The event of the week to which society, especially the younger members of it, have been looking forward to for some time came off on Wednesday in the marriage of Miss Joanna R. Hazen, second daughter of the late Wm. Hazen, to Mr. Arthur F. S. Moren, of Halitax, N. S. The ceremony, which was fixed for 8.30 p. m., took place in St. Paul's (Valley) church and was performed by Rev. Canon DeVeber, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lutz. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride with ferns, golden rod, and other yellow and white flowers. The guests, numbering nearly 100, began to assemble about 8 p. m. and were shown to seats in the middle aisle by the ushers, Messrs. R. N. Frith, H. B. Robinson, B. S. Smith, and H. Wright. Precisely at the hour mentioned, the groom arrived at the altar with Mr. A. P. Hazen, who attended him, and the choiristers, who had assembled at the church door, proceeded up the aisle to the music of "The voice that breathed o'er Eden," followed by the two bridesmaids, Miss May Beer and Miss Harriet Hazen, and the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. R. P. Hazen, who subsequently gave her away. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of heavy white corded silk, with court train. The front of the skirt was draped and caught up with orange blossoms. She also wore a wreath of orange blossoms and long tulle veil, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. St. John-South End. white roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaids looked particularly well in very pretty dresses of cream bengaline made en train, and trimmed with gold passementene, tulle veils fastened with white and gold aigrettes, each carried large bunches of yellow roses tied with white ribbon, which, together with beautiful half hoop pearl rings, were the gifts of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests returned to the residence of the bride's mother, Chipman Place. The scene at the house was a very picturesque one. The bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends under a large bell of white roses and asters hung at one corner of the room. The mantels at either end of the room were banked with ferns and moss, and filled in with sunflowers and other yellow flowers.

Immediately after supper the bride retired to change her dress for that of a very becoming travelling costume of grey and electric blue plaid, trimmed with large pearl buttons and small ribbon, hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Moren left by the 11.30 train amid showers of rice and hosts of good wishes for a trip to Montreal, Ottawa and other Canadian cities, returning by way of the States to Halifax, where they will reside.

Altogether, it was one of the prettiest weddings ever seen in St. John. I particularly noticed the

YUR GOSSAMER trade of August was the largest we have ever had in any one month; in fact we missed the sale of a great many on account of sizes running out. This has been remedied by the purchase of 200 more, which include other patterns equally as nice. These Gossamers are good value at $4.00, but having bought them at less than regular prices, we intend giving our customers the benefit. -
