respected family, lived comparatively alone since the death of her brother, Mr. T. E. Gilbert Tisdale, Miss Jarvis, daughter of the late Rev. Mr. Jarvis of Shediac, as companion.

The suddenness of two deaths in one house on the The suddenness of two deaths in one house on the same day was most appalling. The remains of Miss Tisdale were interred the following day in the rural cemetery, while those of Miss Jarvis were taken to her former home, Shediac, for burial. Miss Tisdale had lived to a ripe old age and inherited much land and property from her father, the late Charles W. Tisdale, who was the first child here of lovalist parents after their landing in St. born of loyalist parents after their landing in St. John. Miss Tisdale leaves no near relatives in the city, consequently her valuable property will be divided between the widow, children and grand-children of her brother, the late Chas. Tisdale, who resides in England. The Tisdale family were old and prominent members of Trinity church for many years, but failing health for the past five years prevented Miss Tisdale from attending the services. Miss Jarvis was also a regular attendant of the same church, and her familiar figure will be much missed in her accustomed seat. Her sister, Mrs. Gilbert, is at present in Halifax, and the shock to her will be great, as she is in a very precarious state of health.

The marriage of Miss Ada Dever, daughter of Senator Dever, and Mr. Roberts, of London, Eng., was solemnized in England on Thursday last. Miss Dever is a great favorite in St. John, and her many friends will join me in hearty congratilations. The Tisdale family were old and prominent mem-

MONCTON.

SEPT. 9.—Social news resembles black pearls for scarcity this week. The fact is that those people who have not been getting married this autumn—and they are in a comparative minority—are just getting home from the seaside! And a most disagreeable performance they find it, too. I did not go to the seaside myself this summer, but if I had indulged in that extravagance. I think it would SEPT. 9.-Social news resembles black pearls for alged in that extravagance, I think it would take me at least a month to recover my temper after the settling down process. Amongst these returning exodians who are taking up the burden of life in Moncton again, are Mrs. F. A. McCully, who returned from Shediac last week, and Mrs. R. W. Hewson who came back to town yesterday after her summer sojourn at her Dorchester home. I am glad to say that Miss Hewson has quite recovered from her severe attack

Mr. Wran is spending a short holiday with his parents in Moncton. I am sorry to say that we have lately lost a very charming young lady from Moneton in the person of Miss Nellie Ryan, who returned to her home in Sussex last week. Miss Ryan has been staying with her brother Mr. George Ryan, for nearly two years, and we had grown to consider her quite our own property, until reminded rudely last week that she was only borrowed, and had, alas, to be returned. I trust it will not be long before Miss Ryan comes back to Moncton, even if it should only be as a visitor.

I hear due rumors of another departure from our town, which I cannot bring myself to believe as yet. They refer to Dr. E. B. Chandler who, it is said, is contemplating an exodus to the United States. It is too true that Dr. Chandler has advertised all his Moncton property for sale, and that, of

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous." "When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well. "Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR. 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

SKINNER'S CARPET: WAREROOMS.

BISSELL'S GOLD MEDAL

As beautiful and perfect as a sweeper can be, and self adjusting to every kind of carpet. The bail and trimmings are nickeled; the case is made of rich woods, hand-decorated. It makes no noise, raises no dust, and wears no carpet. A child can use it. Every modern feature is contained in it.

It saves in woman's work and wear; in carpets, dust, and back aches; and a broom could never

No woman who lives on carpets can afford to be without one.

BRIGHT ideas may sparkle like diamonds but if they are not properly executed they might just as well never have been conceived. I have some of the quaintest and handsomest designs in jewelry that ever left skilful fingers, and they are all executed to perfection. Whether you pay much or little for them, you spend your money to excellent advantage. Prices are, of course, proportioned to values, but in no case will a penny of your money be unwisely invested. Come and look at firm. You will take no more pleasure in seeing that we will in showing. Among other things, I am displaying a fine line of DIAMOND ENGAGEMENT RINGS of latest style, and at prices to SUIT the EMER-GENCY .- Yours confidentially,

W. TREMAINE GARD.

MORAL - INSURE.

A citizen 14 years ago, on the morning of June 20th, entered an Insurance office and placed $3,000 on his house. He simply placed the risk—got no policy, paid no premium. In the afternoon there was a heap of ashes where his house stood. He had no house, but the Company paid him $3,000.

course, looks bad, but still we are reluctant to believe the worst yet, and though if we were com-pelled to lose the genial doctor, in the regular course of events, such as by death, or matrimony, we should have to submit to the inevitable, we draw the line at a deliberate departure and will do all in our power to prevent him from actually departing, even if we should have to resort to extreme measures, such as kidnapping him at the station. It is impossible to picture Moncton without Dr. Chandler and the void that he would leave would almost blot out the city.

We have some invalids in town, I am sorry to say, though fever seems to be going out of fashion more every year. There was a time when if you did not have at least a slight attack of low fever every September you were completely out of the swim; but now, I am happy to say, that you can have nervous prostration or general debility, and still maintain your position in society.
