ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book stores of G. S. Wall and in Calais at O. P. Trevelyan.]

Aug. 3.—The one prevailing idea, since the excessive warm weather has been with us, is to go down the river to the seashore, consequently the nearest hotel, which is Hotel de Mont, is besieged with guests from all over. I hear that the river boat, the Rose Standish, will take an excursion party to Hotel de Mont on Monday next, leaving here at five o'clock, reaching the hotel in time for supper, returning late in the evening. This sort of an excursion has been a long felt want and is the first of the kind we have had this summer.

On Thursday evening the handsome, stately residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gates, Calais, was resplendent with light and festivity. It was the occasion of a reception and ball, given by Mrs. Gates, in honor of her grand children, Miss Annie Eaton and Messrs. Gates and Everett Barnard, of New York city, who are spending the summer months in Calais. The floral decorations were most lovely, banks of flowers and ferns in every direction and roses were used in profusion. Out doors the garden chairs and seats, which were most inviting to the guests after the heat of the ball room. Fruit punch was served during the evening and towards midnight a light but delicious supper. Dancing was the chief amusement, and although the heat was intense yet to the strains of Herrick's orchestra, waiting regaled supreme. There were about one hundred and twenty five guests present. The young ladies looked exceedingly well and some of the costumes were quite elegant. Miss Annie Eaton, the young hostess, as she stood beside her grand mamma, Mrs. Gates, receiving her guests, looked very lovely in a pretty gown of white silk adorned with white embroidered chiffon. It is almost impossible to describe the dresses, but I will endeavor to remember a few of them.

Miss Julia Kelley, black India silk, with old rose spot, trimmed with lace, diamond ornaments.

Miss Charlotte Young, lovely dress of scarlet silk.

Miss Helen Foster, pale pink crepe de chine with chiffon trimmings.

Miss Carrie Washburn, old rose colored tulle dress, with trimmings of old rose silk, corsage bouquet of white hollyhocks.
