be for Mr. David Anderson, who has been ill for some time at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Charles Minital Roberts, of New York, arrived here hast Thursday after an absence of many years. He is the guest of his father S. V. Roberts. I hear of a new assembly to be for Mr. Morrison. Tregret that through a misunderstanding a mis- take was mode heas week regarding the visit of Mr. Jas. Valentine. He was not the guest of Mr. time at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Charles Minital Roberts of the Scheety. Minital Roberts of the Scheety. Minital Roberts of the winter. Tregret that through a misunderstanding a mis- take was made last week regarding the visit of Mr. Mass. Valentine. He was not the guest of Mr. ward Vavasour. Mrs. Geo. Bliss and Master Bennison Rainsford the Missee Ryerson, at Milton. Minital Roberts of the Scheety. Minital Roberts of the winter of the winter. Mrs. Charles Horton and Miss Horton, are pay- ward Vavasour. Mrs. Geo. Bliss and Master Bennison Rainsford the Missee Ryerson, at Milton. Minital Roberts of the winter of the winter. Mrs. Geo. Bliss and Master Bennison Rainsford the Missee Ryerson, at Milton. Windsor. Miss.	