The marriage of Mrs. Thomas S. Adams and Mr. Charles F. Harrison was solemnized in St. John's church, on Tuesday morning at half past eight o'clock. Notwithstanding the early hour, and that the time fixed for the marriage was not known till the day before, a number of the friends of both bride and groom were gathered at the church to the ceremony, both being decided favorites in St. John society. The bride entered the church leading on the arm of her father, Hon. James I. Fellows, and was unattended. The groom was supported by Mr. C. E. McPherson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. de Soyres. The bride wore a very becoming travelling costume of light brown with bonnet to match, trimmed with green. The only guests present were Hon. James I. and Mrs. Fellows, the Misses Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harrison, Miss Laura and Master Bertie Harrison, Miss Adelaide, Mr. Arthur Adams, Mr. and Mrs. K. McLeod, Misses Liv and Amy Adams, Mr. R. Campbell, Mr. H. Godard, Mr. R. R. Ritchie and Mr. T. Hart, acted as ushers. As the bride, partly wearing the church, No. 3 battery of the N. B. B. G. A. stationed on Carleton street extension fired a salute of fifteen guns. After the ceremony the party drove to the bride's residence, Germain street, where a dejeuner was served after which the bride and groom left for Bangor by the morning express. A number of the friends gathered at the station to offer their congratulations. They were joined at Bangor on Wednesday, by Mr. and Mrs. and the Misses Fellows, and proceeded to New York, where the latter party took passage for England. The bride and groom will be absent about two weeks.

Mrs. James I. Fellows wore a very elegant silver brocade trimmed with silver passementerie and made en traine, an exquisite little grey bonnet and grey gloves.

Mrs. W. F. Harrison, costume of dark pink, trimmed with wide black lace flouncing and pink bonnet.

Miss Fellows wore the most striking gown of all perhaps, namely, a yellow wrap trimmed with gold fringe, box of brown and cream feathers, yellow gloves and hat trimmed with brown velvet and cream lace.

Miss Laura Harrison was very becomingly dressed in ivory cashmere trimmed with gold braid, made with long hanging sleeves, hat to match, with streamers of ivory ribbon reaching to the edge of her gown.

A very handsome dinner was given by the friends of Hon. James I. Fellows, in his honor, at the Union club on Saturday last. The entertainment reflected much credit on the steward, Mr. Tree, both the table appointments, flowers, and decorations were very elegant, the latter consisting of a mound of hot house flowers in the shape of a star, as a centre piece, and bouquets of lily of the valley, and roses before each guest. Mr. J. S. Sharp has returned from California. Jack's hall, Charlotte street, presented a pretty appearance last Monday evening, when the three divisions of the fair recruits of the 62nd Fusiliers assembled for battalion drill, this being the first time that the different squad have been together. By eight o'clock, the three squads had assembled, numbering in all, about 60, and took their places in open column. I think this is the military term, and A and B squads used rifles, C square swords. Major Tucker gave all the orders for the drill, but the general opinion was that the movements were all very steadily done. There was wheeling, and marching in line, and in four's, and lots of movements which could not be described. At the end of the evening, the ladies were formed into three sides of a square, when they were complimented by Major Tucker.

At conclusion of the drill the officers invited the ladies to adjourn to their club room opposite, where tea and coffee together with delicious refreshments were served, the officers present being Major Tucker, Major Sturdee, Dr. Thomas Walker, Capt. Fraser, Lieut. Churchill, and Dr. Murray MacLachlan. The young ladies gave three cheers at the conclusion for their kind hosts, and after a pleasant speech from Major Tucker, complimenting the recruits on the progress they had made, the young ladies and their chaperones returned to their homes. As the entertainment comes off some time next month the ladies are already busy getting their uniforms made, which will be, of the military, scarlet mess jackets and blue vests trimmed with gold, A having blue facings and B white. The gaiters will wear blue jackets and blue facings, and white facings, jaunty caps will be worn by all the squads and also skirts of blue. The officers who are dressing the ladies are most painstaking and seem delighted with their progress, both in marching as well as rifle and sword drill.

There was a large social gathering on Saturday evening at the residence of Rev. J. Shepton, in honor of the 75th birthday of Mrs. Lodge, Mrs. Shepton's mother. Mrs. Lodge bears her years very lightly, and intends soon to visit her sons at Moncton and Fuzwash.

Mr. J. R. Sangster, of Moncton, was in town on Wednesday, on his way home from Florida.

McKay, E. Ritchie, M. Cowan, N. Vanwart and A. and F. Belyea; Messrs. A. Crawford, H. Knapp, J. Myers, E. McKay, W. Donohoe, J. Ronneeman, F. Smith, W. Pooley, M. Adams and T. Carmichael.

Mr. Lindi Fenety of PROGRESS, spent last Sunday in the Celestial city.

Messrs. Herbert and Leonard Tilley visited their friends in St. John on Saturday last.

Miss Sadie Golding is spending a few days with her friend, Miss George Cole, Moncton.

The Rev. A. J. Reid, who has been assisting at St. Luke's church, Toronto, for the last year and a half, has resigned his position and accepted an offer from the Rev. J. H. Westminister to open up church work amongst the population that is rapidly pouring into this region. Several towns which promise to be important centres of commerce in the future are embraced in the mission, the chief of which, Nelson, has already a population of 500. The Banks of Moncton and of the Columbia have both established agencies in Nelson, but no church has yet been built or congregations organized in the district.

Mr. Reid will be in St. John and Toronto to help forward his new work. Bishop Sillitoe's English committee have already collected some £70 towards the building of this mission. — Charter Guardian, Apr. 6.

Mr. Reid will be remembered as curate of St. Paul's (Valley) church for upwards of four years, during which period the Union church of St. Bernabes was added to the parish.

Mrs. Fellows regrets very much that her time in St. John would not permit of her returning the calls of her many kind friends.

One of the marriages solemnized this week was that of Miss Ella Jordan to Mr. Henry Boddie, of Brooklyn, Tuesday evening 5.15. Rev. Howard Sprague performed the ceremony in Centenary church, where a large number of the bride's friends assembled. The bride was dressed in dark grey Bedford cord travelling dress, with hat to match and carried an immense bouquet of white roses tied with white ribbon, and was attended by Miss Annie McLachlan, and her sister, Miss Kitty Jordan, who were both dressed in lawn cloth with hats to match, and carried bouquets of pink roses. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Mr. Wil Jordan. As the bridal party entered the church Miss Hea played a wedding march, and a full choir sang during the ceremony. Though there were no wedding guests a large reception was held at the bride's residence the evening before, and many beautiful gifts were received by her. The groom's present was a beautiful emerald gold brooch set in pearls. To the bridesmaids, gold lace pins set in rubies and pearls. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by train for their future home in Brooklyn.
