Mr. J. and Mrs. Kane, Douglas avenue, have had an attack of the grip. The Portland Scranade band gave a musical treat in St. Peter's hall on Tuesday evening; the mem-bers were ably assisted by local talent from this end of the city, all acquitting themselves very creditably. The concert was for a fund which is being raised to enable the members to pay for a set of new instruments which are being imported from England at a cost of $1,000. After the concert Rev. Fr. Hayden addressed a few words, saying that under the able leadership of Mr. Jones he expected the band to surpass most of the city bands. rival any of the provincial ones, and make the famous Gilmour band look sharp to its laurels. An unwelcome visitor in the person of the grippe called at the Mount Pleasant convent last week; it appeared to have no regard for the rules that regulate the hours respecting visitors. Amongst those who had a more or less severe attack were the Misses DeBury, Miss Flossie Stockton, Miss Wade, Miss Nealis, Miss Patton, Miss McLearen, Miss Murphy, Miss Shields, and others.

MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. H. Murray, Main street, and on the streets by J E. McCoy.]

JAN. 27 .- In spite of the eccentricities of the weather, which continues to be really marked indeed, the gaiety continues with unabated vigor. Indeed there is so much going on that unless one were gifted with the ability to be in two or three places at once, it would be almost impossible to keep track of them all, and quite impossible to de-

In addition to the more strictly social functions, there are meetings and anniversaries galore, so that no one need spend a dull evening unless they wish to do so, because there are amusements to suit all tastes, and the serious-minded can enjoy themselves in their own way as well as the "butterflies of fashion;" that is the proper term, is it not? For the gentler sex there are not only numerous parties, but there is Prof. Spencer's dancing class, and the W. C. T. U., the two extremes, I suppose. And for those of our Jeunnesse d'oree whose souls fail to be satisfied with the charte joys of the city club, there is not only the Y. M. C. A. but the mock parliament which took a new lease of life last week and has started bravely out on dominion lines with a large membership. There is also the debating club in connection with the Y. M. C. A. and the jumor dramatic club intends present ing a play next week. So we are well provided with

Last week, as 1 think I hinted, Mrs. T. V. Cooke gave two large and successful parties; Mr. and Mrs. Cooke are noted as being amongst the most hospitable people in town and their parties are not only invariably delightful but so frequent as to rejoice the hearts of both young and old. Last Wednesday Mrs. Cooke gave a whist party for her married friends, but I believe somehow or other one or two people who have not yet a umed the silken bonds happened to be present and greatly enjoyed themselves. There were ten tables, so the spacious drawing rooms were pretty well filled though not at crowded, and a very delightful evening was spent. On Thursday this hospitable mansion was again a scene of festivity, and this time the object thereof was dancing instead of the more sober whist. It was in every respect a most delightful party, and unanimously voted the dance of the season. The music—cornet, violin and piano—was all that could be desired, and the rooms were charmingly decorated, the floors perfect for dancing. As for the all-important question, "Who was the belle?" I heard the names of no less than three ladies mentioned in connection with that coveted honor. They were Miss Addie McKean, Miss Harris and Miss Jean Thom-on. I will not presume to give my opinion as which was most deserving of the title, but I know they all looked lovely, and all won a large share of attention. The party was late in breaking up, indeed it was after three o'clock before the first move was made, but I fancy the guests were pardonably re luctant to bring so pleasant and evening to an end. Another very pleasan party was the drive whist party given last evening by Mrs. Samuel McKean at "Rave wood." It was a happy combination of married and single, and a delightful evening was spent, winding up with a little dance after supper. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Daniel have arrived in town, but I am sorry that I cannot give a better ac nt of Mr. Daniel's health; he is still a great in valid, and though improving daily is still confined to the house, and it will probably be some time yet before he will be able to assume the reins of government, once more, in the Bank of Nova Scotia. Doubtless the young ladies of Moucton will be glad to have so attractive a bachelor as Mr. Hunt, who has been taking Mr. Daniel's place, a little longer in town even while they regret the cause

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Wetmore are glad to see him out again after his recent severe attack

A very pleasant reception was given on Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. building by Mr. D. I. Welch, president of the association, to the members and their lady friends. A very attractive programme of music and readings was rendered, and during the evening Mr. Welch presented Miss Marr, president of the Ladies' auxiliary, with a very handsome on behalf of the members of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Murray Bliss, of Winnipeg, and his little daughter, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. Bliss, Botsford, departed last evening for their home. HILLSBORO.

JAN. 27 .- Rev. W. O. Raymond, of St. John delivered the first lecture of the W. C. T. U. course, subject-"Social Purity," in the baptist church here, and was well received, and last evening the first concert of the two which are to be given in this course was held in the church and enjoyed by a large audience.

The gems of the evening were undoubtedly the reading by Miss Gross, which was finely rendered, howing a thorough understanding of the art locution; and the duett by Miss Gilderd and Mr C. T. Streves. Many of the choruses were also well rendered. The temperance exercise by a number of young ladies was also very interesting as well as pretty. One young lady costumed in pure white represented the coddess of temperance, while the others represented the different nations of the world, each costumed to suit her country, and each eager to grasp the white ribbon extended by the by the goddess, and help put down King Alchohol, after relating the curse he had been to her country. After the musical programme was finished, refreshments were served in the vestry below, where a pleasant social time was enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Hoyt, from up the St. John river, visited Hillsboro on Sunday and held morning service in Mr. Tompkin's house, after which he drove down to Hopewell Hill, where he held afternoon service in the pretty little English Church at that place. King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.
