St. John—South End.
Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Winslow and family left this week by C. P. R. for Toronto. Mrs. Winslow will remain a few days at Montreal to visit her relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Winslow have made very many warm friends during their five years residence in St. John, and in society circles they will be much missed.
Miss Edith Winslow returned to her home at Chatham the first of the week.
Mr. Campbell, the new accountant of the Bank of Montreal, arrived in the city on Monday last from Brockville, Ont.
Mrs. W. C. Milner, of Shediac, is the guest of Mrs. Robert Jardine, Coburg street.
Miss Elsie Matthews, and Miss Gussio Wright, who left St. John some weeks ago are both installed as nurses in the Newport hospital, the matron Miss Bessie Scoville is also at St. John, and when two other ladies from this city join the same hospital there will be quite a St. John party there.
I am sorry to hear that typhoid fever is at present very prevalent in St. John. Mr. J. McDonald of the Bank of Montreal is seriously ill with it. Mr. George Whitney is also laid up with the same disease. Miss Edith Sturdee, and Miss Jeannie Handford also have slight attacks.
Mrs. W. C. Thomson of Portland, Maine, arrived in the city this week to visit her mother, Mrs. W. G. Lawton, Germain street, who had a slight attack of paralysis a day or two ago.
Mr. Walter McDonald of Halifax, came to St. John this week in consequence of the illness of his mother.
The death of Mr. J. Miller of the British Bank, which occurred at his residence, Germain street, on Tuesday evening last, although not unexpected, was a shock to his many friends. Mr. Miller has been in failing health for the past eighteen months, but up to a fortnight ago was able to do his work at the bank.
The remains were taken to Truro for interment, accompanied by Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Blair who were with her when she passed away. Mr. Miller was only in his 50th year.
Mr. Blair Robertson, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, having been transferred to the Montreal agency, left this week for that city. In aquatic circles Mr. Robertson will be much missed.
He has been succeeded by Mr. Burns, of Halifax, a prominent member of the Wanderers club.

TERREVICORE.
There was a quiet marriage at St. Paul's church Saturday morning last, when Mr. Wm. J. Skinner, of Toronto, and Miss Audie, only daughter of W. J. Gilbert, of Shediac, were united in wedlock.
The many friends in this city of Miss Jeanie McGarry, the well known elocutionist, will be pleased to hear of her success in Edinburgh as a public reader.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Love, of this city, celebrated their tenth anniversary Monday evening, when a large number of their friends gathered at their residence and spent a very enjoyable evening. A number of handsome presents were received by the hostess, and after a hearty supper the guests departed.
The death of Mr. John Miller, of the Bank of B. N. A., cast a gloom over a large circle of friends on Wednesday. Mr. Miller was very well known in St. John, and was a general favorite. For many months he has been a sufferer from consumption, and last winter took a journey south in the hope of complete restoration to health. On his return he was very much better, but recently was forced to leave for another leave of absence from his bank. Mr. Miller was married only a few months ago to Miss Blair, of Truro, who has the sympathy of a host of friends in her sorrow. A large circle of friends were taken to Truro Wednesday for interment. A short service was held at his residence by Dr. Macrae.
Mr. John Watson left on the western train on Tuesday evening for Boston, where he goes to take part at the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss Nellie Watson, which takes place in that city in the near future.
There was a pretty wedding in the St. Peter's church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss Hattie, daughter of Mr. P. Morgan were married. The bride was attended in white brilliance, and was dressed in white silk lace, wore a white felt sailor hat with white feathers, carried a lovely bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid, Miss M. McGee, wore white brilliantine with pink trimmings. The bride's sister, Miss Lizzie Morgan wore white moirai, cream trimmings and elder down. Miss Margaret Hogan, white brilliantine trimmed with white silk lace.
Capt. A. W. Masters is here from Yarmouth on his way to Moncton.
Dr. Essoon was presented last week with a gold (not silver) mounted cane by the nurses of the hospital, not the matron as was stated.
Dr. Macrae returned this week from Charlottetown, P.E.I.
