On Tuesday evening the residence of Mr. G. R. Pugsley was thrown open to more than 80 guests. It was the occasion of the closing of the Robesay Tennis club, for which invitations were given more than a week ago. It was a most delightful party, for there were gathered the flower, wit and beauty of both Robesay and St. John. The house is so finely arranged and so spacious that one could not realize so many guests were present. The floral decorations showed great taste in their arranging; palms, ferns and scarlet lilies were used in perfection. In the drawing rooms the corners were banked with ferns and golden rods, which gave a most charming effect. Out doors, the trees and house, were lit up with bright lights, and as the grounds surrounding the house are quite extensive and picturesque, afforded opportunities for strolls that are seldom enjoyed on such occasions. Mrs. Pugsley was assisted in receiving the guests by Miss Mabel Thompson, Miss Mary McMillan, Miss Bessie Pugsley, and Miss Gertrude Davidson. Dancing was kept up until a very late hour. A delicious supper was served during the evening. The tennis club is to be congratulated on the success of their entertainments, but with such assistants as Mr. Walter Gilbert, and Mr. Sandy McMillan, and with the beautiful surroundings Mrs. Pugsley's residence provides, it could not help from being a most charming affair in every way. A quiet wedding took place last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Williams Paradise Row, when her daughter, Miss Minnie Case, was united in marriage to Mr. James B. Jones. After a sumptuous repast the happy couple left by rail for a short bridal tour through C. E. Island, followed by the best wishes of their many friends. The following is a list of the wedding presents: Miss Holmes, jewelry set; Miss Baker, pair of vases; Mrs. J. Knaves, toilet set; Mrs. Rose, (New York) bon bon basket; Miss Alcock, cheese dish; Miss Wheeler, pickle dish; Mrs. Alcock, cake basket; Miss Martin water pitcher and pickle jar; Mr. and Mrs. Jordan (Moncton), parlor table; Miss Clara Jones, set table linen; Mrs. Jones, pair of shams; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moran, five o'clock tea set; Mr. Alcock, morocco wallet; Mr. F. Williams, spoon; Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson, silver butter knife; Miss E. Caraher, silver castor; Mrs. Scott, sofa pillow; Mr. W. Daley, silver fruit dish and glass set; Mr. F. A. Jones, picture; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Harding, silver cake basket and knife. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch. Mrs. E. E. Short, who has been spending a few weeks in St. John, returned home to Boston on Monday evening. Miss Etta Smith and Mrs. Smith returned the same day after a pleasant visit of a few weeks in this city. Miss May Willis with her brother, Mr. S. L. Willis, have returned to their home in Boston after a very enjoyable visit to their sister, Mrs. B. Fairley. Miss Jennie McKean spent a few days in Fredericton last week. Mr. Chas. N. McNeil of St. Louis, Mo., was in the city last Friday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allingham, Princess street, Friday evening in honor of their youngest little daughter, Hazel Levera. Misses Clara and Maggie Donnelly and Miss Agnes McCormick, of Woodstock, N. B., have returned home after visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Devine, of Dipper Harbor, N. B. Miss Emily Frev, who has been visiting Mrs. Jas. Donald, High street, left for her home in New York on Tuesday. Misses Katherine A. and Margaret Flavin, of Bellou's Falls, Vermont, who have been visiting friends in the city, returned home on Saturday last. Mrs. A. W. Raymond and children, who have been visiting Mrs. T. F. Raymond, left this morning for their home in New Bedford, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. T. T. C. Burpee are visiting Mrs. T. F. Raymond, 72 Queen street. A large number of friends met at the residence of Mr. B. A. Stammers, King street, east, on Thursday evening to bid farewell to Miss Louisa Stammers who leaves on Saturday morning for Boston to become a nurse in one of the leading hospitals. During the evening's entertainment Miss Elliott presented Miss Stammers on behalf of the company with an elegant writing portfolio lunch box and medicine chest accompanied by an address. The company broke up at midnight after partaking of a bounteous supper prepared by Mrs. B. A. Stammers, and wishing Miss Stammers every success in her new calling.

St. John—North.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Gandy, of Wright street, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a young daughter. Mr. P. L. Connor is home this week from Quebec. Keltie, and several other gentlemen are spending a week at South Branch fishing. The death of Mr. Robert Cowan though not unexpected was a sad shock to his many friends. Master Cowan, son of Mr. Edgar Cowan, was in his 19th year and was a young man of promise, owing to his falling health he was taken some weeks ago to Grand Lake where he died. Master Cowan was extremely popular among his young companions. A handsome floral anchor was sent by them as a last tribute of affection. A magnificent cross from his fellow clerks in Macaulay's where he was employed as assistant book-keeper. A wreath from Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Red, a present from Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Thomson, bouquets from Mr. D. J. Brown, Miss Matie Case, Mrs. Isaac Stevens, Mrs. D. V. Roberts, and Miss Bessie Stevenson, likewise bespoke his popularity. His remains were brought to St. John on Monday last and buried on Tuesday. Miss McAnulty, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. P. McGoldrick. Miss Julia Purly, matron of the Halifax city hospital, is visiting in the city. Mr. Huthervetter, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. T. Morgan. PEANUTS.

Miss Foster is visiting her brother, Mr. R. Foster, at Sackville. Mrs. W. Moore and child, who has been here for the past two weeks, left on Wednesday evening for her home in Boston. Miss Mary and Master A. McDougall have returned from Fredericton, where they spent their vacation. Miss Patterson has returned home after a pleasant visit to her sister at St. Andrews.
