[PROGRESS is for sale at H. A. Johnson's.] Aug. 17 .- On Wednesday atternoon of last week a picnic party left the Murphy house in two double teams en route for Charlo Falls. The day was delightful and everything contributed to make the occasion a memorable one. The ladies of the party were fully equipped with fishing tackle, and when the picatorial fray commenced the consternation that prevailed amongst the finny tribe was exciting. Supper was spread on the heights near the cataract, after which an improvised orchestra in charge of Mr. Beuthner made a charming feature of the outing. The drive home was delightful and a grand finale to an event which was in every way a success, a fact to which the awakened echoes of Dalcess, a fact to which the awakened echoes of Dar-housie bore testimony as the gleeful excursionists drove back to the hotel in the moonlight. Among the party were. Mr. and Mrs. Beuthner, Mrs. Spear, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. O'Regan, the Misses Har-quail, Miss Kavanagh, Miss Murphy, Mr. Har-quail, Mr. Alfred Duncan, (Belfast) Mr. Meagher, and Mr. Sharkey, (Fredericton).

A select party of ladies, guests at the Murphy hotel, were entertained at a 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday, by Capt. Dugal of the steamer Admiral. The table was sumptuously spread in the saloon of the steamer, and after tea boats of the vessel were lowered and the party given a pleasant sail about the harbor. The guests included Mrs. Ross, of Richmond, P.Q., Mrs. O'Regan, Truro, Mrs. Beuthner, of Quebec, and Miss Murphy, of Dalhousie.
