Miss MacGregor, who has been visiting her ister, Mrs. J. McKeen, has returned to ber home n New Glasgow. Mrs. A. Tupper bade us adicu on Friday. She has gone on a visit to her home in Yarmouth, where she expects to remain until early spting. Mrs. Sleep, whose serious illness has caused her many friends so much anxiety, is reported quite out of danger. Mrs. Max Sterne is seriously ill with la grippe.

I am delighted to learn that our band is going give another of their excellent concerts this month. Many of our celebrities will take part. A solo by their new teacher, Mr. Rosendale, will be among the many attractions. Mr. A. D. Taylor thought having la grippe was hardly satisfactory, so for an "encore" he cut his hand very badly The Misses Main gave a small but very pleasant party on Friday evening. The young folks are always pleased to gather at the home of these genial young ladies. The first of a series of dime readings was given in Christ church Suuday-school room Wednesday evening. The attendance on was not as large as the programme de-served. It consisted of vocal solos by Miss Miles, Miss Gates, Miss Pride, Mr. Barnaby, Mr. Curry and Mr. Dickey. The latter was encored and pleasantly responded. There was a piano solo by Miss Chapman and readings by Mrs. Munro, which were all well rendered. Mr. A. W. Bateson left on Thursday for Mon-

Dr. Hall has also deserted us for a time on a cruise further north. Many anxious ones await his Invitations are out for a five o'clock tea at Mrs.

A. D. Taylor's this evening which I feel safe in saying will be thoroughly enjoyed. On Monday Mrs. Silas Purdy returned from Sackville, where she has been spending the past few weeks. Mrs. F. Hanford is visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. R. Pugsley has thoroughly recoved from la grippe. We all hope to see this little daughter, Mabel on the road again soon, with her pretty

"turn out." There is a wedding this evening, and a whist party that is just too late for this week's letter. The funeral of Stanley Tupper was held at the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. Nathan Tupper, on Sunday, and was largely attended by sympath-
