ROOKWOOD POTTERY OF CINCINNATI.

Gold Medal, Paris Exposition, 1889.

THE ROOKWOOD POTTERY was established at Cincinnati in 1880 by Mrs Maria Longworth Storer, whose father, Joseph Longworth, was the founder of the Art School and a chief patron of the Art Museum in the same city. The artistic impulse which came from the ceramic display of Japan at the Centennial Exhibition of 1876, and the production still bears the impress of that influence. For a time a school for pottery painting formed part of the scheme, and from the beginning the commercial side of the enterprise has been subordinate to the artistic.

We have just received a choice assortment,

St. John—South End.
Two brilliant weddings have taken place in St. John this week, both of which have been looked forward to by the young people for some time past with much interest. That of Mr. Robert P. Foster and Miss Lila Lawton, eldest daughter of Mr. Fred Lawton was solemnized in St. David's church on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Bruce; the choir under the leadership of Mr. George Ewing rendering appropriate music. The bride, followed by her four bridesmaids, Miss C. Wickwire, cousin of the bride, Miss Carrie Seely, and her two sisters, Misses Annie and Edna Lawton entered the church with her father; the procession up the aisle being headed by three ushers, Messrs. A. L. Foster, A. J. Baxter, and R. C. Cruikshank.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a gown of rich white bengaline, carrying a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor, Miss Wickwire, wore a dress made of white china silk, while the others were attired in yellow cashmere; with bouquets of yellow flowers. The groom was supported by Mr. J. Mortimore Robertson.
After the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large congregation, the party proceeded to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawton, King street, where a wedding supper was partaken of. After the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Foster by the 9:20 train, dancing was kept up until a late hour. The bride looked particularly well in her travelling dress of garnet and white, which she had to match. After a trip to New York, Niagara, etc., Mr. and Mrs. Foster will reside at Sackville, where Mr. Foster holds a situation in the bank. The groom presented his bride with a diamond ring, and the bridesmaids with gold rings set with pearls.
Centenary church was also the scene of a brilliant wedding on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Maggie McLean, of this city, to Mr. J. Tennant Steeb, of Port Townsend, Washington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Sprague, and the choir sang with their usual precision. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white jeffre francisco en treize, with trimmings of crepe de chene and orange blossoms, and a bouquet of white roses tied with white ribbons. The bridesmaids, Miss Carrie Holly, Miss Steeb, sister of the groom, and Miss Hazel McKel, niece of the bride, were prettily attired in dresses of yellow silk made with elbow sleeves and round cut necks, trimmed with chiffon, and a matching ring bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom's brother, Mr. G. V. Steeb, of New York, acted as best man; while the ushers were Messrs. J. Thomas, W. E. Jordan, H. DeForest, and Alex. Holly. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Walter Magee, (St. Andrews) and the ceremony after the ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eaton, Queen street. The bride was the recipient of some very elegant gifts, among them being a diamond ring and a diamond bracelet. A large party gathered at the station to wish the newly wedded couple a pleasant journey through life, and if the marriage indulged in there was a guarantee, they will have a very happy one.

The bride presented her bridesmaids, according to American custom, with gold pins in the form of a wishbone set with opals.
