WASH WITH IDEAL SOAP.

Wash everything. It cleans easily and thoroughly. Makes a complete job of anything it touches. It washes one thing as well as another, and does it WELL.

Takes Little Labor and Time.

ASK Your Grocer for it. If he offers you a substitute, tell him you did not come to him for advice but for Ideal Soap. You'll get it if you ask for it that way. There's no substitute; you'll say so after using it.

Mrs. Otty Crookshank and Mrs. James Beek (Fredericton) were the guests this week of Mrs. R. W. Crookshank, Sydney street.

Mr. Hugh Flemming, son of Mr. Sanford Flemming, Ottawa, spent a day or two in the city this week the guest of Lady Tilley.

Mr. Allison Wishart, who met with a severe accident, from being thrown from his carriage on Sunday last is slowly improving though still confined to his residence at Rothesay.

Miss Bessie Clowes (Oromocto) is visiting friends in the city.

The many friends of Mr. John Wilson, formerly of St. John, now of Halifax, were pleased to see him in the city this week. Mrs. Wilson and her two children who have been spending some weeks up the river return to Halifax with him today.

Miss F. Murray, who has spent this summer with her sister in the Southern States has returned home to spend the winter with Miss Wright, Wright street.

Miss Mary Fitch, whose marriage with Mr. Moore at Newark, New Jersey, I mentioned last week, was left a widow three days after her marriage, Mr. Moore dying of congestion of the lungs and leaving his fortune of $150,000 to her.

Miss Neales, of Gagetown, who has been visiting Mrs. Maclaren, Charlotte street, returned home this week.

Miss Vera Osburn, of St. Andrews, is the guest of Mrs. Herbert Street, King street, east.

Next Christmas day will be the 100th anniversary of the consecration of the first Trinity church, and I hear that the rector, Rev. Canon Brigstocke, is now compiling a book containing a complete history of the three churches, which, since then, have stood on the same site, with engravings of the interior and exterior of the same, together with portraits of all the different priests in charge.

Messrs. Hebdon and Clenston, Montreal, spent this week in the city inspecting the bank of Montreal.

The sad death of Mr. James Murray, ex-American consul, occurred Thursday at his residence. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved family. The remains of Mr. Murray will be taken to New York tonight for interment, accompanied by his son, Mr. D. Orsay Murray, and will be met at Boston by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sessions.

It has often been noticed, especially by strangers visiting our city, the lack of handsome equipages on our streets, but this autumn there seems to be a move in the right direction and every day there are some very pretty little traps seen about town. Conspicuous among them are those owned by Dr. Hetherington, Dr. Murray Maclaren, Mrs. T. W. Bell, Miss Warner, the Misses Troop, and Mrs. F. Harding.

TERPSICHORE.

I am sure that every one will be much pleased to hear that Lady Tilley has been receiving lately many acceptable contributions for the "home for trained nurses" in connection with the general public hospital of St. John. The idea of having this home originated with Lady Tilley and she has devoted herself to it with that untiring energy for which she is so remarkable in all charitable works. The home, which presents a very neat appearance from the City road, is rapidly progressing, and I understand that only a few hundred dollars are required to finish it. It is to be hoped that Lady Tilley will be enabled to complete the entire work before Christmas. A handsome donation recently received is a polished red granite panel, four feet in length and bearing the following inscription: "The Hospital Home for Trained Nurses, built by public subscription, 1891." This generous gift is from Messrs. Milne, Coutts & Co., of the St. George granite works, and will be placed over the front door of the home. Messrs. Emerson & Fisher have kindly given a beautiful cherry mantlepiece with tiles, for the reception hall; Messrs. Barnes & Murray a handsome wool bed-quilt, and Messrs. Blake & Co. a gasalier.

The following sums have also been received in aid of the home: Proceeds from parlor sale at St. Andrews, $220; Mrs. Jack, of Fredericton, $5; collected by Miss Barker, $20; collected by Mrs. Arnold, $36; St. James church, $16, and St. George's church, Carleton, $16.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson, of Rothesay, and the Misses Robertson have arrived home from an extended continental tour. They came to New York from England in the White Star line steamer Teutonic.

Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, of Dorchester, spent last Sunday in St. John.

Mr. F. H. C. Miles, of this city, has gone to Boston and New York to visit the galleries and exhibition of paintings, as well as the technical schools.

The friends of Mrs. Jeremy Taylor, of Montreal, (formerly Miss Minnie Elder of St. John) are congratulating her on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. J. Walker Donald, New England passenger agent of the Chicago and Alton railway, is visiting his friends in this city.

Rev. Mr. Storres, of London, Eng., spent Sunday in St. John, the guest of his relative, Mrs. W. C. Drury, Coburg street.

I hear that Miss Delaney has recently entered the St. John training school for nurses.

Rev. J. deSoyres returned home last Saturday from Boston.

Mr. R. G. Murray has gone to Halifax to pursue his studies at the Dalhousie school.

Mrs. Lawrence has moved into her pretty new house, Hazen street.

Judging from all that I hear, the calico ball will be a great success. Different ladies have undertaken to ask their friends to send refreshments of various kinds, so we may all expect to be called upon. I fancy the toilettes will be even prettier than usual, and will at least all have the merit of being perfectly fresh and new. A friend of mine, who has taken time by the forelock, showed me yesterday her dress already completed. As she is a piquant brunette, the artistic looking yellow sateen which she has selected, will be extremely becoming. All I can tell you about myself, is that I am going to wear a lovely shade of blue, and that I feel sure that I shall have a perfectly splendid time.

Mr. W. H. Thorne has returned home from his European trip. He was a passenger by the steamer Sardinian from Liverpool.

Mr. Charles E. Dodwell, civil engineer, spent Sunday in St. John. He has been appointed government engineer in place of Mr. G. Brown, C. E., who recently resigned his position and returned to Europe.

The friends of Capt. Colby, of the steamer State of Maine will regret to hear that he is laid up at his home in Portland, Me., with rheumatism.

The entertainment given last week in the Sunday school house of St. Paul's (Valley) church, was very successful. The fancy sale commenced in the afternoon, and was supplemented in the evening by music, readings and tableaux, the latter being arranged under the efficient management of Miss Albina Coster. In those illustrating "Curfew must not ring tonight," Miss Bessie Mathews looked particularly well in her pretty white dress, and Mr. Harold Wright made an admirable "Basil Underwood."

Mr. G. R. Pugsley has gone to Ottawa.

Mrs. Henry C. Preston has returned home from St. Martins, where she has been spending the last two months with her friends the Misses Ward, at their beautiful country seat.

The Rev. J. T. Parsons and his wife, intend removing this week from St. John to Marysville.

The many friends of Miss Prince, who now resides on the corner of Union and Dorchester streets, will be sorry to hear that she met with a very painful accident last week, by falling and breaking her arm while engaged in some domestic occupation.

The steamer Winthrop had a very long and stormy passage last week. She was expected here from New York on Wednesday evening, and did not arrive until Friday morning. Among the passengers was Mrs. L. Barron Drury, formerly well known in society circles here. She passed through St. John on her way to Fredericton to visit her relatives there.

Mr. C. A. Stockton is absent in Toronto, and expects to visit New York before returning home.

Mrs. Christian and her daughter Miss Bessie Christian left on Wednesday morning for Boston, where they intend spending the winter.

The Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, who is now acting as minister of railways, arrived here on Wednesday morning.

The much regretted death of Mrs. Alexander Shives, of this city, occurred at Brookline, Mass., last Saturday at midnight. Mrs. Shives had been visiting relations there for the past three weeks and contracted a cold which turned to pneumonia, and finally resulted in her death. The deceased lady leaves a daughter, also a son, Mr. Kilgore Shives, who resides at Campbellton, N. B.

Mr. David P. Chisholm, so long connected with education in St. John, has been appointed one of the masters of the Grammar School, to which a fourth department has recently been added.

Mr. Allison Wishart is confined to his house in consequence of injuries received by being thrown from his carriage while driving near Rothesay.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Clinch have returned home from Boston, and I am glad to hear that Mr. Clinch's health is much improved.

Mr. William Watson has removed to the house that he recently purchased on Paddock street, and which his alterations and improvements have made a very pretty and desirable little residence.

Mr. W. J. Wilson, of the Grammar School, has been appointed to the geological survey staff at Ottawa. Before leaving he was presented by his associate teachers with a handsome Russia leather dressing case, and the principals and a number of the teachers of the other schools made him a present of a beautiful French clock as a token of their good will.

DELTA.

Miss Rogers, the organist of Germain street church, is visiting P. E. I.

Mr. John Harding returned this week from his annual inspection of lighthouses.

Mrs. Henry Smith, of St. Stephen, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Wheeler, Wentworth street.

I had the pleasure of hearing the Y. M. C. A. orchestra this week for the first time and I was delighted with the music rendered. While they are under the leadership of Prof. White it should be remembered they are to a large degree very young men, but I feel assured the time is not far distant when St. John will be justly pround of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatheway and daughter have taken rooms at the "Carville house" for the winter.

Mrs. Gilbert White is visiting her son Mr. Colter White in Newton, Mass.

Mrs. Earnest Fairweather is sight seeing in Boston.

Mr. Charles Harding is north on a gunning excursion for a week.

The society of little girls called the "Busy Workers" held their first meeting for work Saturday at Mrs. Kirkpatrick's, Carleton street. They are looking forward to a sale of useful and fancy articles in aid of Mr. Campbell, the blind man.

The many friends of Messrs. William and Morton Smith, so well known in Manchester, Robertson & Allison's establishment, will regret to learn of the death of their father, Mr. James Smith, and as it is only three months since they were called to part with an estimable mother, much heartfelt sympathy is extended to them in their great bereavement.

Masters Hall and Cornwall are taking in the N. B. scenery on a tricycle.

Mr. Charles Wade, who has been many years in the employ of Mr. C. K. Short, has gone to Philadelphia for medical treatment.

Mrs. Hutchinson and her daughter Lillie have returned from Dorchester, after spending a week amid the festivities in connection with the marriage of Miss Chapman and Mr. McQueen, M. P. P.

Mrs. Elkin and Miss Yerxa have been called to St. Mary's on account of the severe illness of their mother.

Mr. Reynolds the celebrated American Sunday school worker has been in St. John for a few days, the guest of Mr. I. S. Simms, Germain street. Mr. Lucus representing Canadian schools was the guest of Mr. Fotheringham. The above gentlemen with a large number of Sunday school workers left on Wednesday for the Sussex convention.

PURITAN.

Monday seems to have been We(ddi)'n'sday this week, as no less than two anniversaries were celebrated on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barr entertained a number of their friends, it being their "wooden wedding." They received numerous presents, both ornamental and useful. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clark, Miss Young (Canso, N. S.), Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Sheriff Harding, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Payne, Miss Payne, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ketchum, Miss Ketchum, Miss Harding, Miss Leavitt (New York), and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jardine's friends gave them a small surprise party on the same evening, the occasion being their "tin wedding."

Mrs. and Miss Vroom went over to Digby this week to be present at the marriage of Miss Fannie Pickman, formerly of this city, to Mr. Croskill. Miss Vroom is to be bridesmaid.

Mr. C. A. Robertson's friends will be glad to hear that he is recovering from his severe illness.

Dr. Emery returned last Saturday from New York.

On dit, that they are to have Mr. Hickson as lay reader in St. John's (stone) church.
