Miss Almon's garden party at "Rosebank" on Thursday of last week, was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Graverley assisted her sister, Miss Almon, in doing "the honors." The afternoon was admirable for an out-door fete, and the guests indulged with much zest in tennis and rounders. The ladies looked remarkably pretty and stylish in their smart summer gowns. Among those invited were Major and Mrs. Waldron, Dr. and Mrs. Grier, Mrs. Franklyn, Miss Slayter, Mrs. and Miss Clarkson, Miss Watson, Miss Robinson, Miss Flemming, Mr. Marsh, Mrs. Rolph, Miss Nellie Almon, Mrs. J. Stairs, Miss West, Miss Abbott, Captain and Mrs. Mullins, Miss Ritchie.

On Wednesday, the 9th, the officers of the Leicestershire had their fortnightly tennis at the Wellington. These afternoons at the Barracks are very The tennis courts are excellent, the band splendid. As for the hosts? Well, cela va sans dire. Suffice to say that the lady who gets an invitation to these parties, considers it the red letter

Lady Watson gave another of her pleasant "At homes," at Admiralty house on Friday last. Lady Watson will be much regretted by society when the Bellerophon goes this autumn into commission, and Sir George, his charming wife and daughter, bid adieu to Halifax, where during their three summers' residence, they have made many sincere friends.

The Bellerophon went out to sea for ball practice on Tuesday: she will remain ten days, then return to the dockyard instead of going to Quebec and Montreal as was first intended. The Haligonians are all in high glee over the fact of the blue jackets returning so soon, but I don't know how they feel themselves at the idea of relinquishing their expected visit to upper Canada. I am rather inclined to think naval officers, as a rule, have a hankering regard for La Belle Canadienne.

Rev. Louis Jordan and Mrs. Jordan, who have been spending some time with friends in the city, left on Monday last for Montreal, where they will spend a tew weeks previous to leaving for Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Agustus West, Mr. and Mrs. Findlay Dalziel, Miss Jean West, and Miss Thompson, left on Friday of last week for Kentville, where they intend remaining a few weeks. The band played in the gardens on Saturday last. The programme was excellent; the gardens were thronged. Numbers came over after the sports of the Wanderers were ended, and a good many strolled up from the yacht club to listen to the inspiring strains of the Leicestershire band. An excellent programme has been provided for Satur-day next, among the selections are "Maritana" and two bran new waltzes. Miss Clarkson returned from England last week by the steamer Ottawa. Captain and Mrs. Clarkson moved last week from the Lorne into a house which they have taken on Morris street.

Miss Lottie Kaye, daughter of Mr. Louis R.

Kaye, was married on Wednesday of last week to

Mr. Charles E. Johnson, son of Mr. Thomas Johnson. The ceremony was performed at the Brunswick Methodist church. The bride looked very charming in a handsome gown of white silk. The bridesmaids, Miss Fannie Johnson and Miss Edith Kaye, looked very pretty in costumes of nile green silk and nun's veiling. The groomsman was Mr. Albert Johnston. Mr. Vincent Paton and Mr. Jas. Davison were ushers. The chancel was beautifully decorated with choice flowers, and the officiating clergymen were the Rev. Messrs. Rogers and Bond. After a reception at the residence of the bride's father, the happy young couple left on their honeymoon, which will be spent in the United States.

The grand event of the week was of course the ball at the Wellington barracks on Tuesday last, when the officers of the Leicestershire regiment entertrined their friends in realizations. tertained their friends in gallant style. The ball-room was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, while the grounds on which tents had been erected were brilliantly illuminated. ## DARTMOUTH.

SEPT. 16 .- For the past week the weather has been so unusually fine that even though there has not been much going on in the way of festivities, no one need complain of ennui, for with the beautiful walks and drives all around us there is an unfailing source of pleasure within the reach of all, and September is, I think, of all months the most pleasant for riding, walking or driving. Speaking of riding, how very few engage in this most delightful and healthy exercise—scarcely any gentlemen and only one lady I know of in Dartmouth. Some years ago it was more popular, but then, of course, the amuse-ments for ladies were more limited—no base ball, no hare and hounds, and, indeed, no tennis.

The annual sports at the Wanderer's grounds on Saturday were largely attended and very interesting to witness. The ladies were all quite gaily attired, the band was very good, there was a liberal sprinkling of the military element, so altogether there was little to be desired. A good many from our side of the water were to be seen on the grounds. I observed one lady from here chaperoning several extremely pretty girls, and one youthful gallant whose heart did not seem to be in the sports, but is own keep The picnic given by Mrs. Geo. Oland and her sister, on Wednesday of last week, was one of the most enjoyable of the season. A number from Halifax and Dartmouth, the officers from the Bellerophon, and several American visitors formed the party, all of whom were conveyed to MacNab's Island in the trim yacht owned by Mr. Oland. Everything that could be devised for the comfort and amusement of the guests had been attended to, and dancing in the pavilions prettily decorated with bunting, was entered into with great spirit, the day though bright, being sufficiently cool to make dancing a delight. The scene was a very pretty one, particularly when the moon shone forth, and the light dresses of the ladies, and tennis flannels of the gentlemen, as they flitted from place to place, formed a pretty contrast to the dark surroundings. I was especially struck with the number of pretty girls present, three blondes in particular, one of whom I hear is soon to link her fate with that of a wealthy young Bostonian, another, a widow and non-resident of whom it can be truly said, "she is divinely tall, and most divinely fair." If "Uncle Sam's domains abound with many of this style, the warning to Sam Weller might be applied with much good reason. Mrs. Oland is to be congratulated on the success of her picnic, and many were the flatter-ing comments bestowed upon both host and hostess for the manner in which they looked after their guests, particularly the strangers, and the bountiful and tempting repast provided by them was fully appreciated by all. I was sorry for the young lady whose brother failed to appear at the time expected on account of his boat playing him false. A hairpin, as I have discovered myself, will not pick a lock no matter how handled, and a weary wait of two hours is not much to be desired, even though one has the most agreeable reminiscences to

Miss Nellie Jones is visiting her friend, Miss Daisy Dustan. The Misses FitzRandolph, who have been staying with Mrs. Graham in South Park street, are now the guests of Mrs. C. H. Harvey. Miss Constance Fairbanks gave a very pleasant picnic up the Dartmouth lakes on Saturday to a number of her friends both in Dartmouth and Halifax. The party went up in boats and canoes and spent a very delightful afternoon, after which they repaired to the residence of Mr. Lewis Fairbanks and engaged in that ever popular amusement—dancing. So much did they enjoy themselves that there seemed some danger of the Sabbath being encroached upon, but they sacrificed inclination to principle and confined themselves to strictly canonical hours.

There is a rumor of a dance to be given at an early date by the young men of Dartmouth, (who are they?). If it comes off and I get bidden, I will be able to tell both who the young men are and how they succeeded in making themselves ubiquitous.

Mrs. Walter Creighton gave a very pleasant euchre party on Friday last. This game seems to be quite popular in Dartmouth. I know of one club, small and select, that meets every Saturday evening, but they engage in auction euchre, which I am told is equally as attractive, but I not having played it, have doubts if it can quite come up to progressive euchre, which takes in so many and has prizes to incite one to do their best or worst.

[Progress is for sale in Charlottetown at T. L. Chappelle's bookstore and by S. Gray.] SEPT. 16 .- Since the departure of the Canada, which left so many sorrowing hearts behind her, our city has been very quiet indeed.

Someone issued invitations to a party at the home of one of our well-known society people. It was not a very clever trick nor a new one, but it caused some excitement for the time. The bride was attired in a pink China silk, with bonner to match and the bridesmaid Miss Welsh, wore white. The groom was supported by Mr. Watt.

After the marriage the bridal party repaired to the residence of Mr. McGilvray where the wedding breakfast was partaken of. ## WOLFVILLE.

SEPT. 16.—The social events of the week are principally weddings. It has been simply ages since we had a wedding in our town, but now I am sure we cannot complain, as I have no less than three to chronicle this week.

The wedding of Miss Hattie Bishop, daughter of Mr. Edward Bishop, to Mr. Duncanson, takes place tomorrow morning at ten o'clock, in the baptist church. The church has been prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and flowers by the friends of Miss Bishop. The happy couple leave, I am told, by the "Flying Bluenose" on their wedding

Miss Faye Coldwell, of the junior year at Acadia. who has been spending the summer in Boston, returned home last week.

The Misses Fitch gave a very enjoyable drive to the "Lookout" one day last week. The day was beautifully clear, and the view obtained of the surrounding country was simply perfect.

Mrs. Whitman and family, who have been spending the summer here, returned to Halifax the last of the week.

Miss Leda Barss has gone to Beaver bank to attend Miss Groves private school.

Mr. Jenks, of Parrsboro, is the guest of Mr. Mo Lean, Main street.

Miss Edna Gilmore has returned home after visiting for some weeks in Lunenburg.

Prof. Tufts, of Acadia college, left last week on a short trip to the United States.

A very quiet wedding took place Friday evening at the "manse" the contracting parties being Rev. Mr. Martell and Mrs. McNeil, of Halifax. They will reside at the Village house during the winter. Mrs. Tremain, who has been very ill with an attack of pleurisy, is improving.

Another very pleaeant picnic the last of the week was given by Mrs. Charles Starr. The party started about ten in the morning, driving to Long Island, where a most delightful day was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Keddy have returned to "Chipman Hall" after several weeks' vacation. Miss Bessie Freeman, of Gaspereau, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Benjamin.

The stereopticon entertainment, "Life of Christ," to be given in College hall this evening, by A. N. Struthers, of Toronto, will no doubt be well attended, as I believe the views are very fine.

Miss Hemmeon is in Woltville again for a few Miss Mattie Barnaby of Halifax, who is visiting in Cornwallis, spent Friday with her cousin, Miss Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop are home from Boston to attend the wedding of Mr. Bishop's

I can testify to its good qualities as either a soap or a deodorizer. The toilet "Manoeate" is especially a useful article, being convenient for the physician to carry, and economising time in cleansing the hands before operations, only one soluion being required, where before two were used. I find that it is grateful to the skin and leaves it smooth and soft, which unfortunately is not the case with many soaps.

From its use for a short time, I think it will be a valuable article for washing the scalp, as it appears to allay irritation and remove dandruff. I would cheerfully recommend its use.
