

LOGAN'S IDEAL SOAP. Full Pound Indispensable in every well regulated family for all Household and Laundry purposes. Made only by WM LOGAN ST. JOHN, N.B.

St. John-South End. Moving, house cleaning and auctions have been the order of the day this week to the exclusion of everything in the way of entertainments, and I have not heard of anything going on in the gay world. Speaking of auctions, perhaps there has never in St. John been such a rare chance of procuring old and valuable furniture as this week, when all the household effects belonging to the late Mrs. J. V. Thurgar were offered for sale. Everyone who knew their value attended the auction, and there was some lively bidding, especially among the ladies over articles such as old china, candlesticks and snuffers, warming pans, silver wine casters, papier mache, ware, etc.

Mr. Beverly Robinson, Fredericton, son-in-law of the late Mrs. Thurgar, and Mr. T. Christian, of Boston, her grandson, spent this week in St. John to attend the sale. On Saturday last the Misses Hanford entertained a number of their young friends at five o'clock tea at their mother's residence, Horsfield street, which was a very pleasant gathering. Miss Maggie Allen, Fredericton, is the guest of Mrs. Chipman Drury, Coburg street. Mr. J. H. Tippett is visiting St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Richey returned to their home at Lindsay on Sunday last. Mrs. James Stratton accompanied them as far as Montreal, where she spent a few days. Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen accompanied Mr. Hazen to Ottawa on Sunday last, where she will remain during the session.

Mr. Fred E. Sayre, who went on his bridal trip to New York, has been laid up at that city with a severe attack of grippe. Mr. and Mrs. James Symonds, spent this week in St. John. Miss Bessie Whitney is visiting friends in Nova Scotia. The death of Mrs. Samuel Girvan which occurred at Washington last week was heard with deep regret by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Girvan, who went south some months ago for the benefit of her health, was journeying home when her death occurred at the residence of Mrs. Lawton, formerly of St. John. Mr. Girvan, who was with her when she passed away, accompanied the remains home on Tuesday last, and the funeral took place from her late residence, Hazen street on Wednesday last and was attended by a large number of citizens. For Mr. Girvan and her three little children sympathy is felt. Mrs. Girvan was 31 years of age.

At the time I am writing another old resident of this city is passing away. Mrs. Wm. Bowyer Smith, widow of the late Collector Smith, has been seriously ill for the last ten days at her residence, Carleton street and being a very old lady, no hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Mr. James Robertson and family leave very shortly for a trip to England and the continent; they will be absent some months. Miss Ladds, a well known lady of St. John, after many years of waiting has come into a large fortune amounting to some $40,000. At the time of the failure of the Commercial bank, some years ago, Miss Ladds had the misfortune to lose all her income which was invested there, and for years has been expecting the settlement of an estate in England which has been in chancery. "All things come to those who wait," and Miss Ladds' case proves the old saying.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday last at the residence of Mr. Thomas Ellis, Princess street, when his youngest daughter, Miss Lulu B. Ellis, was united in marriage with Mr. F. C. Godsoe, of Godsoe Bros. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, p. m., and was performed by the Rev. Dr. Sprague. Only the immediate relatives were present at the marriage, who after the ceremony partook of a wedding supper. The bride, who was unattended, was dressed in a pretty travelling costume. The bride and groom left in the evening train for New York, where they will spend about three weeks. Many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Godsoe gathered at the station to see them off and offer congratulations. The wedding gifts were very numerous, conspicuous among them being: From the groom, a bracelet with diamond setting; Mr. Godsoe, father of the groom, a very handsome walnut bedroom set; Mrs. C. H. Peters, sister of the bride, a silver tea service; Mr. F. A. Godsoe, brother of the groom, a brass and onyx table.

Mr. V. G. R. Vickers will take up his residence at Montreal, having been promoted to the control of the central office of the Dominion Express company in that city. Mr. Vickers has made many friends in St. John, who, though sorry to lose him from society circles, congratulate him on his advancement.

Mr. D. C. Robertson, with his mother, Mrs. Duncanson Robertson, have gone to Boston, where they will permanently reside. A number of costumes asked for by Progress and kindly sent by ladies who attended the Curriers' ball arrived at this office too late to be included in the account and for that reason they did not appear.

Mrs. J. H. Hamilton and children left this week for a two months' visit to Boston and New York. Mr. Walter Wilson, Jr., left on Tuesday morning for a pleasure trip to Boston, New York, Washington and Philadelphia.

Mr. A. G. Boyne gave a very pleasant party to a number of his young friends on Thursday evening last. Progressive whist was enjoyed by those present during the first part of the evening. The first ladies' prize was won by Miss Nellie Ferguson, and the first gentlemen's by Mr. Thos. McAlphine. The booty's were carried off by Miss Nina Jones and Mr. A. S. Jordan. After light refreshments had been served, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Mr. Boyne was ably assisted in entertaining by his cousin, Miss Jennie Kaymes. Among those present were Misses G. King, A. McNichol, A. Racine, L. Hawker, L. Campbell, N. Ferguson, E. Nixon, M. Crocker, Nina Jones, N. Coombes, Mary Rodgers, E. Hoyt, A. Tingey, May Vincent, A. Leachler, B. Hobert, L. Henderson, and Jennie Kaymes; Messrs. Thos. McAlphine, A. E. Jordan, Wm. Brass, Wm. Sinclair, R. L. Smith, T. Kelly, Fred. Spencer, H. Sullivan, J. K. Kelley, and Harry Hall.

The Crinkle, Natty, and Tulon, are the leading Shapes at American Hat Factory, Cor. Sydney and Leinster Sts., City. St. John-West End. Mrs. Percy Lewin, who has been spending some weeks on Lancaster heights, the guest of Senator Lewin, has returned to her home in New York. Mrs. Richard Lewin, who has been visiting New York, has returned home. Mrs. J. T. Smith, of St. Stephen, is the guest this week of her friend, Mrs. G. Shore, Prince street. Miss Edith Peters, who has been visiting Woodstock, the guest of Miss Louise Smith, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery have returned from their wedding tour, and were the guests last week of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, at their home on King street. Dr. James I. Steeves, superintendent of the P. L. asylum, Lancaster Heights is spending a few days in Boston. Mr. Alston Cushing and family, of Moncton, removed to St. John the 1st of May, and are residing at the Cushing homestead, Lancaster Heights. Mr. Peters, of California, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. M. Peters, Union street.

Rev. John A. Clark has returned from Vermont where he has been passing the winter. Mr. Clark with his family will occupy in a few days his former residence on Lancaster Heights. Mrs. Smith, of St. Stephen, spent last week with the Rev. G. B. Knight and family, who spent the winter at the West End, returned to St. Andrews last week. Mrs. Brock, of east side, spent a few days with Mrs. H. J. Olive last week. Mrs. Jos. Spammell, accompanied by her son Harry, left this week for a pleasure trip to the United States. Mrs. and Miss Balcomb have broken up house keeping. I hear they will visit in Nova Scotia and Boston before they leave for California. Miss Kate Robertson left last week for New York, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Dr. Allan. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Minnie Allan. Mrs. Robertson has broken up house keeping and will live in the city with Mrs. W. W. Allan. Mr. W. O. Slipp has purchased Mr. L. Jordan's house on Prince street, and is now occupying it. Mr. Jordan and family have gone to North End. Mrs. Cary moved yesterday into Mrs. Mooney's house. The Messrs. Costers moved into Rev. J. O. Crisp's house, last week, and Mrs. Andre Cushing removed into her own house "The Cedars" this week. Mr. W. A. Reed and family have come to the West End to board for a few months with Mr. and Mrs. James Reed of Union street. Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery (jr.) have returned from their wedding trip, and are at present with Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, King street. Miss Lizzie Robertson spent a few days here last week. Mrs. and the Misses Blair left yesterday, they will reside on Wright street. Mrs. Woods left for Boston last week. Mrs. J. O. Olive, jr. moved yesterday to the city. They will reside on Duke street. Rev. J. A. Ford has decided to keep house this year. He has taken the upper flat of Mr. George Lyons, Duke street. Rev. W. Saunders and family left yesterday for the city, where they will reside for the future. Miss Edith Peters has returned from Woodstock. Mr. Chas. Peters, of California, is at home for a short time. This is his first visit since he left Carleton, some ten or fifteen years ago. His old friends welcome him back. Mrs. Arthur Clark is confined to her home with a severe cold. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Sharpe and baby left this week for Nova Scotia, where they will visit for a few weeks. Miss Clark and Miss McKinley are spending a few days in Rochester this week. Miss Clara and Ella Wood are visiting Miss Della Fowler, "Woodlawn villa," city. WEST END.

St. John-North End. Mrs. F. S. Sharpe and her daughter, Miss Lou Sharpe, who spent the past week with Mrs. Stevenson, Douglas avenue, left on Monday for Clifton, where they will remain for a few weeks. Miss Lizzie Berry, who has been spending the winter with Mrs. H. U. Miller, left for her home in Boston this morning. Mrs. Estey, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ed. Maucham, leaves for home in the States tomorrow. Mr. Wm. B. Humphrey has moved to the South end. Miss Ferris has returned from the West end. Mr. Hugh Stevens leaves for Boston tomorrow morning to attend the funeral of a relative. On the 9th of next month North end is to lose one of its oldest and most respected citizens, in the person of Mrs. G. McDonald, Douglas avenue, who leaves on that date for England, where she will reside with Mrs. Roberts. Miss Annie Rowan, formerly of North end, now of Boston, is to be married there this week. A pleasant dance was held in good templars hall on Friday evening, under the management of Messrs. P. M. Daye, Wm. Brass, Wm. Lee and A. H. Gray. Nothing was left undone by the committee to make everyone have a good time, and they are to be congratulated on the way they succeeded. Mrs. W. Hayford and Mrs. A. S. Jones kindly consented to act as chaperones. Dancing was only interrupted by sudden darkness, caused by the refusal of the electric to shed further light. Those present were: Miss E. Smith, Miss N. Gooding, Miss M. Campbell, Miss M. Shaw, Miss H. Hayford, Miss S. Golding, Miss B. Trites, Miss B. Seeley, Miss B. McFarland, Miss E. Hazlewood, Miss G. McFarland, Misses Sinclair, Miss J. Fowler, Miss H. G. Price, J. McPeake, Wm. McCafferty, Wm. Barbour, C. Tilley, J. Logan, Wm. Daye, F. Ritchie, W. Purdy, A. Stephens, H. Olive, Wm. Sinclair, E. Montgomery, F. Trites, R. Patterson, G. McLaughlin, R. Olive, R. Haley, H. McLaughlin, R. Johnson, M. Olive, G. Barker, LeB. Jones, R. Cowan, F. Lee, F. Fowler, S. Stackhouse, F. Wetmore, L. Sutherland, W. W. McLintock, Wm. MacMaster, F. Whelply, E. Reid, R. Borch. Another such dance is in order, and the young ladies are anxious for it. The summer promises to be a gay season at Westfield, which is rapidly becoming a most fashionable summer resort. There are several new residences building at Woodman's Point, and notably among them are those of Mrs. S. Holly, Mr. N. Robertson, and Mr. Wm. McLaughlin. The members of St. Peter's church held a very fine concert last evening in their hall on Military Road. The hall has been enlarged and greatly improved of late, and is at present one of the finest in this end of the city. FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.] APRIL 29.—The house cleaning mania is filling the hearts and minds of every housekeeper in the Celestial city at the present time, consequently everything else in a social way is at a stand still. There seems to be very few families changing their residences this spring. Mr. Henry Rainford is moving into the house, recently occupied by Mr. C. H. Laggin on the corner of Brunswick and St. John streets. I understand we are to have a swell wedding in the Cathedral in June, when a gentleman from Ontario will take away one of our leading belles to make his home happy.

Miss Addie George had a very enjoyable party last Thursday evening at her pleasant home on Church street. There were about 40 young ladies and gentlemen present. They were: Miss Ida Allen, Miss Bessie Babbitt, Miss Burside, Miss Grace Day, Miss Laurence Bailey, Miss Jane Rainford, Miss Mira Hatt, Miss Annie Tibbets, Miss Amy Blair, Miss Nellie Sterling, Miss Ethel Hatt, Miss Roberts, Miss Lydia Hunter, Miss Marsh, Miss Florrie Randolph, Miss Winnie Godkin, Mr. G. E. Day, Mr. M. Cullough, Messrs. Baxter, Yorston, McLeod, Mowatt, Peppers, Thorne, Campbell, Winslow, Mitchell, Aitken, Fred Hatt, Murray, Archie Randolph. Miss George received her guests in a very pretty white embroidered muslin, silver ornaments. Miss Allen wore a very pretty dress of goblin blue silk. Miss Babbitt, a pretty chaille, with white ribbons. Miss Sterling, a very pretty delaine, with green velvet trimmings. Miss Roberts, white cashmere with blue trimmings, medici collar. Miss Bailey, pink dress with pink ribbons. Miss Burside, cream India muslin with black velvet trimmings. Miss Day, grey silk with garnet velvet trimmings. Miss Hunter, white cashmere with blue trimmings. Miss Hatt, white cashmere with red trimmings. Miss A. Tibbits, white embroidered muslin. Miss Marsh, pink cashmere, with satin trimmings. Miss F. Randolph, buttercup yellow cashmere, with yellow ribbons. Dancing was the amusement of the evening. The "Epworth League" of the Methodist church gave a "yellow tea" on Thursday evening. The ladies were presided over by the Misses Blair, Logan, Stanton, Fowler and Lemont, beside an ar-
