WASH WITH IDEAL SOAP.

Wash everything. It cleans easily and thoroughly. Makes a complete job of anything it touches. It washes one thing as well as another, and does it WELL.

Takes Little Labor and Time.

Your Grocer for it. If he offers you a substitute, tell him you did not come to him for advice but for Ideal Soap. You'll get it if you ask for it that way. There's no substitute; you'll say so after using it.

It would be impossible I think to have more dismal weather than we have had for the last week. Life seems hardly worth living unless we can sit around the fire with perhaps a nice novel; but as soon as we stir out of doors—there is the miserable part of it—cold and wet and cheerless, and this seems the particular time of year for red noses. Did you ever notice how many red-nosed, shivering mortals one meets now a-days?

All the household furniture belonging to Mr. W. . Busby was offered at auction at his residence, Mt. Pleasant, on Thursday last. It was attended by crowds of people who were eager to purchase something from such a collection of modern and elegant furniture and bric-a-brac, and everything brought satisfactory prices. Mr. Cutler, who has purchased the house, will shortly occupy it. Mr. and Mrs. Busby, I hear, intend making Boston TERPSICHORE.

The cold and the heavy rains of late makes me feel inclined to liken our climate to that of Kansas, which a friend of mine who had spent several years there, described as being "eight months winter, and four months very late fall." However we have one Indian summer, always most delightful, and this year doubly welcome, to look forward to. Dr. and Mrs. Parker of Halifax, accompanied by their daughter, spent Tuesday in St. John. They were on their way home from Fredericton, where they have been visiting friends.

Mr. A. O. Macre, B. A., son of the Rev. Dr.

Macrae of this city, is now on the teaching staff of the Pictou academy as professor of commercial branches and mathematics. I am giad to hear that Mrs. E. T. Sturdee's son has recovered from the measles, and that Mrs. C. A. MacDonald's children, who have also had that disease, are getting better. Mrs. Beddome and her two daughters, who have been spending some time with Mrs. Ring, returned

The gentlemen who were present on Saturday evening at the farewell supper given to Mr. William Greig, late manager of the business of James Robertson & Co., speak of it as a very pleasant entertainment. About 80 guests were present, including the Rev. Geo. M. Young, Messrs, John MacMillan, C. A. Everett, Geo. Robertson. James Straton, H. J. Thorne, C. N. Skinner, Dr. Walker, and many others. Mr. Greig left on Monday morning for Vancouver where he intends in future to reside.

The friends of Mrs. F. M. Cotton congratulate her on the birth of a daughter, at Halifax. I met the boys of the Davenport school lately, walking with one of their masters, and was much pleased with their deportment and appearance. They are a fine looking set of lads, and wear uniform suits of thick dark cloth, and caps with the badge of the school worked on the front with gold.

Mrs. Charles F. Kinnear entertained the members of the Reading society last week. They spent a very pleasant evening, but as is usual in our St. John gatherings, the number of ladies greatly pre-ponderated.

Mr. DeB. Carritte, who recently bought the Thurgar property, has been making extensive alterations and improvements in the old house, which I think we all look upon as one of the landmarks of St. John. These alterations will make it a most delightful residence, especially as it has the unusual advantage of a large garden attached, which has always been well cared for.

Mr. Sessions arrived here in time to accompany Mrs. James Marray and her son in their sad journey Mrs. James Mnrray and her son in their sad journey

The calico ball is about the only sensation this week. It and its costumes seem to be the chief topic of conversation. It is to be hoped that our clerk of the weather who during the last ten days has given us such admirable samples of his capabilities, will arrange for next Wednesday evening, having due regard to the costumes of the "Mother Greese," etc., who contemplate participating in the estive scene.

Dr. Esson, of the General Public hospital, is visiting New York. He will probably remain two weeks. Dr. McAlpine will fill his place during his Miss Bertha Chesley, of the Nurses Training school is spending her two weeks vacation in The Longfellow concert given by the St. John school of music last Tuesday evening was a great success. Miss Warren's cornet, solos and Miss Ogden's violin solo, "Trovatorie" were simply charming, while Miss Alexander's representation of the different emotions was quite a clever and novel feature.

Rev. F. W. Murray, Kirkland, and Rev. Robin. son, Moncton, are in the city attending the meetings of the St. John presbytery.

Miss Elsie Chandler went to Fredericton last Monday to visit her sister Mrs. Racey.
