FEB. 10.—Mr. G. B. Manzer entertained a number of his friends with a dancing party in Coles' hall on Tuesday evening. It was unfortunate that Mrs. Norman Winslow had also issued invitations for the same evening. However, they were both well attended. The floor in the hall was perfect for dancing, and the music was excellent, so what else could be wished for. Mr. Manzer spared no trouble in having everything to make a very enjoyable evening. SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's bookstore.]

FEB. 9.—The merry sleigh bells are yet heard in our streets, and sleighing parties of all kinds are the order of the day. What a splendid opportunity there is for our unwedded beauxs and fair belles these delightful moonlight nights, to take the step that will make them happy or miserable for life. Surely the latter could not have so fitting an opportunity as the present to exercise their leap-year privileges and "make hay while the sun shines."

The grand supper at the Brunswick house will doubtless be fully attended because of the splendid roads. The same conditions made a full attendance at the band concert at the rink, a matter of congratulation to the promoters of the occasion—the 8th Princess Louise band being the great attraction.

Speaking of music reminds us that Mrs. Harrison has been but little heard in public this season. Why is it? The musical portion of our society never tire of hearing her lovely voice, and the lady herself is always most good natured and obliging in helping along every good cause. She is I hear "booked" to sing at concerts in Truro and Windsor this month.

Speaking of Windsor reminds us of the death of Mr. Goodridge Roberts, son of Canon Roberts, once rector of Sackville. All classes of our people deeply sympathize with him and his estimable wife, because of the shadow that hangs at present over their happy family circle.

"Verily death has a shining mark;" this is true also in the deep trouble that has come over a beloved and popular lady, well known in Sackville society, whose only child, an only and promising son, lies dangerously ill at his college at Memramcook; and she a widow.

We jump from grave to gay and to lively, when speaking of Mrs. H. A. Powell's unique and very pleasant "high tea," given lately at her residence. Mrs. Powell is a great favorite and most hospitable, were her house equal to her desire and capacity for entertaining, she would always be doing so. On this occasion she surpassed herself—all who were present agree that it was delightfully informal, being served at small tables, and comprised all the delicacies of the season. An example of serving that our young matrons who do not possess mansions, will do well to profit by. Among the guests were: Miss DeWolf, of Shelburne, N. S., and Rev. Cecil Wiggins, rector of Sackville; a fact which speaks well for the broadness of the hostesses "views."

Our invalids are nearly convalescing. Senator Botsford, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison and family, Miss Norris and Mrs. Allison, of Bookside, also Mr. McDougall, are all nearly over their illness, to the delight of their friends.

Many Sackvillians will pleasantly remember Mrs. Prescott, sister-in-law of Prof. Crang, late of Mt. Allison. They will regret to hear of her death at her home in Hackensack, New Jersey, of consumption. She leaves a husband and two young sons. Mrs. Crang left Virginia to receive her farewell, but arrived too late to see her alive. She and Prof. Cranz are in Danville, Virginia. The professor is laid up with a sprained knee. The accident happened as he was stepping from the train after a few days' shooting. He has been laid up already five weeks, and obliged to use crutches. His many friends will be glad to hear that, with this exception, he is prospering, and he and his wife are in good health.

Miss Vroom, of Mt. Allison, has many friends who are sorry to lose her.

The warmly attached friends of Mrs. E. A. Harrison, of Boston, will be glad to know that she is slowly recovering from her severe illness, the tedium of which has been much helped by the kind letters of sympathy from her Halifax and Sackville friends.

Miss Minnie Cogswell is in Moncton, the guest of Mrs. Binney.

Mrs. Robinson, St. John, is staying at her daughter's, Mrs. J. F. Allison's.

Miss Young, St. John, is the guest of Mrs. Botsford, at Acacia grove.

Mr. James Ayer was in St. John lately. We understand he is contemplating an extended trip to Canada (Upper) next month, and rumor says he will be accompanied by one of Sackville's belles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Berton Allison, I hear, are delightfully situated in their new home. Who does not miss the sight of the latter gentleman's varied and stylish turnouts, in these days of fine sleighing? He and his wife were always to be seen on the drive several times a day, now in double sleigh and pair, again a la tandem, or single sleigh, which by the way, was as original and unique an affair as any I ever saw. Mr. Allison is an accomplished whip and handled the reins with the skill of long years of experience. SNOWDROP.

SUSSEX.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Boal and S. H. White & Co.]

FEB. 10.—Probably it is owing to the ever deepening snow that we have had such a rush of gaieties lately. Driving, coasting and snow-shoeing parties now fill in the gaps between the dances and other entertainments.

A pleasant event last week was the driving party to Roachville. About 45 residents of the village drove over during the evening and were entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Roach. This driving party is an annual affair and this is the third time it has occurred. That it is always a success is largely due to the kind hospitality which is generously given by Mr. and Mrs. Roach. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Roach, Miss Bessie Barnes, Miss Nellie Flewelling, Miss Melina Boal, Miss Burnett, (Salisbury), Miss Bray, Miss Anme Dodge, the Misses Price, the Misses Keith, Miss Louise Trites, Miss Pye, Messrs. Perry, Hanson, Slip, Barnes, W. Keith, Leon Keith, Sufferon, Mills, McLeod, Burnett and others.

The dance in the oddfellow's hall on Thursday evening was not quite so well attended as usual, but was very pleasant notwithstanding. The strangers present were Miss Langham and Messrs. Sinclair, of St. John, Mr. Magee and Mr. C. Keith, of Petitcodiac.

On Monday the gaeities opened with full blast, and there were three or four different entertainments. One was a snowshoeing party organized by Mr. D. H. Fairweather, but, owing to the storm that evening it was changed to an impromptu dance, and the guests were delightfully entertained at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. R. Keltie.

On the same evening Mrs. H. Montgomery Campbell gave a whist party in honor of her brother inlaw, Capt. Herbert Campbell. Among the invited guests were, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Arnold and Miss May Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kinnear and Mr. C. B. Kinnear, Mr. and Mrs. r. W. Arnold. Capt. Campbell is spending the last of his holidays at "Fox Hill," but his leave expires soon, and he will start on Thursday for England.

Another event that evening, and one to which the married people especially have been looking forward, was the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dobson. It was a large and brilliant affair, with a number of guests from St. John, Moncton and Hammond, as well as Sussex. Mr. and Mrs. Dobson were the recipients of numerous beautiful and useful presents, the handsomest one being a lovely silver tea service presented by a number of their friends. The evening was made very enjoyable by the excellent programme arranged by Mrs. R. D. Boal and Mrs. A. McLean. Among the presents were two butter coolers, a calendar clock, fish slice, biscuit box, sugar spoon, knives, etc.

A small driving party was also on the list of amusements for Monday, but was postponed on account of the disagreeable weather.

Last evening, a few of the young people, chaperoned by Mrs. F. W. Arnold, enjoyed a drive, after which they returned to "Maple Grove" and were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Morrison at a dance and supper.

Hon. A. G. Blair, of Fredericton, Mr. Gilbert Pugsley, and Mr. Tweedie, were in town last evening to attend the lecture. They were entertained at "The Knoll" by Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Arnold.

A snow shoeing party is arranged for tonight and it is hoped the snow is deep enough for the young man who "wanted it six feet deep when he went snow shoeing."

Mrs. Brewster is visiting Mrs. E. Fairweather.

The sad news of the death of Master Stanley Tupper, of Halifax, was received with deep regret by the many friends he made here during his visit to Mrs. J. S. Trites. He was pursuing his studies at St. Joseph's college, Memramcook, when he fell a victim to la grippe which combined with pneumonia caused his death. Mr. J. S. Trites went to Memramcook to attend the funeral which took place on Sunday. Mrs. Trites, who is just recovering from a severe attack of la grippe, was unable to attend.

Rev. A. W. Smithers, of Waterford, who has been absent on a sad visit to Halifax, returned home on Saturday. He has the sincere sympathy of the community in the loss he has sustained by the death of his father, the late Mr. G. T. Smithers of Halifax.

The blow is still harder coming, as it does, so soon after his own serious illness. Though far from being strong, he resumed his duties in the parish on Sunday.

Miss Sadie Deboo has been missed at several of the late festivities, and her absence is due to an attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Robert Morrison, sr., is another of the victims of this disease. On Monday her sons, Messrs. George and Fred Morrison, of Moncton, paid her a visit.

Mr. Will Sinclair, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. D. M Fairweather.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

FEB. 9.—Social circles are at a lull in our town at present and this I suppose can only be accounted for by the appearance of the prevailing epidemic, la grippe, which has just struck us, like the wind in a frolic, and is sweeping everything before it. Among its victims are Miss Devereaux and Mr. John Cameron who are laid up with a severe attack of it.

Last Friday was a gala day here, it being the day that the Campbellton curlers met their Bathurst brothers of the roaring game for the third and last match for the Stewart cup, which was triumphantly carried off by the visitors. The ice was in excellent condition, which made the game very exciting; the spacious anterooms, with their large front windows, which afford a splendid view of the entire rink, were crowded with spectators, as was also the large promenades which surround the building, the ladies being vastly in the majority. The visiting curlers, who are good-looking crowd of fellows, made a good impression on Campbelltonians. They left for home by Saturday morning's express, our boys being out in full force to give them a cordial send-off.

Curling and skating is the only amusement at present. We have two fine rinks, and they are well patronized.
