MARCH 14.-A most interesting social event took place at the residence of Hon. A. G. Blair, last Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock, when Miss Nellie Blair, his eldest daughter, was married to Mr. Robert F. Randolph, second son of Hon. A. F. Randolph. The knot was tied by the Rev. R.W. Weddall of the methodist church. The bride was attired in a dress of rich white faille and embroidered chiffon with a bouquet of white roses, and was attended by her sister, Miss Marian Blair, who was attended by her sister, Miss Marian Blair, who was dressed in a a very pretty white embroidered India musiin and also carried a bouquet. The room was very tastefully decorat-d. One corner was banked with foilage plants and flowers, over which was suspended a yoke of roses and under this the bridal party stood. The groom was supported by Mr. A. G. Blair, jr. Those present were: Hon. A. F. and Mrs. Randolph, the Misses Randolph, Miss Isabel Babbitt, Mrs. George and the Misses Thompson Mr. Wm. Wilson, M. P. pleasant afternoon tea was given by the Misses and Mrs. Currie, will return to her home in Malden-Mass., on Friday. The parlor concert given this evening at the resi-dence of Dr. Currie was one of the most enjoyable of the series that has been given. The music by Hanlon's orchestra was superb. The character song, by little Miss May Boyce, was very amusing. The readings, by Mrs. G. F. Estey, of Malden, and Miss Brown of Hampton, were also much admired; but the star of the evening was Mrs. Havelock Coy in her solo, "At the Ferry." Mrs. Currie also gave one of her sweet songs. After the entertainment one of her sweet songs. After the entertainm ices and jellies were served. CRICKET.

SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville at C. H. Moore's

MARCH 16-On Saturday evening last the pretty rooms and wide halls of the Academy echoed to the strains of sweet music, happy laughter and tread of many feet; the occasion being a "conversazione" given by the principal and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harrison. A new departure was inaugurated from the "time-honored reception," our excellent military band being in attendance. Each guest was provided with a programme containing the musical selections for the evening. It is needless to say that every "Jack" soon found his "Jill" and also the "Jills" " of others, so the cards were speedily filled up. As soon as the band struck up promenading began and was continued with short intermission throughout the evening. The whole affair was pro-nounced by all a most brilliant success. The hostess looked her very prettiest in a gown of white surah silk,heavily embroidered,and received her guest- in the reception room. Among the pretiest costumes were those worn by Miss Hattie Black (Sackvile), Miss Jean Bruce (Moncton), Miss Minnie Bluck (Bermuda). These three being decidedly the belies of the evening. Dr. Brecken gave in Beethovan hall, Friday evening, an exceedingly interesting lecture descrip tive of his travels in Great Britain, and on the contment. The lecture was illustrated by stereoptican views.

Congratulations are being showered on Mr. C. Pickard-a new baby-boy. On Monday evening, Prof. and Mrs. Andrews [PROGRESS is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Boal and H. White & Co.1 MARCH 19 .- The party given by Mrs. G.H. White on Wednesday last was a large and brilliant aflair, and the social event of the week. Dancing and cards were the amusements of the evening and they were kept up far into the "wee sma' hours." Most of the dresses of the ladies were exceedingly pretty although the number of black and white costumes was even larger than u-ual. A black lace over pink silk was especially admired. The following list of guests is not quite complete, as there were several more whose names, I am sorry to say, I could not get: Mr. and Mrs. E. DORUHESTER.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Fairweather's store.] MARCH 16 .- The date does seem to fit the surroundings to any extent. One feels as if the seductive maiden we read of ought to show sweet symptoms of her approach, but she has failed to connect so far. Instead, a time worn hag, with powdered hair and wind tossed rags goes through the streets, entering the household of rich and poor alike, distributing lavish gifts of grippe, pneumonia and all manner of wretchedness. Out upon thee, spring poet! Why not cease from singing of glad sunshine, and babbling brooks, which cannot babble because they are frozen? Tell the truth and shame a certain person we wot of, for a change. This is the "close season" for social gaiety, of course, being Lent, and our society people a e gathering up fresh supplies of strength with which to plunge into the vortex of Easter dissipations. Of course we shall have a vortex, "it is our duty, and we will!" Meanwhile the usen talk politics and the prospects of a judgeship for Dorchester, and the women turn their thoughts and fingers to the con cocting of summer raiment.

Mrs. W. Hazen Chapman broke the monotony by giving a very small card party last Thursday even-ing, which was very much enjoyed by the few guests present.

Miss Scovil still tarries and does not seem to mind the quietness. We should like to keep her longer, but she expects to return to St. John some time this week, I believe.

Miss Nellie Falmer came from Sackville to spend unday at her home. We enjoyed a brief visit from the Bishop-

Coadjutor yesterday. A confirmation service was held in Trinity church at three o'clock, whereat five persons, all adults, received the laying on of hands. The bishop gave two delightful addresses, one to the congregation in general, and another more m-formal "talk" to the candidates particularly. The music was better than usual, and, I think, everyone in the church enjoyed the short service very thoroughly. The bishop went to st. John by the evening train. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell at the rectory.

Capt. and Mrs. Milner, of Westcock were here yesterday.

Capt. Lowerison, of Amherst, was also in town for Miss Draper left on Monday for New York to undergo treatment for her eyes. She will stay for a day or two in Bathurst and a few days in St. John. It is expected she will be gone for a couple of months.

Mrs. Chas. Powell who has been for a long time an invalid, and who has spent some months in Boston under medical trea ment, has returned home much improved in health. Her many friends are much rejoiced over her restoration to health. Summer visitors to Dathousie will, it is feared, miss the "Inch Arran" hotel which it is understood, will not reopen this season.

Rev. G. Fisher has been absent a week visiting his home in P. E. I., is expected home this week. Kev. Greenleese, of Charlo, officiated in his place here Sunday last.

Rev. Richd. Simonds, of Moncton, is visiting his son, the Rector of Dalhousie, and will remain until after Easter.

Mrs. Jno. Moffat, of Tide Head, paid a visit to Mrs. Moutgomery last week. Miss Henrietta Dutch, Point La Nim, paid a visit

delightful dancing party at their residence, the music by Bass' orchestra being all that could be MARCH, 16 .- Public interest this week has been desired. The guests were cordialy received by divided between the civic elections, and the arrival | their hostess, who were a very becoming costume of of the new organ for St. George's church! I think silver and garnet silk, and the ladies generally were hand-omely and tastefully attired. Among those it is probable that in point of excitement the former present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Devebber, Mr. and event carried away the palm, but yet the latter Mrs. Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Burpee, Mr. possessed the it estimable advantage of being the and Mrs. Benjamin Shorten, Mr. ano Mrs. W. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Manford Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graham, Miss Nellie McKeon, Misses Mc latest on the scene. Still, I doubt very much whether the election and its surrounding circum-Whirty, Miss Rose Brettany, Miss Adie McWha, Miss Stella Robinson, Misses Keating, Miss Emma Hawthorne, Misses Berryman, Miss Jennie Moore, stances will be forgotten very soon. Indeed, it may truly be described as a picnic in every respect, Miss Vanwart, (Woodstock), Miss Netthe Eastman, Mr. Ed Teed, Mr Tom Murray, Mr. Nelson Han-son, Mr Hill Grimmer, Mr. Will Murray, Mr. Bert Dow, Mr. Will Edwards, Mr. Wilmot Berryman, Mr. Charles Vanstone, Mr. Willie Hawthorne. and though it is a little early for picnic's yet, "Thrice armed is he who gets his blow in first," as some witty person remarked, and we have all enjoyed it the more, from the very fact of its On Thursday last Dr. and Mrs. Brown held a reception and five o'clock tea, in honor of the novelty, and also because just at this season of the year diversions of any sort are at a discount, and we found it decidedly refreshing to be able in the birthday of their little son, Sharon O. Brown, who was a year old on that day. Among this little tentleman's guests were : Mrs. James Murray, and intervals of crying mea cu'pu to peep through our piously clasped hands and take a chastened interest little Miss Marianue Murray, Mrs. Tarbox and her twin boys, Mrs. S. T. Whitney and little Miss in the contest. It is over now though, and we can only hope like Whitney, Mrs. C. Grant and baby Grant, Mrs. Lytort and baby Lyfort, Mrs. F. S. Richardson and Josh Billings, that the best man has won, and-ineidentially-that he may not be in favor of direct taxation. Most people will be glad, I think, that Mr. H. K. McLarren, of Halifax, was in town on Aldermen Givan and Forbes, of Ward 1, were re-elected, that Mr. Snow was elected mayor by acclamation, and that Dr. E. O. Steeves, though he Rev. R. L. Sloggett returned from St. John on acceleration, and that Dr. E. O. Steves, though the is a young man and necessarily without experience in civic matters, has been given an opportunity of distinguishing himself in the municipal affairs of Ward -, with Mr. Jonathan Wier to aid him, and Mr. C. W. Young and Mr. G. W. Ganong have returned from St. John. Mr. Everett Murchie returned on Wednesday from the Commercial college, Montreal. Mr. E. Jack was in town on Monday, the guest of give him the benefit of his more mature counsel. We can take comfort out of the fact that Alderman Hewson bears • • without reproach the grand old name "a gentleman," and that Ward 3 is there fore in safe hands since Mr. Hewson has served "with dignity and acceptance" at the council board Mr. Henry H. 10dd. Miss Alice Waite, who has been visiting friends in Boston, returned on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Thorning, of Montreal, accom-panied by Miss Melick, arrived in town on before. Monday. Mr. C. W. Weldon, of St. John, is in town. LINDA. Passing on to the less important event. The new organ for St. George's church arrived in town on Monday and is even now being put in place. It will be ready for use by Sunday. It is to be tested I believe by Mr. Ford, organist of St. John's Stone church, St. John.

The concert given on Friday evening at the Opera MARCH 15 .- Rev. H. M. Spike went to St. John House by the Amherst band, assisted by Miss Gates and Mr.Barnaby was, I regret to say, not as well patronized as it deserved, but the audience was a very appreciative one, and would no doubt have been Miss Annie Smith is visiting in St. John, the much larger, had it not been that there were two other attractions to engage attention, a whist party guest of her cousin, Miss Ruddock, Douglas and church, which, being at opposite extremes prevented both the religious and the worldly from attending. It is needless to say that the member of the band won golden opinious from all who heard them, since their reputation is well established there are thirty members, and the excellence of their performance is beyond all question. The clarion t solo by Mr. Rosendale, leader, and the flute solo by Mr. Stokes, deserve special mention, and they have certainly never been equalled. Th descriptive fantasia, "From Dawn to Twilight," was a new thing in Moneton, and aroused a great deal of enthusiasm. Miss Gates' rich, sweet soprano voice, and artistic manner of singing, delighted the audience, and reflected the greatest credit upon Mr. Barnaby, whose pupil she is. Her first solo, "L'Ardita," alleu forth a rapturous encore, to which she responded with "Last Night." Her du tt with Mr Barnaby was received with equal favor. Those among the audience who had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Barnaby sing at the open ing of St. ernard's Courch, needed no further in-ducement to embrace the first opportunity of repeating that plea-ure, and they were not disapp duted, for his rendering of the beautiful ballad "Answered," with concert obbeaufinition ballad "Answered," with concert ob-ligato by Mr. A. G. Robb, fulfilled their most san-guine expectations. He also sang "Inelice," from Ermine, and responded to a vigorous encore with "Two Maidens." The accompaniments were most skillarly played by Mr. Monro. I trust that in the man future may have more than comparison of the second near future we may have another opportunity of hearing these talented musicians and I think we can promise them a better house next time.

Mr. Geo. F. Gregory went to St. John on Tuesday. Mr. Robt. Ross spent Sunday in the city, he hav. Mr. Oakes, of Everett, Mass., is in the city, he hav-having come to attend the funeral of the late Miss Mias M. Crangle. Major Loggie has gone to Chatham to attend the fungral of his brother, who latery died in San Francisco. Miss Winnie Perks, of Houlton, Maine, is in the city. Hon. Peter Mitchell arrived in the city to-day and is stopping at the Queen. Mrs. G. F. Estey, who has been the guest of Dr. town.

Mr. A. F. Carriere, ex-M. P. for Gaspe, was in town Monday. Since writing last Miss Campbell, sister of Mrs. Simon McGregor, who has been a great and patient sufferer for a long time, has passed away. General and deep sympathy is telt with her friends. Mrs. Wm. McIntyre, wife of the popular land-lord of the Chaleur hotel, is gradually recovering from h r l ng and severe illness. Miss Ruth Chandler, of Campbellton, visited her sunt, Mrs. W. S. Smith, last week. The many friends of Sheriff Phillips, not only in Restigouche but abroad, will regret to hear that he has been quite ill. He is now, however, improving and we expect soon to see his genial face about
