On Monday evening Mrs. Lawrence Power gave a card party and supper of about twenty-five guests, which was extremely pleasant. As usual in the fashion which prevails this winter, the tables were divided between euchre and poker, the devotees of each game being well looked after. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Dr. and Mrs. W. Tobin, Mr. Smith, Dr. Curry, Mr. S. Fuller, Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. Davys, Hon. W. and Mrs. Fielding, and others.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Stairs, who has remained in Halifax during the absence of her father, Mr. J. F. Stairs, M. P., in Ottawa, gave a small but most fashionably attended tea. As next week will be necessarily a completely blank one as far as entertainments are concerned, there are many small at homes on nearly every afternoon of this current one. Mrs. Uniacke, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. Wallace Graham and Mrs. John Duffus were among the hostesses of Wednesday, Mrs. Wylde and Mrs. Stairs Duffus among those of Monday.

On Tuesday there were two sewing parties comprised of the ladies who are working for the Wanderer's bazaar, one at Mrs. John Wallace's, and one at Mrs. Slayter's, affairs which were strictly fem-inine from three to five o'clock, when tea and young men make a simultaneous appearance. At the north end of the town Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Richey were at home, so that the amount of tea and cake lately consumed by the idle portion of society must have been something appalling.

On Thursday evening Mrs. W. Stairs had an evening party as a farewell to Mrs. Burns, who aithough she has been associated in nearly every charitable enterprise set on foot in the town during her residence here, has yet found time to a tend many social gatherings, at which in future she will be much

The only thing doing on Friday was a walking party. Going by train to Bedford the party walked to Rockingham quite six miles. There they had tea, and the wearier or more faint hearted of them returned to town by train, while the rest walked to Richmond and there while the rest walked to Richmond and there took the train. Miss Roberts was, I understand, the originator of the party, and the chaperones were to walk or drive as they wished. Every spring the fever for walking parties sets in and remains until tennis is practicable. Last year we had paper chases, a form of diversion which is all very well in the country, but not when even the outskirts of a town have to be gone through; very few women are able to look pretty during—or after—such severe exercise.

What, by the way, has become of the Badminton club? This time last year it was in full swing at the drill shed, but there has been no mention as yet of reviving it. Perhaps the wars and rumors of wars regarding invitations last spring had a deterring effect; when guests ask other guests hospitality cannot always stand the strain.

The engagement is announced of Mr. Guy Hart junior partner in James Fraser & Co.) to Miss Lithgow, daughter of the late W. Lithgow, Esq. The wedding will not take place till September, and in the interval Miss Lithgow will probably pay a visit to the United States. Mrs. Lithgow, with her other daughters, is, I understand, going to Jamaica in the next boat for a stay of a month, or until the summer heat drives them away.

The engagement of Mr. Johnson, R. A., to Miss

H. Stairs, is also announced.

Captain Sherer, Leicestershire regiment, who left on Saturday for England on the Neemidian, has gone to join the Egyptian Gendarmerie, a corps more or less highly regarded.

Surgeon-Major Lees-Hall, will, I understand, take the place to be left vacant on the medical staff on the departure of Dr. Grier, in May. Dr. Lees-Hall is unmarried, as rather curiously the great proportion of men just now on this station happen to be, so that there is a great dearth of ladies in high places. However after May, we are to have a hostess at Bellevue, which will probably make it a pleasant house.

Mr. and Mrs. Acworth who came out by the last boat are staying at the Halifax Hotel, but will take a house as soon as possible. Mr. Acworth, by the way, I hear is responsible for the introduction of Taxarara-hoom de-ay in Halifax, as he sang it at a generation heard the Parisian on the way out concert on board the Parisian on the way out.

Mrs. Macintosh and her daughter narrowly escaped a very serious accident on Monday last. They ed a very serious accident on Monday last. They were sitting in their carriage at the door of the Infants' Home on Tower Road, when their horse started and ran down Inglis street and up South Park street, where the wheels of the carriage caught on the train rails and upset. Mrs. Macintosh was cut about the face, Miss Macintosh was lucky enough to escape with few bruises.

The Lenten services this week have been well attended, the Rev. Dyson Hague's mission services have in especial been crowded to the doors; and the Rev. W. B. King's twelve o'clock services at St.

Rev. W. B. King's twelve o'clock services at St. Luke's for women have been signalized by the success which characterizes all his undertakings. I hear that he is going to England on a short holiday, soon after the return of the Bishop of Nova Scotia, but will not be absent more than two months.

Mr. W. Law, M.P.P. for Yarmouth, has been quite ill for the past ten days at the Queen hotel, where he is staying. I am glad to hear that he is now better and on a fair way toward recovery.

Anent the subject of the uncomfortable position in this community of people suspected of the crime of "writing for the papers," Mrs. Crosby—Jenn e June—showed in her speech last week at the Woman's Press club of New York that things there were some what in the same position thirty years ago as they are at present with us. "When I went into any gathering," she said, "I was pointed at as that woman who writes, and people would scarcely speak before me lest I should put it in the paper." There is hope for Halifax and St. John yet therefore!

I hear there is some talk of getting up a three day's Gymkhava to be held here in July. The Newport Polo Club are to be asked down, and two other clubs are to have invitations. It is to be hoped it will come off, as the prospects for polo and racing do not appear remarkably brilliant at present. * * *

A project is on foot among a number of Halifax young men to engage a Pullman car in which to proceed en prince to the coming Chicago exhibition. It will really be a most inexpensive way of going, as to live on board one's own car will be about as cheap a way of staying in the "fair city" as can be imagined; infinitely less costly and far more comfortable than the average boarding house.

Our shops are already full of Easter bonnets, and our Halifax ladies are dividing their mornings pretty evenly between shopping, church-going, and attend-ing the many sales of household furniture now on

So many people are on the eve of matrimony and economically bent on bargains that this year's sales have been phenomenally attended; and there have also been an unusual number of good houses thrown open to the public on the departure or removal of their inmates. Beautiful glass and china have been hought for more nothing and cornect and have been bought for mere nothing, and carpets and curtains proved almost a drug in the market. It is hard on the people selling off, but delightful indeed to the lucky buyers.

The wedding of Miss M. Troop and Mr. W. H. Henry will take place in May, not in June as at first intended. I hear Mr. Henry has taken a very nice house on Victoria road.

Mr. Marshal Black leaves Halitax very shortly, and will go, I understand, via British Columbia to Japan, an ideal journey at this time of the year, with the exception of the Pacific crossing which is always cold and tedious.

Our only public amusement this week with the with Miss Davis. exception of Thursday's Orpheus concert, has been the thrilling performances given, but did not attract the creme of society. The Leicestershire regiment on the contrary had an extremely fashionable audience for their performance of the Stabat Mater on Saturday last. Many of the instrumental numbers were rather loud, but the singing of Mr. Currie, Dr. Slayter and Mrs. Lear was very good and much an preciated.

Dr. Currie will make a flying visit to St. John at

NEW GLASGOW.

[Progress is for sale in New Glasgow by W. H. Torry, A. O. Pritchard and H. H. Henderson] APRIL 6 .- The most delightful dance of the season was given by Mrs. E. Sjostedt at her home on Tuesday evening last. Mrs. Sjostedt was at home from 8 until 1 p. m., so the notes of invitation said, and the magic word "dancing" in the left hand corner, fully prepared the younger set of the creme de la creme of New Glasgow society for the pleasure that was to be for them if they accepted, which nearly all did. The house looked its prettiest, the drawingrooms are especially suited for dancing. They were brilliantly lighted and fragrant with flowers, arranged with the utmost taste. The hostess received her guests in a becoming gown of figured challie, with medici collar, elbow sleeves, she wore long gloves of a pretty shade to match her costume. Little Miss Lottie looked like a fairy, as she flitted here and there, dressed in such a pretty pale blue silk costume with lace and chiffon trimmings, her love y hair confined with ribbon the shade of her sash. Ices were served throughout the evening, and at 12 o'clock a most tempting and recherche supper was served, consisting of all the delicacies of the season. The supper table deserves special mention, being beautifully arranged and decorated with flowers in great profusion. The library was cosily fitted up for cards, but few availed themselves of it, the long programme of dances being gone through with, with the greatest zest and enjoyment by most of the guests, married and single. The occasion was particularly noticeable for the presence of several beauxs and belles of society who are new residents, which added much to the pleasure of the evening. The hostess was ably assisted by her husband in making the evening pass delightfully and void of all formality Among the guests were many that want of space prevents our mentioning. I notice, however a few

The gentlemen present numbered among them The gentlemen present numbered among them most of our nicest society men, and were in the majority, which is an unusual feature in New Glasgow society. Among them were: The Messrs. Ings, Charlottetown; Strong, Dartmouth, N. S.; Robertson, Hopewell; de Sarne, and Cowie, and among the benedicts were: Messrs. Mcgregor, Allison, Ings, McGillvary, and others.

New Glasgow was treated to a concert and vertical of unusual excellence on Thursday evening. recital of unusual excellence on Thursday evening in McNeil's hall, given by Mrs. A. H. McRobert of the ladies' college, Halifax, and assisted by Misses McDougall and Mcdonald of Pictou. The programme was very well rendered and much enjoyed

y the large audience present. Our townspeople are justly proud of their handsome churches, fine residences, and hotels, second to none in towns of its size in the lower provinces, but they need a fine hall or they cannot expect to enjoy outside talet worthy of the culture and intelligence of its people, or of a town of its wealth and enterprise. And among its handsome residences those of Mr. Henry Ritchie, Mr. McGregor, and Mr. McDearmid are deserving of praise.

There are a good many strangers in town just now. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Truro) the habitual ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Matheson and Mrs. Anderson are quite recovered from their recent indisposition.

Mrs. Ritchie entertained a number of her friends at tea last week to meet Mr. and Mrs. H. Berton Allison. The company very much enjoyed the evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Fraser. Several others who were asked were obliged to decline through illness, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Matheson.

Mrs. Inglis Johnston's last reception afternoon was, as usual, most sociable and informal. The hostesses charming manners make these weekly afternoons among the most pleasant episodes of the week. This also is true of Mrs. Thomas Edward Fraser, who is generally assisted by her daughter, one of the most attractive young ladies in New

Dr., Mrs. and Miss Johnston, of Stellarton, were in town on Friday last paying visits.

KENTVILLE.

APRIL 6 .- Mr. and M1s. Barnett are to be in town with Miss Webster for a few days after the 15th, at which time they give up their pretty home, "Spruce Bank," to Mr. Forest and family of Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett leave for England some time this month. Not only their musical friends, among whom they held first rank, will miss them, but all who had the pleasure of knowing them. Mr. Barnett has for years given his services as an organist to St. James's church, which church will scarcely know how to manage without him. Let us hope that the home country will have lost some of its old time attractions, and that we shall have the leasure of welcoming their return to Nova Scotia a the near future.

Auctions of household goods seem to be the order of the day, and some exciting scenes are witnessed. Mr. and Mrs. Swain have left town. Mr. A. Newcombe preached in the baptist church [Progress is for sale at Amherst, by George Douglas and H. A. Hillcoat.] APRIL 6 .- A short time ago through the kindness of Morris Granville, a famous contemporary, our attention was called to a novel device for fastening promirent ears into line. Now if he can inform us of any invention that will stop the flippant wagging of Dame Gossip's malicious tongue, he deserves to be knighted on the spot, for that reckless lady is evidently bent upon holding us up as a point of admiration, and if she is as successful with her fabrications in the future as she has been for the past ten days, our bachelors will have to take out a protective policy upon their spotless reputations or they will become as famous as "Jack the giant-killer." She usually aims at a brilliant target, therefore selected two of our prominent professionals as vic-tims and set the community on the qui vive with the startling announcement that they had boldly chal-lenged each other to mortal combat, finding that delicious morsel so relishable. It was closely followed by the astounding news that a duel had actually taken place between two of our select young business men and that the whole area of town marsh was chosen as the scene of battle. In both cases Western county claims were said to have been the bone of contention. Thinking it my duty to report the heroism of our sons I endeavored to get authenticated facts, but alasthere was nobody among the missing nor yet among the slain.

AMHERST.

Mr. R. Pugsley, one of our interprising merchants, has returned from a trip to Montreal.

I regret to hear that Mr. W. G. Stokes, so favourably known in our musical circle, is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Friday seemed quite the favoured day of the week in society. Two whist parties were among the evenings enjoyments that followed closely upon the service in Christ church, which was largely attended. A popular bachelor host thought it advis-able to cancel his kind invitation for an "At Home" to prevent clashing with the pleasant twilight recepton held by Mrs. C.T. Hillson, at her handsome ho on Havelock street. The event was in honor of Miss Hillson and her friend, Miss Jamieson, of Digby, Hillson and her friend, Miss Jamieson, of Digby, who returned with her from the Ladies' College, Halifax, to enjoy a short vacation. Among those present were the Misses Purdy, the Misses Main, the Misses Tighe, Miss Thomson and Miss Hillson, Moncton; Miss Blackadar, Great Village; the Misses Wilson. Curry, Miles, Cutter, Lowerison, Strickland, Johnson, Gates and Sleep. The gentlemen present were Messrs. A. W. Bateson, A. Purdy, Dr. C. A. McQueen, McKenna, Prof. J. B. Barnaby, C. Martin and McLarren.

The "Willing Workers" of Christ church met at the residence of Mrs. Barry D. Bent on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. H. E. Hilcoat arrived in town yesterday. He omes to fill a position at the electric light station.
On Monday evening Col. Wm. Blair, of the experimental farm, Napan, delivered a very interesting address in the Y. M. C. A. hall. The evening's discourse was very instructive and principally in the interests of agriculturists. Among the small parties last week was a pleasant gathering on Thursday evening at Mrs. A. Mc-Kinnon's, when quite a number of Miss McKinnon's young triends spent a few hours very agreeably.

Miss May Handford, who has been attending school in St. John, came home last week for a few week's vacation. Mr. J. Stacy was in town over Sunday. Mr. C. S. McLeod, who has been enjoying the winter in Bermuda, has returned to Amherst.

A decidedly novel party (at least with us) was given by Miss Florence Hewson on Monday evening that was a source of delight to her young friends. I believe it was called a "peanut party" as that little article figured conspicuously throughout the whole event. The invitations were issued closely tucked within the narrow confines of a shell that was presented to the intended guest folded in a neat wrapper. The chief amusement for the party was searching for peanuts that were hidden in every con ceiveable place about the room, the fortunate finder of the largest number, whom I believe was Miss Pipes, received a very nice prize, and the one

Miss Gliska has been fairly successful in forming her classes in dancing, and gives evidence of being a most proficient teacher, quite a number of children attend in the afternoon, and in the evening she is largely patronised by the older members of society, who judging from observation are making very good progress in the difficult art in so short a time. Mrs. Brown presides at the piano in the evening, and music for the afternoon class is jurnished by and music for the afternoon class is furnished by Miss Munro.

Prof. Barnaby went to Sackville last evening to Mrs. Dickey, of Grove cottage intends leaving about the middle of the month to visit friends in London, G. B.

I am sorry to learn that Capt. and Mrs. Richardson, who have been with us so short a time, have decided to leave Amherst at an early date. They have disposed of their handsome residence on Havelock street to Mr. F. D. Robb, and intend going to England.

The concert by the enterprising young ladies of the baptist church comes of this evening. A large number of tickets has been sold already, and the prospects are they will fully sustain their unique MARSH MALLOW.

TRURO, N. S.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Truro at Mr. G. O. Fulton's, and at D. H. Smith & Co.'s.] APRIL 6 .- Miss McNaughton and her friend Miss McLean, students at the ladies' college, Halitax, who have been spending a few days here among the former's home friends, returned yesterday to Halifax. Miss Maud Archibald of the same place, who has also been home for a few days, went back to her studies yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gourley and Miss Nash were at the capital on Saturday. Messrs. W. H. and H. C. C. Yuill spent Sunday among home friends in Great Village.

A number of the firemen gave a dance last Friday evening. The affair reflected great credit on the committee and those lady friends who lent their assistance. The repast to which the guests sat down, offered delicacies to tempt the most capricious. It was well into the small hours ere the long programme of twenty-two dances was concluded.

Mrs. McNaughton entertained a few of her daughter's friends Saturday evening last. Miss McLean, Miss Archibald, Mrs. E. R. Stuart. A very pleasant evening was spent. Miss McLean who is a very clever elocutionist, favored her hostess and friends with several recitals, and Mr. Cook delighted everyone with a rarely beautiful interpretation of "young Lochinvar."

Miss Hill of Great Village, was in town spending a few days among friends last week.

Mrs. W. G. Smith entertained a few young friends, Mrs. W. G. Smith entertained a few young friends, for her guest, Miss Shatford, last night; they were: Miss Dimock, the Misses Anna and Mollie Sutherland, Miss Jean Crowe, Dr. Coleman, Mr. Will Crowe, Mr. Cook. A few hours were very pleas antly spent, with music and the relation of ghost stories most startling.

Mr. Luther Mulholland left on Monday afternoon, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Dr. E. Law rance, for his home in the west.

Miss Roy, of the Young Ladies' college, Halifax, has been spending a few days with her relative, Mrs. Frieze.

friends in Digby on Saturday.

Miss Louisa and Miss Emma Pittman returned home last week. Their brother Mr. Ernest Pittman I have to record a very sad event in the death of Prof. Porter on Monday, after a short illness. His elder sons arrived from Halifax on Sa'urday and Mr. Louis Porter of Boston, reached here a few hours too late to see his father alive. Though Mr Porter had only been with us a year he made many warm friends, and much sympathy is felt for his bereaved widow and children. His place as organist will be difficult to fill satisfactorily. Berwick is certainly to be congratulated on these late additions to its musical talent. Mr. Beeler was heard to good advantage in his duett with Miss Rice. Master Kenneth Chipman and little Miss Messenger took a prominent part in the exercises. Miss Eaton was the accompanist. "Longfellow Division," L. O. WE have much pleasure in calling the attention of Travellers and Tourist to the fact that the QUEEN has established a reput? on for furnishing the best and cleanest bedrooms, and the best table and attention of any hotel in the maritime provinces, if not in all Canada. The QUEEN contains 130 rooms, and is fitted with all modern improvements, including bath-rooms and w. c's on every floor.

The parlors a tract a great deal of attention, as nothing superior in that line is to be seen in Canada The cuisine has been made a specialty from the first, and amply justifies its reputation. One visit will satisfy any one as to the superiority of this Hotel.

A. B. SHERATON, MANAGER.
