

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

[CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE.]

Mr. James G. Taylor, manager of the Halifax Banking Co. in this city, in enjoying a few days of well earned vacation in the country, after which he will take a western trip before settling down to work again. Mr. Alan, of Halifax, inspector of the bank, is filling his chair in the meantime. Mrs. E. N. Jones and Master Jones and Misses LeLachour, who have been sojourning in Sussex for the last two months, have returned home. Miss Monahan of Fairville left Tuesday evening by the steamer Winthrop for New York, where she will be the guest of her brother, Mr. W. Monahan. Miss Carrie Bowden and sister, of South Boston, are visiting Mrs. T. J. Dean, Garden street. Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Carmarthen street, had a wedding Wednesday evening. Music was furnished by Miss Alice M. Earle, Miss Harrison, Mr. Hamilton, Miss Upton, a recitation was given by her brother, Mr. W. Monahan. An enjoyable tea was furnished. The numerous presents were both useful and ornamental. Mrs. W. A. Nugent, of Worcester, Mass., is visiting friends in the city, after having made a pleasant trip through the Annapolis valley. Messrs. J. A. Russell and H. Smith are spending a well earned vacation with friends in Massachusetts. Miss Grace Hamilton, of Dalhousie, is paying a short visit to relatives in the city. Mrs. E. S. Carter and two children return today from a three weeks visit to Windsor, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. C. G. D. Roberts, who will spend some days in this city before visiting her former home in Fredericton.

St. John—North.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tapley and children, together with Mr. and Mrs. James Ennis, spent a few days at the lake this week. Mrs. David Lynch and Miss Lynch have returned after a few weeks at the White Mountains. Miss Bessie Stevenson and Miss Louise Lingley left last Saturday for Fredericton, where they will attend the Normal school during the present session. Miss Mary Kane, Miss Minnie Dias and Miss Alice Cain left last week to attend school at the Memorial convent. The Misses deBerry, Miss Murphy, Miss Bertie Stevens and Miss Cowan are attending the Sacred Heart convent. Master Lou Bruce arrived from New York on his vacation; he expects to return shortly. Mr. and Mrs. George Devitt returned from P. E. Island last week. Miss Helen de Bury and Miss Kathleen Furling returned this week to the Sacred Heart Convent, Mr. Pleasant. Mrs. Ritchie, accompanied by her niece, Miss Nellie Patten, arrived home on Saturday, after a month's visit in Portland, Me. Mr. G. R. Pugsley has been confined to the house the past week, is now convalescent. Mrs. R. Morrison and Miss Nellie Corbett left this week for a short stay at Wolford. Mr. E. J. Armstrong, of St. John, and Messrs G. W. Ganong and Wallace Broad, of St. Stephen, spent part of the week on Magalloway lake, York Co., looking after their mining interests in that section. Mrs. J. M. Smith and little daughter returned home this week, after a pleasant visit at Sussex. Mr. James Case, who has been spending his vacation at his home on Cliff street, returned to Boston on Wednesday. Messrs. Henry Carr, Rob Adams and J. Williams left this week for a fortnight's visit to the Hub. Rev. Father Hayden, who has been confined to the house through illness during last week, is now able to be out. Mrs. J. Wyndham Humphrey is visiting friends in Boston and vicinity. Dr. J. M. Smith arrived home on Friday from a prospecting trip at Magalloway lake. Mr. Will Sander, of Boston, is spending his vacation in the city. Miss Florrie Sullivan returned to St. John after spending her vacation at her home in St. Stephen. Miss Blanche Shiel arrived here on Thursday after a three months visit to friends in Portland, Maine. Mr. Ned Seely left last week on an extended trip to Dublin, Ireland, and other places. The Misses Estabrook returned home last week after a long holiday at Moncton.

MEADOW SWEET.

A number of young people called on Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Kenney, Main street, on Tuesday evening. They were entertained in a most hospitable manner by that lady and gentleman who afforded no end of amusement and good things till long past midnight.

St. John—West End.

SEPT. 8.—Among the September weddings was that of Miss Ella M. Thompson and Mr. Alfred J. Drake, of the Carvell house. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 7th; the Rev. Mr. Hickson officiating. The house was tastefully decorated with beautiful plants and cut flowers. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. The bride was most becomingly attired in a bridal gown of white silk, on train, which was exquisitely trimmed with chiffon and lilies of the valley. The bridal veil was fastened with orange blossom. Her only ornaments were magnificent gold bracelets, the gift of the guests of the Carvell house. She was attended by her cousins, the Misses Birdie and Lillie Colwell, who were dressed in a pale blue silk and white lace. The travelling dress was dark blue, tailor made broadcloth suit and hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a pair of gold bracelets with pearl setting. After the ceremony the guests partook of a repast which Mr. and Mrs. Drake took the 9 train for New York, followed by the best wishes of their many friends. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, including the following: Mr. Enoch Colwell, cheque. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shaw, picture, Moonlight. Mr. A. Drake, antique oak bedroom set. Mr. C. Drake (Boston), silver statuette. Mrs. Littlehale, chair. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilley, antique oak card table. Mr. Will Colwell, bisque statuette. Mr. and Mrs. R. Allan, silver dressing case. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beattie, ice screen. Mrs. I. Chip Olive, elegant fan. Mrs. James Price, silver coffee spoons. Mrs. Isaac Olive, antique oak bedroom set. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sharp, bisquit jar. Mrs. and Miss Clark, gold lined berry spoons. Miss Jane Estey, bisquit jar. Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchison, silver berry spoon. Misses Quinton, silver pie knife. Mr. and Mrs. B. Appleby, bisque statuette. Mrs. V. Drake, (Davenport). Mr. L. Drake, (Topsy). Miss G. Sonborja, dressing salivars. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson (Halifax), silver berry dish. Mr. W. Ferguson, silver soup ladle. Mr. A. N. Shaw, (silver) nut crackers. Misses Shaw, and fruit knives. Mr. H. Colwell (Halifax), silver flower epergne. Mr. F. Colwell, silver vase. Mr. J. Baskin, McAdams, Royal Worcester; Mrs. W. Mager, silver soup tureen; Mr. John Tureen; Mr. W. D. Baskin, silver pepper and salts; Rev. Mr. Kempton, silver castor; Miss Lizzie Colwell, painted scarf; Mrs. Margaret Halliday, silver egg cups and spoons; Miss Nettie Colwell, Halifax, napkin ring; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilnot, silver perfume bottle; Mrs. Jones, hand painted bannet; Miss Lizzie Littlehale, hand painted bannet. Topsy.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Feney and by James H. Hawthorne.] SEPT. 7.—This seems to be a week especially set aside, not for prayers, but for picnics. Today two mammoth picnic parties left the city; one, the presbyterian S. S. going by train up the beautiful valley of the Naswaquois; and the steamer Florenceville looked particularly pretty as she steamed down the river, gaily decorated with bunting and carrying the "Royal Arcanum" picnic party. Quite a large party are at "Camp Comfort" this week, being chaperoned by Mrs. Lee Babbitt. Among the ladies are: Miss Jennie McLaughlin, the Misses Powers, Miss McLaughlin, Miss Frank Babbitt and Miss Ida Allen. The gentlemen composing the party going up each evening after business. On Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. Conithard entertained a number of their lady friends at luncheon. Those present were Mrs. and Miss Hunter, Mrs. and Miss Estey, Mrs. and Miss Weddell, Mrs. Coburn, Miss Gabel (New York), Miss McKay and Mrs. B. Conithard. Three weddings are on the tapis for this month. Two of the brides are our own girls and are going to make their homes in the west and south, respectively; the third is a Woodstock lady and will make her home among us. Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson of Newcastle are in the city visiting friends. Miss Wark left yesterday for a visit to the White Mountains. Mrs. J. R. Costigan of Calgary (see Miss Dowling).

UMBRELLAS AND PARASOLS REPAIRED; Duval, Union street.

of this city), who has been visiting friends here, left on Monday for Nova Scotia, en route to Ottawa, where she will visit friends before returning to her home in Calgary. Miss May Seaton is spending a few days at "Gipsy Hill," the guest of her friend, Miss Cecil Phair. Mr. and Mrs. John Sterling of Boston are visiting Sheriff and Mrs. Sterling. Miss Jennie McLaughlin, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lee Babbitt. Miss Annie Babbitt left on Saturday last for Boston to spend the winter there. Prof. and Mrs. Hunter and family, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Inch, left for their home in Saskatoon on Wednesday. Mr. McKay, of Dartmouth, N. S., is visiting the city for a few days. Miss Edith Gregor is spending a few days at Pine Grove, the guest of Mr. Chas. Murray, Kingsclear. Mr. Sidney Murray has been spending the summer at Pine Grove, the guest of his mother Mr. Chas. Murray.

The Misses Fisher have returned home, Miss and Mrs. Fisher and Miss Mina from a pleasant visit in Yarmouth. Dr. H. S. Bridges, of the university, Mrs. Bridges and children have returned home from their summer's outing at St. John. Mrs. G. Botsford, formerly of this city, but now of Boston is visiting Lady Allen. Rev. C. B. Pibbado, of Santa Rosa, Cal., who has been the guest of his son, Mr. J. Pibbado, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, left today for Halifax. Mrs. R. Ogilvie and Mrs. Ingles left on Monday for a trip to New York and Boston. Prof. W. Ganong, of Harvard university, and Mrs. Ganong nee Miss Carman, are in the city visiting friends. The Misses Beatrice and Jean Feney, who have been visiting their grandparents, left for their home in Cambridge, Mass., on Saturday. Miss Seery spent the day in St. John on Monday last. Rev. Mr. Macdonald, of St. Paul's church, returned home from a four weeks vacation on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fowler celebrated the crystal wedding anniversary of their marriage day on Monday last. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Haines leave for their home in New York tomorrow. Mr. A. G. Blair leaves on Friday to take a course in the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. Miss McKee has returned from a pleasant visit spent in P. E. Island. Miss Bookout, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. Vanhook. Miss Bessie Logan has returned home from Nova Scotia. Mr. Robt. Kedy, of St. John, spent Sunday in the city. Mr. T. Wm. Bell who has recently moved here from St. John has the sympathy of many friends in her sad bereavement in the loss of her young husband. CRICKET.

DRESS GOODS.

For Autumn and Winter wear, the latest and most fashionable in all Fabrics, Shades and Colors.

GLOVES.

The "Louvre" and "Gascon," we invite the Ladies to call and see these beautiful gloves. They have given our customers the greatest satisfaction.

CASHMERE HOSE

For Ladies and Children in a range of prices. We aim to sell the best goods at the lowest prices.

Welsh, Hunter & Hamilton, 97 KING ST., ST. JOHN.

HOW IS THIS FOR PRICE?

Having on hand a large number of BEDROOM SUITES, we make this VERY LOW OFFER in order to reduce our stock. The accompanying cut represents a very neat pattern BEDROOM SUITE (3 pieces), Antique Oak finish, 20x24 Glass. Only $16.00

Freight prepaid to any station in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia, or to any wharf or landing on St. John River. All goods carefully packed free of charge. We also keep on hand a full line of PARLOR and DINING FURNITURE, EASY CHAIRS, FANCY CHAIRS, etc. Cuts and prices cheerfully sent on application.

EVERETT & MILLER, - 13 Waterloo St., St. John. 68 King Street.

HAMPTON.

[Progress is for sale at Hampton station by T. G. Barnes, and Geo. E. Frost, and at Hampton village by Messrs. A. & W. Hill.] SEPT. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Whittaker spent Sunday in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Whittaker. Mr. F. Bartlett Travis and Mr. W. Harry Travis, of Boston, are visiting their parents at the station. A very enjoyable garden party was held on the grounds of Mr. Guilford Flewelling, at the village, on Thursday evening. Music and recitals were the features of the evening. Prof. W. Morley Tweedie and Miss Nettie Tweedie have returned to Mount Allison. Mr. John Humphrey, of the customs, St. John, spent Sunday here with Mr. James M. Humphrey. Miss Lottie and Jennie Peters and Miss Godsoe, of John, have been visiting their friends the Misses Peters. Miss Mabel Barlow spent Sunday in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frost. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Whittaker. The latest arrival is a son. Miss Kittle Travis left on Monday for McGill, Montreal, via Boston, when she will spend a week with her sister before resuming her studies. Mr. Val P. Akerley spent Sunday last among some old friends here. The Misses Peters gave a pleasant party on Friday evening for some lady friends from the city who are visiting them. Among the guests were: Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baker, Miss Olive, Miss Godsoe, Misses C. and J. Peters, Miss Henderson, Mr. O'Neil, Mr. Kattie, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Holstead, Mr. McFarlane, St. John; Mr. W. H. Travis, Mr. F. B. Travis, Boston; Misses Stewart, Miss McAvity, Miss By Fowler, Miss E. Travis, Miss F. H. Barnes, Miss Margaret Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wilson, Miss Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whittaker, Mr. W. Stewart, Mr. Percy Humphrey, Mr. Frank Humphrey, Mr. Steve Palmer, Mr. E. Fowler, Mr. Johnston, Mr. W. Brown. Rev. Wm. Tippett spent a day in town last week. The little girls branch of the Women's Missionary society had a most successful bazaar at the residence and grounds of Mr. William Langstroth, jr., on Monday. The grounds were very beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns in the evening. Miss Minnie Pritchard, of St. John, is spending a few weeks in the city of Mrs. N. M. Barnes, Linden heights. Miss Pritchard has been quite ill during the past year, but is somewhat improved since coming to Hampton. Mr. Amos Fales, of St. John, spent Sunday at Lakeside, the guest of his son, Mr. Frank Fales. Miss Hattie Frost was in town this week and is visiting her mother at Lower Sackville. Dr. Parker, dentist, is at Hotel Leonard for a week or two. Mrs. H. D. McEntee entertained a number of her friends very pleasantly today, Wednesday, at an "at home" from four till six o'clock at her residence "Ashburn." Refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mr. H. J. Fowler and family have returned from their sojourn at Quaco. Mrs. and Mrs. Geo. Fraser, of Vancouver, B. C., are visiting Mrs. Fraser's father, Judge Wedderburn, at the village. Dr. Geo. L. Taylor and Mrs. Taylor are journeying in Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. C. Palmer and family who have been summering here, left for home today. Mrs. Lingley is visiting Mrs. H. C. Frost. Jo.

BATHURST.

[Progress is for sale in Bathurst at McGinley's grocery store.] SEPT. 7.—Mr. M. J. Johnson, of the Woodstock agency of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, spent a few days here last week. This was Mr. Johnson's first visit to Bathurst, and we trust he will repeat it at an early date, and make a much longer stay among us. John Frazer was here yesterday to preside, but dismissed court at noon on account of having no trials. Rev. Father Barry is suffering from a cold, but is recovering. Mr. Philip Rive, of Carquet, visited town yesterday. A large number of the young people were at the L. C. R. station on Saturday morning to bid good bye to Misses Annie and Nell Wilbur and Lizzie Mullins, who have concluded their stay in Bathurst, en route to the charge of their numerous friends. The Misses Wilbur will visit Dorchester before returning to their home in Woodstock. Miss Mullins has gone to resume her duties in the post office at Amherst, N. S. Messrs. T. Swayne DesBrisay and John Sivewright were in Dalhousie last week. Mr. A. J. H. Stewart is home from Campbellton. Hon. Mr. C. Ryan and Mrs. Ryan have gone to Fredericton. Mr. K. F. Burns, M. P., has returned from Berenside. The Misses Burns and Miss Mary White leave this evening for Mount St. Vincent, Halifax. Mr. Macdonald, of Montreal, and Mr. Hatfield, of St. John, were among last week's visitors in town. Miss O'Keefe, of Campbellton, is visiting friends in Bathurst. Mr. Ben Fairry, of St. John, is here today. He is a favorite and his friends are always pleased to see him. Mr. Samuel Adams and family have gone back to their home in New York. Miss Nettie Rainey visited friends in Restigouche last week. Mr. W. J. Draper returned on Friday from a trip to Dalhousie. Mr. Geo. W. Spink is becoming quite an accomplished bicyclist. I have heard ever so many complimentary notes of his graceful riding. TOM BROWN.

NEWCASTLE.

SEPT. 7.—The day season is almost over and nearly all the summer visitors have departed. There are still some here, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Will Russell, Miss Evans of Shediac, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Russell of Vancouver. A landing was made at Barriague where an elaborate dinner was served. The return in the evening was much enjoyed, and all joined in a hearty cheer for the host as they left the boat to Oak Point. Quite a number of ladies went to Chatham Thursday afternoon to attend Mrs. Snowball's "At Home." Miss Sinclair and Miss Lou Harley returned Saturday night from a visit to Fredericton. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davidson and Miss Davidson spent a few days in town this week. The Misses Fleming returned Monday night from Campbellton. Miss McCurdy entertained a few friends Friday evening. Quite a number of young people enjoyed an excursion to Bay du Vin last Saturday. Mr. Jack Russell gave a very large picnic on board the Zestler in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Russell last Monday. An orchestra furnished excellent music, and dancing was kept up with vigor. A landing was made at Barriague where an elaborate dinner was served. The return in the evening was much enjoyed, and all joined in a hearty cheer for the host as they left the boat to Oak Point. Quite a number of ladies went to Chatham Thursday afternoon to attend Mrs. Snowball's "At Home." Miss Sinclair and Miss Lou Harley returned Saturday night from a visit to Fredericton. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davidson and Miss Davidson spent a few days in town this week. The Misses Fleming returned Monday night from Campbellton. Miss McCurdy entertained a few friends Friday evening.

HAMPTON VILLAGE.

SEPT. 8.—Miss Borne of St. John is visiting Mrs. W. C. Crawford. The Misses Morton of Penobscotus and Mrs. Currie of Clinton, Mass., and Mr. J. Scott and Mr. T. H. Morton of Penobscotus spent Sunday with Mr. G. M. Freeze. Mrs. E. Staples, Miss Masters, Mrs. J. D. Mabee and Mrs. H. F. Chute are visiting friends in Boston. Mrs. Geo. Gilbert and Miss Gilbert spent Thursday with friends here. Miss Lovett of Fredericton is visiting Mrs. Geo. Sherrp. Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Freeze, of Boston, are spending a few days with Mrs. George Freeze. Mrs. Williams and children, of St. John, are visiting Mrs. Thos. Carvell. Miss Jessie Chisholm spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. McLaughlin. A.

SUSSEX.

[Progress is for sale in Sussex by R. D. Boal and Geo. D. Martin.] SEPT. 7.—Picnics are quite the most popular amusement at present and nearly every day brings one or more of these enjoyable affairs. The Sons of Temperance gave a successful one on Thursday last at Penobscotus. Today the Sunday school of Trinity church held their annual festival on the grounds of Mr. H. Montgomery-Campbell, at Fox Hill. These grounds are a most delightful place for a picnic and, no doubt, it will be a pleasant event for old and young alike. Miss Abby Smith is spending a few weeks in St. John, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Richard Housch. Miss Lottie Hallett is visiting friends in St. John. On Monday Miss Alice Barnett entertained a number of her young friends at a garden party and tea. Mr. Murray Huestis is spending a week in Fredericton, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Atherton. Mrs. Sharp, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Roach. Mrs. Alex. Robertson and Miss Grace Robertson spent a few days last week in St. John. Miss Alice Robertson returned last week from a lengthy visit to Chatham. Miss Jessie Luskie, of St. John, who has been spending some weeks in town, returned home on Monday.

UMBRELLA FITTINGS NEW; Duval, Union St.

Skinner's Carpet Warerooms.

NEW PATTERNS IN Cork Carpet JUST OPENED.

THE BEST FLOOR COVERING MADE.

The Warmth, Softness, Noiselessness, Elasticity and Durability excels all other floor coverings. A. O. SKINNER.

Fur Goods.

Fur Collars, Fur Capes, Fur-lined Circulars and Dolmans.

The balance of Furs and Fur-lined Circulars remaining over from the Turner & Finlay purchase will be offered at the following reductions:

Table with 3 columns: Fur type, Former Price, Selling Price. Includes items like Fur Capes, Fur Collars, etc.

The Fur-lined Circulars and Dolmans from $40.00 to $150.00 at half original prices.

These goods are free from Moths, and the skins are Coon, Grey Squirrel, Sable, Marten, Mink, Beaver and many other varieties.

68 King Street.

W. C. PITFIELD & CO.

F. G. LANSDOWNE, Manager.

AMUSEMENTS. HARK! WHAT MEANS THAT SHOUT? IT IS THE SHOUT OF Gladness and of Joy Evoked by the Marvelous Performances of Bristol's Educated Horses

Now in the THIRD WEEK of a Phenomenally Successful Season at Halifax. This Remarkable Exhibit will open at Mechanics' Institute, St. John, N. B. for a brief season, commencing Tuesday Evening, Sept. 20. Admission—Lower Floor 35c., Gallery 25c. RUFUS SOMERBY, Manager.

OPERA HOUSE Shakesperian RECITALS BY MR. E. C. ABBOTT, OF BOSTON.

JULIUS CAESAR, Tuesday Evening, Sep. 13th. HAMLET, Thursday Evening, Sept. 15th. AS YOU LIKE IT, Friday Evening, Sept. 16th.

Each subscriber receives Six Tickets with best reserved seats. Subscriptions received at MURPHY'S MUSIC STORE, Union Street. Evening Tickets 50 and 35 cts., Gallery 25 cts., at Murphy's.

Provincial Exhibition MONTREAL EXHIBITION

Under Management of Agricultural Society, District No. 34, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 5th, 6th and 7th. FREDERICTON, N. B. $13.50 each, on Sept. 14th to 16th inclusive. $10.00 each, on Sept. 17th to 21st inclusive.

Cash Prizes in all Departments. Races at Driving Park each Day. CHAS. E. MURRAY, President. A. S. MURRAY, Secretary. Fredericton, August 24, 1892.