FREDERICTON.
[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Harthorn.]
May 6.—Everything is very quiet in our city just at present. There is still a great deal of sickness which, no doubt, accounts for this in a great measure, and many families have been called upon to part with some cherished member during the past few weeks, in fact, there is not a day passes that we do not hear the sad tolling of some church bell.
This morning at 10 o'clock the funeral of the late Miss Mary A. Brannen took place from the residence of her niece, Mrs. John Thomas, on the corner of Sunbury and George streets. She was interred in the old protestant burying ground. Services were conducted at the cathedral by Rev. Mr. Alexander and Rev. Canon Roberts. The coffin was crowned by a very handsome floral cross.
Mr. John Edwards, sr., is still very ill, and Mr.
James Hodge is suffering from a severe attack of la grippe.
An interesting event is to take place tomorrow morning on George street in which a St. John confectioner and a popular young lady of this city will be the chief actors.

MONCTON.
[Progress is for sale in Moncton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]
MAY 6.—It is a fortunate thing that "hope springs eternal in the human breast" I'm sure, for if it didn't I don't know what would become of the society correspondents. By the way though, the rest of the quotation is rather discouraging, "Man never is, but always to be blest." However, hope has begun to revive in my breast lately, and there seems a prospect of having something to write about in the near future, three small parties, a dance, and a church social, in the short space of one week, seem to indicate a returning activity in social circles most cheering.
Mrs. F. W. Sumner's dance last Wednesday evening was a very delightful break in the general monotony which had settled down upon us, and it was, as Mrs. Sumner's parties invariably are, a brilliant success.
Following in its wake came a quiet but very enjoyable party, given on Thursday evening by Mrs.
T. V. Cooke, at which Mr. and Mrs. Hooper were the guests of the evening. The gathering was chiefly of married folk, who, in spite of their chains, seemed to enjoy themselves very thoroughly.
Mrs. George McSweeney gave one of her delightful whist parties on Friday evening, between forty and fifty guests being present and spending a most enjoyable evening. I believe the whist played was of the "drive" variety, but I did not hear who carried off the prizes, either major or minor.
On Monday evening Mrs. McSweeney gave another drive whist party, at which she was unfortunately unable to be present, being summoned to Boston in the afternoon by the serious illness of her son.

when they will return to the East End. Mr. and Mrs. Reid's many West End friends are pleased to welcome them once more in their midst, only regretting that their stay is not permanent.
Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Steeves who returned on Saturday from their wedding tour, spent Sunday with Mrs. Steeves' parents at their residence, "Riverview." Mrs. Steeves will receive her friends next week, probably the first three days, at her residence
