On Dominion day a goodly number of the employees of Messrs. Manchester, Robertson & Allison availed themselves of the kind invitation of Mr. Manchester, and with their wives and families spent the day at his pretty grounds at the Bay Shore.

A scratch base ball match was played, wholesale vs. retail, resulting in favor of the latter, 18 to 25. An excellent lunch and tea was provided, and the unremitting attention of Mrs. Manchester and her daughter, Mrs. Allison and other ladies and gentlemen contributed greatly to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests. A special train brought the party back to Carleton, and as the train drew out the "boys" gave three rousing cheers for Mr. Manchester and his friends. I am sure I voice the sentiment of all in saying a happier and pleasanter time was never spent, and will long be remembered by all present.

Those who know Mr. Manchester could easily guess the answer to the question contained in the following lines of John Boyle O'Reilly: WHAT IS THE REAL GOOD?

I ask in musing mood: "Order," said the law court; "Knowledge," said the school; "Truth," said the wise man; "Pleasure," said the fool; "Beauty," said the maiden; "Freedom," said the dreamer; "Home," said the sage; "Fame," said the soldier; "Equity," said the seer; "Spake my heart full-sadly; The answer 'twas not here. Then within my bosom Sooty this I heard: 'A heart that holds the secret; 'Kindness,' is the word. F. W. G.
