

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

AMHERST.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Amherst, by George Douglas, at the Western Union Telegraph office.]

Dec. 9.—We Amherstians are very proud of our town and its name. We think there is no place on the face of the earth that can equal it. The town was named for Lord Amherst, and if his spirit ever hovers over us it must feel a sense of pride that the name has been upheld with such dignity. The only drop of bitterness in our cup, is the knowledge that there are other places of the same name, but it has the effect of making us draw our mantle of respectability closer around our necks and congratulate ourselves that it is not probable that we will ever come in contact with those people.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. Gordon Main, of the Northwest Mounted Police, who has been making his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Main, a visit of three months, left again for headquarters. He had been absent seven years and his visit home was hailed with delight by his numerous friends, who deeply regretted his departure.

Miss Blanche Harris, of Annapolis, is at present visiting her brother Rev. V. E. Harris, at the vicarage. She expects to remain until after the New Year.

There was a parlor concert at the vicarage on Tuesday evening under the management of Mr. Harris, and tonight (Wednesday) there is to be another by the orchestra, under Mr. Henry Hill's direction. The proceeds are for improvements on the building.

The church women's missionary association held their annual meeting on Thursday in the school room, and report a creditable sum in the savings bank, placed there by them for diocesan purposes.

The ladies of the Methodist church had an old-fashioned tea-meeting in the basement on Friday evening last with most satisfactory results.

Dr. and Mrs. Dobson expect to leave here on the 17th inst., to spend the winter in Hamilton, Bermuda.

Mr. MacDonald and family intend to leave in the morning, and will remove there about the 14th inst.

Mr. W. T. Lawson, the London representative of Messrs. T. & E. Kenny, of Halifax, and brother of Mr. James Lawson, of this town, has returned to England, after a visit of a few weeks to his relatives here and in Westmorland.

Wednesday, the 10th inst., will be the wedding day of two of our young people, a rising young lawyer and a talented young schoolmistress.

Mrs. Allison, who has been spending a few weeks with her sister-in-law, returned to Hampton last Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Hickman, of Dorchester, has been paying her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Douglas, a visit.

Mrs. Carvell, wife of the lieutenant governor of P. E. I., was in town for a few days, the guest of her brother, Mr. S. Hanford.

Mr. J. H. Black was in town this week from Pictou.

Mr. W. J. Moran spent Sunday in Dorchester with his friends.

A social club has been started, to meet once a week during the winter months.

Mr. Stewart Dickey is home from Toronto to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Senator and Mrs. Dickey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum gave a pleasant dinner party on Monday evening of last week, and another on last Monday evening.

KENTVILLE.

Dec. 9.—Dr. Moore's many friends and patients are sorry to learn of his illness, which they hope will not be very serious, or of long duration. It somehow does not seem in order for a doctor to be ill, neither can he be well spared at this time, for there seems to be an unusual amount of illness about.

Master Murray Hanson has gastric fever, I believe, but is not dangerously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simpson and child leave on Friday for England, where they intend staying for a year at least, visiting Mr. Simpson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett go to England in May, and will remain there two years.

Kentville has been decidedly behind the times, as far as doing so long without the telephone is concerned. The subject is being agitated now by the Valley Telephone company at Middleton, and wires will likely be extended, it is said, through Kentville to connect with the telephone at Hantsport, as well as westward to Annapolis.

The fish jubilee singers paid us a visit on Monday evening and gave a thoroughly enjoyable concert. They are so well known in our loop here that we do not need to say more about them. Their music attracts a house full. The hall was packed although the night was very disagreeable. Mr. Masters who was instrumental in getting the jubilee singers, deserves the thanks of the community for the enthusiastic audience certainly appreciated the songs sung if the choir called for any proof.

Local talent is to entertain at next Monday evening.

Mr. James Neary, one of Kentville's old and respected citizens died on Monday.

Neary had been troubled with heart disease for some time, his death was a great shock to his friends as he died early Saturday morning.

Neary had been out about town, he seemed as well as usual when he left home on Monday.

Mr. L. de V. Chipman went to Halifax on Monday.

Mr. C. C. Brown, who has been searching for a suitable farm, has purchased one near Greenwich where he will move his family next week.

DIGBY, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Digby at the bookstore of Mrs. Belle Morse.]

Dec. 9.—Miss Maggie Turnbull, who has been suffering from scarlet fever is gradually improving.

Miss Maggie Rice is able to be out again, after a severe attack of the same disease.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones celebrated the tenth anniversary of their wedding, on Tuesday evening of last week. They were the recipients of many useful articles in the tin-ware line.

Sunday evening last, the Rev. J. M. Fisher preached an eloquent sermon in memorial of Mrs. Ansel Holdsworth. Grace Methodist Church was thronged, and many of the congregation, if not all, were moved to tears.

Mrs. Holdsworth was a universal favorite greatly beloved by all, and her death leaves a vacancy in the Methodist congregation which will not easily be filled. Ansel the son of the deceased lady is improving; he has been suffering from the same fever which caused his mother's death.

Mr. Frank S. Bacon has gone to McAdam Junction. I hear Frank goes to try his hand at the hotel business.

Miss E. Bent intends passing the winter with her brother, Dr. Bent, at Argyle, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Torment Monday, where I hear she is to engage her absence.

Mrs. Allan Wade entertained a number of her friends to a church party on the evening of the 28th.

Mrs. Wade is a charming hostess.

Miss Ella Burnham, who has been visiting her friends in Digby, returned on Wednesday of last week.

The many friends of Mr. Fulton Titus will miss his genial face from among them. Fulton left for Torment Monday, where I hear he is to engage in business for himself.

Mrs. George Bigay and family are about to remove to their former home in Yarmouth. Mr. Bigay passed the summer in Digby occupying Mr. Chalmers' charming residence on Queen street.

Mr. Longstaff is confident of having the new hotel for Digby. It is just what Digby wants, for the strangers who come here to spend the summer increase in number from year to year, and better accommodations must be had.

JACKO.

PICTOU, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Pictou by Jas. McLean.]

Dec. 9.—It has been very dull here lately in our little town, but I suppose every one is busy getting ready for Christmas. The weather is most unseasonable, but the stores are beginning to put on their holiday dress. J. McBeattie's doll window has been the admiration of all, especially the little folks.

Hon. Mr. Foster, minister of finance, was in town on Monday, on his way from P. E. Island. Bunting was flying from the S. S. Northumberland in his honor.

Miss Belle Newbery, of Charlottetown, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon returned home last Thursday. They have been visiting in St. John for some weeks.

Mr. Parker Carvell, of Charlottetown, was in town on Monday.

Rev. D. A. Gordon, of Halifax, passed through here on Monday on his way to Charlottetown, where he was to lecture that evening.

Supr. A. H. Mackay, was here this week. He left on Tuesday morning for Spring tide.

Mrs. Ingils Johnson, of New Glasgow, was in town on Monday.

The temperance lecture by the boy orator, Mr. W. A. Demette, was well attended on Sunday last. He will speak again on Thursday evening in Prince street hall.

Mr. J. G. S. Hudson, of Sydney, Cape Breton, is visiting his father on Denoon street.

The concert on Monday night was a great treat to the music lovers of Pictou. Many thanks are due to Miss Annie McDonald whose untiring efforts deserve every success, as to her we owe a great many musical evenings. The friends of the church will be glad to hear that the Pictou tenors club are talking of a ball to come off in the early part of the year.

DARBY.

SHEFFIELD.

Dec. 9.—Mr. J. Gilchrist is now in Sheffield where he intends to remain the winter. He will attend the Grammar school.

Miss MacLean is at present visiting her friends in Boston.

Miss Rosella Burpee is in Fredericton taking music lessons. She will remain till Christmas.

Miss Agnes Hubbard leaves for Windsor the second week in January, where she will complete her education. Her presence will be much missed at the whist club, as she was a prominent member.

Mr. Fred Venning left this morning for St. John, where he will spend a few days.

Mrs. Jack Bridges and her two children, are visiting her father, Mr. Stephen Burgess, at his home in the city. Mr. Garrison will be sorry to hear of her continued illness, and confinement to the house.

I hear that the ladies of the Methodist church intend establishing monthly "At Homes," for the benefit of foreign missions.

Dr. Day is now in Yarmouth.

Mr. Woodbridge Hubbard has returned from Vermont, where he has been on business for the last three weeks.

We are going to have a whist club formed, and the first meeting will be held on New Year's Eve.

Mrs. McFadden is lying at her home very ill, and is not expected to recover. Her friends have our sympathy.

The engagement of one of our fairest young ladies, has been announced. Congratulations.

Mr. Gilchrist while out skating on Friday, met with an accident which might have resulted seriously. He broke through the ice, and was nearly drowned. He was rescued by a friend, and is now recovering.

There is a certain rising lawyer who visits Sheffield very often. He is not a business man, but rather the reverse.

YOLANDE.

MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the book stores of W. W. Black and W. H. Murray, Main street.]

Dec. 9.—Whist parties are almost the only form of party indulged in just now, partly because, because there are scarcely enough young people left in town to make up even a small dance, so many are away, but whist is always a refuge in Moncton, and a true Monctonian must be in a morbid condition indeed, when the words, "It's your deal," fail to galvanize him into sudden life and action.

Have not heard much about the East End whist club this year, so I scarcely know whether it is a highly flourishing condition, and was merely around in its chosen orbit. The last meeting took place on Thursday evening, when the club was entertained by Mrs. H. A. Price, of Bonaventure street, and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

The bread and butter club is at present in a quiescent state, caused in all probability by the nearness of the season sacred to mince pie, which has diverted the thoughts of the feminine members from bread and butter, and turned them to Christmas-cake and mince pies; for it is known, that the Moncton girls in spite of their beauty and style, are noted as good housekeepers, and well versed in all that goes towards making the heart of man for we all know that the heart is sympathetic with the gastric organs.

Mrs. E. M. Estey gave a delightful little whist party last Wednesday evening. There were five tables, and the 20 guests enjoyed themselves most thoroughly, as usual, wound up with a small suspicion of a dance.

Everything tends to confirm my former statement that it was going to be a quiet winter. I begin to fear now that unless some enterprising immigration agent starts a boom for Moncton in the near future, it will be worse than quiet; so many people seem to regard it as a good place to get away from this autumn. I am very sorry to say that Mr. and Mrs. John Galt will be amongst the absentees this winter. Mr. Galt having been ordered south by his medical advisers, in order to shake off a troublesome bronchial affection for which the climate of Canada is very trying. Mr. and Mrs. Galt have broken up housekeeping for the winter, and will leave this week for their former home in Ontario, from where they will take their departure for the southern states later on. Their Moncton friends wish them a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Mrs. George B. Willett, who has been spending some weeks in Boston, returned home last week.

Miss Black, of Bermuda, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Borden at their home on Bonaventure street.

Mr. R. B. Jack's many Moncton friends will be interested to hear that he has accepted a lucrative position in New Westminster, B. C. Mr. Jack was for two or three years a member of the L. C. R. engineering staff in the general offices here, and was a very general favorite. We all rejoice to hear of his advancement, but regret that his professional duties should have taken him so far away from New Brunswick, and especially from Moncton.

The children's entertainment in the W. C. T. U. hall last Wednesday evening was a great success, drawing a full house, and realizing over $20 each of all expenses. The singing ladies, Misses Agnes, Peters, Minnie Nevins, Geraldine Beddome and Flossie May, and Masters Stanley and Charlie Busby, Frank Hanington and Bertie Church, formed one of the chief features of the evening; and the manner in which they were danced would have reflected infinite credit upon the performers even if they had been grown-up. Instead of being, as some of them were, between six and seven years old. Miss Chipman, who devoted so much time to training the children, and Miss Ella Stevens, who assisted, are to be congratulated upon their success. This evening the children, and young people, of the junior sewing circle held a high tea, and fancy sale, in the building on Main street, formerly occupied by "eye" restaurant. The proceeds go towards the organ fund, and as the young folks have been working faithfully for the greater part of the summer, it is to be hoped that they will be well patronized.

Miss Bliss, of Westmoreland, is in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCreary.

Mr. R. W. Simpson, returned on Saturday from Halifax, where he has spent the last two months, as assistant engineer, on the construction of the new Dartmouth bridge.

I regret to say that Mrs. Williams, wife of the treasurer of the L. C. R., has been very ill for the past two weeks, and is still far from well. Her illness seems to be a species of brain fever, which has greatly reduced her strength.

The bridge across the far-famed Petitcodiac river, between Moncton and Capreol, gave way before the violence of last Friday night's gale, and three of the spans fell on Saturday morning. Things look very gloomy for several Moncton families who moved over to the Albert county side last summer, and the heads of which came over every morning to their professional and business duties. Just now the indications are that they will be compelled to wade across or else climb over the ice cakes, carrying their grocery and meat supplies on their backs, for some months to come, as the Petitcodiac is not a river that either remains open or freezes respectably over all winter—it simply piles up huge boulevards of mud and ice, which the tide floats each day, so that navigation and communication are alike impracticable, and the outlook is dark and well to be feared as Capreol, since we are largely supplied with apples, vegetables, and poultry from the farmers of Albert county not to speak of that more than staff of life, butter.

One of the saddest deaths which has taken place in Moncton for a long time, was that of Mr. Duncan McKinnon, clerk in the store of William Cowling & Co., which occurred on Saturday last at his boarding house on Steadman street. Mr. McKinnon had been ill with fever nearly a month, and was nearly recovered when he suffered a relapse and died shortly afterwards. He was a native of Cape Breton, an active member of the Y. M. C. A., and of the Presbyterian church. The remains were taken to Cape Breton for interment on Sunday morning. His parents, when he was a boy, were known that he could not recover, but they did not arrive in time to see him alive. The greatest sympathy is felt for them in their sorrow.

Leut. Colonel Mansell, of Fredericton, was in town yesterday, inspecting the accommodations of the two militia companies here.

Miss Bessie Nagoe, of St. Andrews, is in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams.

CECIL GWYNNE.

SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

The Young Ladies Sewing Club, patronized by Mrs. H. K. Foster, met at Mrs. Josiah Wood's on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Frank B. Street, of Montreal, passed Monday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougall, on Tuesday evening, gave one of those pleasant and sociable whist parties, for which they are so celebrated. Though in no sense intended for elaborate affairs, they are always quite as enjoyable to those fortunate enough to be among the select few present.

Mrs. Smith, has as her guest, her sister, Mrs. Evanson, who, I believe, will remain in Sackville quite awhile.

Rev. Cecil Wiggins, Rector of Sackville, was in town this week to attend the diocesan meeting.

Mr. Albert T. Fawcett, for many years a resident of this town, left for California this week on a pleasure trip. It is his intention, should the climate suit him, and he be otherwise pleased, to dispose of his property here, and remove there with his family.

Col. and Mrs. Mansell, of Fredericton, were in town on Tuesday, the former en route to Bal de Verre on official duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Tait, of Dorchester, were also here, the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane passed a few days in Sackville last week as guests of Mrs. Fred Ryan. Mrs. Lane when Miss Estabrooks, was one of our liveliest and best natured young ladies, always ready to assist in all social pleasures.

The informal club, or the "annex" of the Young People's Sewing circle, met last week at Mr. James Ralston's, where a few pleasant hours were spent in dancing, the hostess on this occasion being Miss Mabel Ralston, who is a general favorite.

Last Saturday being the birthday of those dear little "Mr. Allison twins" so called, daughters of Rev. Mr. Borden, principal of the ladies academy, the students presented them with a pair of silver napkin rings. Doubtless Miss Gladys and Miss E. fully appreciated the kind thought of the young ladies, though they thought they were a little r-p-y, which was I believe done for them by their father who thanked the young ladies in his own happy style. The little girls are great favorites with all connected with the institutions, and being born at the ladies academy they seem a part of it.

The Young People's Sewing society expect to hold their Christmas sale of useful and fancy articles (the work of their own hands) next Tuesday afternoon. It is really wonderful how much they have accomplished, as most, if not all, of the members are on school girls who have their studies to occupy most of their time. The proceeds are for church purposes. The ladies of St. Paul's church held a sociable in the Sunday school house on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Fred Ryan last week entertained some (or most I should say) of the members of the young people's sewing circle, and they were most enjoyable. Dancing was much enjoyed by all present, among whom were the Misses Ralston, Shwin, Bell, Smith, White, Ayer and Tait, and Messrs. Smith, Black, Olive, (St. John) Ralston, Potts and Snowball, of Chatham. There were, of course, delicious refreshments.

DORCHESTER.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.]

Dec. 9.—I find I was a little previous, and since I last wrote Nature has called in her "snowy mantle" to give a little more of her own kind to us. There are no objects. Every day warm day seems so much subtracted from the "dem'd total," and we feel we have stolen a march on old winter. Probably he will get even with us yet; so it does not pay to boast too soon.

I feel a good deal like the small boy who tried to keep a diary and filled each date with "forget what day," and then there were but a few memories left to him. The daily round, the common task, furnish all there is to talk about; and even our seemingly unimportant acts of enunciation is exhausted for the nonce, as is the material, I am afraid.

Jack has been unusually long in Session for these degen-rate days, and quite a number of semi-strange faces have been seen on our sheets in consequence. On Thursday, Mr. Borden's old friends were delighted to see him. It seemed quite like a scrap of the "good old time," to have him here for a couple of days. He and Mr. Beddome were witnesses in the Bank case. Mr. W. W. Wells also spent the greater part of the week in town.

Joshua Wood, M. P., was here on Friday, for a short time.

Mr. R. W. Hamington has been laid up in Halifax with an attack of quinsy, but is rapidly recovering. Mr. Joseph Hickman went to Amherst, on Thursday, to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. D. Douglas.

The Misses Church of Albert, were in Dorchester on Wednesday, the guests of the Misses Backhouse.

WOONSOCKET.

Miss Fannie Church was en route to Newport, where she is training as a nurse.

Mr. John Euclydes Indianantow, spent Sunday here. Dorchester possesses a charm for him now I know.

They say we are to have the Jubilee Singers at the last of the month. I only hope it is true. We are seldom treated to anything so really good now-a-days. As someone suggested, it is a bad sign when companies of that kind take in the money, but we shall hope it is not true in this case. Their music seems to appeal to all tastes, whether cultivated or not.

A meeting of the Sheliae deaconry is being held here, and there was a special service in Trinity church last night, when Rev. Mr. Williams, of Moncton, preached. I hope it is not impertinent to say that to listen to his voice would be a treat, were it uttering nothing more edifying than Mother Goose. It reminds one of a great, sweet bell, and one feels there is no limit to its depth and power. The other visiting clergy are the Rev. Cecil Wiggins and Rev. Mr. McKenzie of Shodice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane spent Sunday in Sackville, where Mrs. Lane has unfortunately returned with a severe cold.

Mr. H. C. Hanington is in town today.

It is rather expiring to see our "old boys" returning to the haunts of their youth for such fleeting visits, only to make us realize what we have lost. Well, such is life, and our loss is Moncton's gain generally. It ought to console us to think of that, but it doesn't.

Miss F. S. Chandler went to that muddy city this morning for the day.

The ladies of the Baptist congregation intend holding a high tea and sale in their vestry tomorrow evening, when the usual array of good things may be expected.

I may have another engagement to announce ere long, but it is an air of uncertainty overhanging the affair, so it cannot be counted upon to furnish an item.

Mr. J. W. Y. Smith spent Sunday in St. John as usual.

Mrs. Geo. Swayne is visiting her mother in Point de Bute.

ALBERT.

ALBERT.

Dec. 4.—On the evening of Nov. 28 the Epworth (Junior) League gave an entertainment in the Methodist church. It was largely attended and all agreed that the children did nicely. They raised about $20, which is to be spent for missions, and Miss Odessa McConnell, of Eastport, Me., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nathaniel Smith.

Monday evening Mr. Robinson, grand secretary of I. O. G. T., met the Hopewell lodge at their lodge room, and with them marched to Riverside hall, where he delivered an interesting lecture; and reorganized Acadia lodge.

Messrs. C. & J. Prescott have moved into their handsome new store.

Mr. J. Prescott is recovering from his illness.

On Monday, Nov. 30, about fifty couples assembled at the Waverley to witness the marriage of Mr. Elijah G. Galt, of Albert, to Miss Elizabeth Badgley, of Fogs, Newfoundland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. B. Thomas assisted by the Rev. Mr. McGregory.

The bride looked charming in a brown cashmere and plush dress. Little Miss Eva, sister to the groom, made a delightful bridesmaid. A beautiful request was partaken of, after which dancing was indulged in till a late hour. The happy couple left on Tuesday for an extended wedding trip. We give a few of the many presents received by the bride.

Mrs. J. S. Fullerton, mother of the groom, presented with a handsome bedroom suit and bed; maple wood table, Miss J. Fullerton; cold water set, Mrs. James Fullerton; lemonade set, Mr. W. Kenny; parlor lamp, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bald; win; glass and silver cake basket, Mrs. S. C. Murray; hand-painted plaque, Dr. S. C. Murray; reversible shawl, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Truesdell; clock, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barber; plush album, Mr. and Mrs. E. Barber; lemonade set, Mrs. John Fullerton; table linen and towels, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Atkinson; large parlor vases, Mr. J. Prescott; fur cape, a friend; egg dish, Miss Maggie Atkinson; handsome pin cushion, Miss F. Currie; pitcher, Miss McConnell; Eastport.
