FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the books of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

Oct. 14.—The clerk of the weather proved very unkind to us Thursday of exhibition week. A wretchedly cold easterly rain storm raged nearly all day, the rain falling the streets, putting a stop to all kinds of outdoor amusements, and making it almost impossible even to reach the exhibition grounds, excepting under cover of a coach. Hundreds of people were woefully disappointed, as our city was full of strangers, and the morning train brought in large numbers from St. John, who undoubtedly expected to see the sunshine in our usually bright city. One of the most brilliant features of the festive week—the firemen's parade and fireworks—had to be given up altogether, to the great disappointment of all. But even with this damper put upon it, I understand the exhibition was a great success in every respect, even financially.

We have had several new arrivals during the past two weeks, who have come to make Fredericton their future home. Among these is a young son, who has taken up his residence in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barker, corner Westmorland and Brunswick streets. Also a son of Mr. Edwin Yavours, and a young daughter to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. McMurray.

Last Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Bailey were treated to a small surprise party. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed; one of the amusements was fortune telling, which proved, very amusing as well as interesting.

During the first eight or ten days Fredericton has contained ten very anxious young men, who have been passing the law examination, and before this reaches the eye of the public they will, no doubt have become full fledged attorneys, as tomorrow all their doubts and fears on this point will end. Among these are Messrs. Stewart, Fairweather, Belyea, James Milligan, and Charles Sanford, of St. John, Mr. Macintyre, of Sussex, also Messrs. George Wilson and O. S. Crockett of this city.

Mrs. Logan, of St. John, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Edgecombe, and her sister, Mrs. Goulding was also here last week but has now returned home.

The friends of Judge Steadman are feeling very anxious about him as he still continues very dangerously ill.

The University Students have decided to hold their annual sports on Saturday, the 24th inst., weather permitting. Mrs. Bailey has been invited to present two prizes.

Prof. Stockley and Duff were in St. John, Saturday, making arrangements for the University extension classes, which they propose to have in that city during the coming winter. There will be classes in a variety of subjects, scientific and literary. Four of the professors—Messrs. Bailey, Stockley, Duff and Murray—will take up subjects, and they will add other specialists to their list.

Mr. Loring Bailey spent Sunday with his friends in St. John, returning to his bank duties Monday morning.

Mrs. Wm. Wilson leaves home tomorrow for a visit to Boston.

Miss Winslow of Chatham, is visiting her relatives in this city.

Mrs. Charles G. D. Roberts, of Windsor, is visiting her parents at Linden Hall.

His Worship, Mayor Allen, Messrs. D. L. Babbitt, and J. D. McNeill, of Boston, have gone goose hunting at Miscon.

Mrs. Varasour has returned home from Southampton, where she has been spending some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tompkins of Hillsboro, A. C., spent a few days in this city, including Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hopper spent a few days in Fredericton, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McNally, Brunswick street. They returned to St. Martins today.

Oct. 14.—We are soon to lose another one of our society ladies, and this time it is one of our most fascinating young widows, in the person of Miss E. M. F. Randolph, who will be greatly missed. We hate to lose all our nice people even for a time. She leaves next Friday, I believe, for Hillsboro, where she will spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Reed, widow of the late Sheriff Reed, of Albert county.

And still another one of our teachers is to leave us, who will be sorely mourned by the young folks attending the normal school, Miss Ross, who is about to grace the home of a gentleman at Doaktown. Miss Ross has been one of the most faithful of our city teaching staff for some years, and her loss will be keenly felt. We join her many friends in wishing her bon voyage through life.

Miss Estey, of St. John, is spending a few weeks with Mrs. H. Clark, St. John street.

Mrs. Adams, wife of Rev. Mr. Adams, of Halifax, who has been visiting the city for some weeks, returned home with her children this morning.

Prov. Sec. Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell, and Miss Florrie Mitchell left for their home in St. Stephen Tuesday.

Mrs. John B. Morgan is in the city, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Porter, Brunswick street.

The many friends of Mr. John Ellis were pleased to see his genial face amongst them last week. He returned home Monday.

A quiet wedding took place at Spring Hill Thursday evening, the principals being Rev. B. N. Hughes pastor of the Baptist church and Miss Melissa A. Perry, daughter of Mr. William Perry. The bride was unattended and was becomingly dressed in silk with lace trimming and gold ornaments.

VICTORIA GENERAL HOSPITAL, HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 27th, 1890.

Messrs. MANOLEATE MANF. CO.

Gentlemen—I have used your soap and disinfectant combined, in the laundry and for the floors of the hospital. I can testify to its good qualities as either a soap or a disinfectant. The toilet "Manoleate" is especially a useful article, being convenient for the physician to carry, and economising time in cleansing the hands before operations, only one solution being required, where before two were used.

I find that it is grateful to the skin and leaves it smooth and soft, which unfortunately is not the case with many soaps.

From its use for a short time, I think it will be a valuable article for washing the scalp, as it appears to allay irritation and remove dandruff. I would cheerfully recommend its use.

Yours truly, H. S. JACQUES, M. D.
