Nov. 1 .- After an exciting election our town has assumed its customary quiet, and the best feeling prevails in the different parties. Mr. W. A. Mott, the successful candidate, has been entertained by his friends with an oyster supper at "Charlie" Hill's. Not being an intimate friend of Mr. Mott. I was not favored with an invitation, consequently cannot give a full account of the entertainment. Mr. Murray was not as some people wrongly in-agine because of his defeat, but was owing to the fact of the splendid majority against Mayor Mott in his own town. This was not a private affair, so I am able to give a few details The band deserves great credit for the beautiful music which was rendered that evening. After entertaining our citizens for some time they repaired to McKendrick's hall, where oysters were served. Speeches were made by W. Murray, ex. M. P. P., Mr. A. McKenzie, Drs. Murray and Doherty, and I must not omit the exceptionally good solos by Messrs. T. McDevit, A. J. McDonad, also the "Marseillaise," which was sung with much terver by Mr. A. J. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan gathered at their residence on Wednesday evening to celebrate their wooden wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan were taken completely by surprise. They were the recipients of a large number of useful presents from a rolling pin to a wash tub, and one of the most unique presents was a cord of wood sent in the old fashioned manner drawn by a yoke of oxen. Refreshments were provided by the ladies of oxen. Refreshments were provided by the ladies and a dainty little supper was served bout midnight. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. On Friday evening a concert under the auspices of W. C. T U. was given in Music Hall. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music, readings and speeches. Mrs. Harrison rendered her solo in a splendid manner, and was heartily encored. The quartettes and trios were well received. Mr. Murray's solo, "Sing to Me the Old Scotch Songs," was to my mind one of the gems of the evening. He received a rapturous encore, to which he responded and sang "Annie Laurie" in a touching manner. Miss Jean Landers gave one of her splendid read ings, which was also encored. After the entertainment refreshments were served. The proceeds, which amounted to about fifty dollars, are to be devoted to the Sackville reading room. (FROM A SACKVILLIAN).

The conversazione given by the students of the Academy and commercial department, on Saturday evening, eclipsed all the former pleasant entertainments held at Mount Allison. At 7 o'clock the students were assembled in the reception room. The committee who assisted Mr. and Mrs. Harrison in welcoming the guests and who were admirably adapted to the purpose were: Messrs. Young, Gibson, Fraser, Porter, Baird, and Butler. The Sackville band played eight of its best selections, while the happy couples promenaded in the spacious dining hall, or sat quietly chatting in the reception

At 10 o'clock ice cream, cake and fruit were served in abundance, and all were sorry when the sound of the gong warned them that time had come to disperse. We must not forget to mention the cards of invitation which were very neatly and prettily gotten up.
