J. W. Allen - - - - - Dartmouth, N. S. The farewell dinner given on Saturday last by the officers of the R. A. and R. E. to Colonel and Mrs. Ryan on their departure for England, was a very successful and pleasant entertainment. The following is a list of the guests. Mr., Mrs. and Miss Daly, Sir John and Miss Ross, Major and Mrs. Maycock, Major and Mrs. Crookender, Major and Mrs. Bor, Capt. and Mrs. Alexander and Miss Ross, Capt. and Mrs. Molony, Mr. and Mrs. Ac-

worth.

On Monday morning nearly all Halifax went to the steamer to say good bye to Colonel and Mrs. Ryan, who leave many smeere friends behind them. Mrs. Ryan had any amount of flowers sent and brought to her, and will have as kindly a remembrance of Halifax people as they of her.

Mrs. Lloyd, who has been spending some time with her brother Captain Audaire, was also a passenger in Monday's steamer.

The foggy weather of Saturday last brought disappointment with it to enthusiastic yachtsmen, as the large for the Chancey cap was obliged to be post-appointment with it to enthusiastic yachtsmen, as the race for the Chancey cup was obliged to be postponed. There was some excitement on the squadron wharf nevertheless, over the selection of the Nymphæa and the sister boat to Mr. Wylde's Youla. Mr. F. D. Corbett bought the former boat, and takes her around to the N. W. Arm where he is now living. She has been a well known boat in Chester and Mahone Bay, and has fallen into good hands if not here-to-fore nautically inclined ones.

Mr. William Young bought the Fife boat, and will take her up to the Basin of Minas, which is to be regretted.

On August 8, several yachts will go down the western shore to Chester; among which will be Mr. Wylde's Youla, Mr. Murray's Lenore, Mr. H. T. Jone's Hildred, and Mr. G. L. Francklyn's Hebe.
A great many peopie went, on Monday afternoon, to the Garrison Tennis ground, which, it may be said for the benefit of the unmitiated, is situated just behind the Garrison Library, between the Artillery park and a certain well-known livery stable. It is a very pleasant place to sit on a warm afternoon, even though there is a perilous habit stable. It is a very pleasant place to sit on a warm afternoon, even though there is a perilous habit obtaining there of seating all the ladies in one straight row, like little gris at school. I believe this really cannot be avoided, owing to the peculiarities of the courts. One always is provided with good tea and cake, and a comfortable chair, so that position is not everything.

Prince George (the Duke of York is not so familiar a name out here) has undergone a pleasant experience of late in the increase of his income as experience of late in the increase of his income as commander of the Melampus over that he obtained when he commanded the Thrush. His pay is now one pound a day, with three and nine pence extra perquisites—a great advance. It is curious to note by the appointment to the Melampus, the men who were liked by the prince when he was in command of the Thrush, Mr Anson, Mr. Euan-Thomas and Surgeon Home are among the lucky ones whom H. R. H. has has remembered. It is, I believe, the the trust Prince Cleorge's marriage with the Princess Victoria will take place although his engagement is not yet announced A grand gala week looms up before us, if only the fine weather continues; a gala week, at least, so far The Germantown eleven are expected here tomor The Germantown eleven are expected here tomorrow evening, and great things are hoped for in the way of an exciting match between them and the Halifax eleven. The following are the fixtures for the week: On Monday and Tuesday, Germantown vs. Wanderers; Wednesday and Thursday, Germantown vs. Garrison; Friday and Saturday, Germantown vs. Halifax. The latter eleven has been selected by a committee composed of the Lieut. Governor, Col. Rolph, Mr. Bengough (Leicestershire regiment) and Mr. W. A. Henry, president of the W. A. A. C.:

Mr. Rabington, R. E.; Mr. Bengough, Leicestershire regiment) and Mr. W. A. Henry, president of the W. A. A. C.;

Mr. Babington, R. E.; Mr. Bengough, Leleestershire regiment; Mr. Coholane, W. A. A. C.; Mr. Drew, Leicestershire regiment; Mr. W. Henry (captain), W. A. A. C.; Sergeant Farley, Leicestershire regiment; Lance-corporal Hopkins, Leicestershire regiment; M. Kaiser, W. A. A. C.; Mr. J. G. Mackintosh, W. A. A. C.; Mr. L. W. Reed, W. A. A. C.; Mr. Stockwell, Leicestershire regiment.

On Sunday next the Philadelphia team will arrive and during the week the following matches will be played, Monday and Tuesday, Philadelphias vs. Halifax; Wednesday and Thursday, Ottawa vs. Halifax; Friday and Saturday, Philadelphia vs. Ottawa. A silver cup is to be presented to the victorious eleven aad I believe there are other prizes. Of course there is to be a band every afternoon, and all Halifax will turn out as in old times when the Garrison cricket ground, now built up, was the only place of the sort in Halifax known to fashion. The present ground is a very long way in advance of that bare and arid field, which saw, however, some excellent cricket played. If the weather only proves fine the visiting elevens cannot help but admire the Wanderers' comfortable quarters, which

On Tuesday and Wednesday of the week begins

On Tuesday and Wednesday of the week begin-Thing tomorrow there are dances at Admirality House and at Bellevue. The former will be a large and universal entertainment, the latter very small. But the orthodox cricket player should not be too fatigued to attend one of them at least, and see a little of Halifax society as it is in a ball room.

I hear that the Blake leaves next week for Quebec, a rather unforseen departure. So far the flag ship has not done much as regards adding much to the summer gaieties, but a large afternoon dance is to be given on board her on Thursday, the twenty-eighth instant. She should be a very good ship on which to entertain as her decks do not slope; though we have all danced "up hill" very merrily before now, this is a distinct adventure.

though we have all danced "up hill" very merrily before now, this is a distinct advantage.

Mr. W. B. Hawke, Leicestershire regment, has returned from England where he spent last winter. The Rev. Laurence Skey has also returned.

The Rev. Dyson Hague, rector of St. Paul's, has returned from a short visit to Upper Canada, where Mrs. Hague is spending the summer. He brings good news of the improvement in Mrs. Hague's health.

It is some time since Halifax has boasted so distingushed and high dignitary of the church as his Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons. On Monday afternoon he held a reception at the residence of the Archbishop, which was very largely attended by both gentlemen and ladies, the former perhaps pre-Archisnop, which was very largely actions both gentlemen and ladies, the former perhaps predominating. Cardinal Gibbons, the reputation of whose able intellect is world wide, has, in addition, the very charming manner which is only possessed by unusually clever men. He has a very strong and good face, something resembling that of Cardinal by unusually clever men. He has a very strong and good face, something resembling that of Cardinal Manning, though more in expression than in feature. He is not tall, and is slightly made, and is an older and less powerful looking man than some of us expected to see. He is much beloved in Baltimore by all classes, to whom his kind and ascetic face is a expected to see. He is much beloved in Baltimore by all classes, to whom his kind and ascetic face is a familiar one. During his visit here he has thoroughly done the town under guid mee of the archbishop. A great pedestrian, he has gone all through the park and the town on foot, and has expressed himself as much pleased with the place. He has made several visits to some of the leading people in Halifax, and on afternoon of the past week was taken on a cruise about Bedford Basin and the N. W. Arm in the Ulala by Mr. J. F. Stairs. On Tuesday evening a dinner was given for him by his Grace the Archbishop, at which the following guests were present: General Sir John Ross, Admiral Sir John Hopkins, his Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia, Lieutenant-Governor Daly, Monsigneur Carmody, Rev. Dr. Murphy, Rev. Father Broyderick Hon. D. McNeil, T. E. Kenny, M. P., M. J. Power-M. P. P., Mr. Stephen Tobin, Mr. J. F. Kenny, Mr, M. Dwyer, Mr. J. Dwyer, Mr. Carney and others, If there are occasionally some small jars in Halifax society concerning the lists of guests habitually invited to the house of social magnates, there is fax society concerning the lists of guests naturally invited to the house of social magnates, there is never anything approaching to the late unfortunate experience of Lord and Lady Clanwilliam, who were so well known here some years ago, when they reigned at Admiralty house. It appears that Lady Clanwilliam has been giving a very pleasant series of garden parties, such as she gave when in Halifax, and that a number of people who were not invited to them, blandly overlooked that small oversight and went. Lord Clanwil iam would not be an sight and went. Lord Clanwil iam would not be an especially good person with whom to try that rather cool experiment, as to the best of my remembrance he had an extremely fiery temper. Certainly in this case his vexation was most just. Nothing can be more insulting than the distasteful familiarity of an uninvited guest. The excuse offered by sor these latter was that several people who had a right to be asked were left out, while other people who to be asked were left out, while other people who had never even called at Admiralty house, Southsea, were invited. Still it seems rather cool for would be guests to take the law into their own hands, and it seems that they were told so in no measured terms. When Lord and Lady Clanwilliam were living in Halifax they were much liked, Lady Clanwilliam in particular. If I am not mistaken, the latter is a relation of two ladies well known in Halifax society.

Mrs.J. Taylor Wood gave one of her very pleasant teas on Tuesday at her house in Morris street. There were any quantity of pretty dresses and hats to delight the eyes, masculine eyes because of their general effect, and feminine eyes because of their smartness and fashion. I hear that Cardinal Gib-bons was one of Mrs. Wood's guests, as he is an old friend of hers. There were a good many of the American visitors to Halifax present, some of whom were gowned in a most Parisian manner, and added not a little to the decorations of a very pretty, cheery, and well managed party.

WOLFVILLE.

JULY 19 .- Miss Ethel Heales entertained quite a large number of her friends very pleasantly at her home on Main street on Tuesday evening last. Among those present were the Misses Vane, Miss Olie Burgess, Miss Lila Borden and Miss Seaman, peside a number of her gentleman friends.

There were also several enjoyable drives during the week to Cornwallis, Blomidon, Grand Pre and other points of more or less interest. The ladies of St. John's church, Cornwallis, pro-The ladies of St. John's church, Cornwains, propose having a strawberry festival at an early date. Among the visitors to Wolfville during the week I noticed Mr. Vernon Masters and his brother, Mr. John Masters, old graduates of "Acadia," the former of whom not long since received an appointment as associate professor in the Indiana State university, while the latter, I believe, is a student at Cornell.

JULY 20 .- Tennis is not indulged in by our young people to anything like the extent that it has been in past seasons. Building operations at Crane's corner has rendered playing at that point impossible, much to the disgust of those wont to display their skill with the racket on that court. At the Salem court one may occasionally witness a game of singles. The net stretched across the shade of the singles. The net stretched across the shade of the beautiful grounds in front of the residence of Mr. Josiah Wood, calls forth the enthusiastic admiration of those who have an eye for the ideal tennis ground. And it is quite evident that the favored ones heartly appreciate their privileges.

The Sackville band, attached to the 8th cavalry, discoursed excellent music for two hours at Lower Sackville on Saturday evening. A more than usual interest was manifested in the performance, as was duly attested by the large numbers who enjoyed the music. The increasing interest in the band is due, in a measure, to the high enconiums of praise bestowed upon it while at Camp Sussex, on account of its neat appearance and thorough training. The band holds its annual picnic and excursion at Cape Tormentine, on Saturday, the 22rd mst. It is expected that many will avail themselves of this opportunity of visiting the shore.

Miss Pauline Bell entertained a number of her young friends one evening last week. Dancing was the amusement of the evening. This was kept up till a late hour. The beautiful grounds were illuminated by the soft glow of Chinese lanterns, and the effect was rendered more striking and picturesque by the presence of a wigwam of bark and a num ber of pleasant seats beneath the trees. These proved favorite retreats between the dances, and delicious ice-cream and cake were served. The delicious ice-cream and cake were served. The evening was a most enjoyable one.
