MONCTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the bookstore of W. H. Murray, Main street, and on the streets by J. E. McCoy.]

JUNE 29.—We have just sent forth our contingent of boys in scarlet to swell the list of the country's brave defenders, and felt very proud of them as they marched easily through the streets on their way to the station! Somehow the mere sight of a red coat seems to warm one's heart and create a favorable impression towards the wearer of that brilliant garment, the very assumption of which argues that he must be brave, else he would never be willing to face the possible dangers which may accompany it; I admit that the most serious illness which menaces our soldiers at the present time is that of rheumatism which they are very likely to contract from sleeping on the cold ground, but then who knows whether rheumatism may not be almost as lasting an effect as the effects of a moderately severe gunshot wound, and if those who suffer from it are to be benefited by a quiet life as much as another who is laid almost overboard is the risk of being bitten by noxious reptiles, snakes for instance, and gnats and spiders; but no matter what contingencies have been taken into account and fully provided for by the commissary department. The companies which were sent yesterday morning to camp, Sussex were No. 2 and 4 of the 4th battalion; the former commanded by Capt. McDonald and Lieut. Watson, and the latter by Capt. Harrington and Lieut. Givan. They were accompanied by Mr. W. D. Forby, who has been acting as military instructor and who has rendered valuable service to the corps.

Mr. Angus McKay, whose approaching marriage is expected to last week, was married at Pictou, Nova Scotia, last Wednesday evening to Miss Robley, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Robley, of Pictou. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Harley, and on its conclusion the wedding party, which included a large number of guests, repaired to the home of the bride's parents where an elegant and sumptuous dinner was served. The wedding presents were not only numerous but very beautiful and costly. Mr. and Mrs. McKay left noon for a tour through Cape Breton.

If I remember aright I announced last week that I had not heard of any more weddings either present or prospective. But although I knew that they were even then one of our best known and popular boys who had married in his heart all "unbeknownst" to many of his friends, that young man, Ernest Givan who left town on Saturday evening for Riviere du Loup where he was quietly married on Monday morning, to Miss Lindsay, daughter of Mr. David Lindsay, general passenger agent of the Temiscouata railway. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. W. D. Forby in the presence of a small number of guests.

JUNE 29.—The Union Outing Club enjoyed a pleasant sail on Friday to St. George, Deer Island and Eastport in the steamer Argus. About 37 ladies went on this trip, leaving here at seven o'clock in the morning, returning at eight o'clock in the evening. Next Friday afternoon the ladies intend to drive to Lehigh, lunch at Rockaway cottage. This drive had been planned for last week, but was postponed on account of the dull weather and rain.

Rev. Father Doherty and his brother, Mr. James Doherty, left this week for a visit to friends in Ireland, and will be absent during the greater part of the summer.

It was a most select and fashionable audience that gathered in the pretty bright dining hall of the Windsor on Monday evening, to greet Mr. Wade-worth Harris, it being the occasion of a dramatic recital, given by him before his departure to Bar Harbor. For an hour or more Mr. Harris held the attention of his audience, who were most reluctant to go. Immediately after the recital, through the invitation and kindness of Messrs. Pettick and J. E. Ganong, a dance was given, and the evening was most enjoyable.
