One of the most elegant parties St. Stephen society has enjoyed this season was the dancing party given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Vroom and Mrs. C. H. Smith in the hall in the new building recently erected for Mr. Vroom. The hall is large and a most delightful place for a party, it was beautifully decorated with chrysanthenums, dahlias, and other bright colored flowers. The walls were hung with mirrors and beautiful pictures. Adjoining the ball room is a large room which was used for whist. This room was also prettily arranged and was fragrant with the perfume of numerous rare plants and vases of cut flowers. From nine until twelve o'clock dancing held full sway. Supper was then served and dancing was resumed and did not cease until an early hour in the morning and even then the guests were much re-luctant to leave. The costumes worn by the ladies were all exceedingly pretty, particularly of some Miss of the young ladies. Among whom were: Miss Kitten Melick, Miss Nellie Smith, Miss Annie Grimmer, and Miss Fairweather, of St. John, who were all greatly admired. Mrs. Vroom and Mrs. Smith wore dresses of handsome black silk richly trimmed with lace and jet. It was a most delightful narty, every one enjoying it immensely. Among the Smith wore dresses of handsome black silk richly trimmed with lace and jet. It was a most delightful party, every one enjoying it immensely. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clerke, Hon. James and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. John K. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Murchie, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Vroom, Dr. and Mrs. John Black, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ganong, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. On Friday evening as the ball was arranged, Mrs. Vroom and Mrs. Smith decided to give a children's ball for the amusement of Miss Elda Smith and Miss Gretchen Vroom and their young friends of whom there were some 70 or 80 present. Dancing of course was the chief amusement, and as they gaily danced the military schottische, which seemed to be a favorite dance, the pretty which seemed to be a lay-orite dance, the pretty which and gay colored dresses, and the bright waving hair of the girls, with the more quiet dress of the boys, made a picture one loved to look upon. The game of Copenhagen was introduced so that those who could not dance might enjoy some of the fun. Supper was served a 10 o'clock, and directly after good night was said. It was a most enjoyable evening, even the older ones who were there thoroughly enjoyed them-selves. I would like to describe some of the pretty dresses worn by the young ladies, indeed I prom-ised to do so, but this week lack of time prevents from doing so.

Miss Carrie Fairweather, of St. John, is this week visiting Mrs. C. H. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler are also visiting there. Mrs. Neiley is visiting in Calais her friend Mrs.

The following account of the leap year ball in Silver cake basket, Mrs. John DeWolfe and Messrs. DeWolfe, Halifax. Silver fruit knives, Miss Mabel Jewett. Calais is so original in its way and teeming with well meant fun that it is printed .- ED].

This time it was the hearts of the young men that were made to flutter on receiving invitations to a leap year ball, on Friday evening, which was the crowning event of the season's festivities, and by far the jolliest dance of the summer.

It was the talk for many days both of those who were there and those who were not. The beauty of the decorations for Grand Army hall never pre-sented a prettier appearance, the lovliness of the matrons, the exquisite gowns, the excellent music, the varied programme and delicious supper, and in fact all of the incidents sure to be mentioned "after the ball," for which the young ladies of Calais and St. Stephen deserve much praise. The party was matronized by Mrs. Henry Todd, Mrs. Henry Eaton, and Mrs. Geo. J. Clarke. Miss Ellen Nelson, Miss Carrie Washburn, Miss Margaret Todd and Miss Mable Murchie were ushers and the "manly" way in which they presented the blushing gentlemen while their escorts stalked Fisher, Fredericton. Original oil puinting, Miss Ida Connell. Silver butter knife, Miss Emily Fisher, Fredbehind as "all forlorn" as the maiden of that well known song, caused a great deal of merriment. The young ladies were most efficient floor managers and the exceeding promptness with which one dance succeeded the other lent a charm commented upon by all. There were no "wall flowers" at this party, due to the feminine vivacity and courtesy which had it in charge. Among those present were: Mr. Henry Todd, who headed the grand march in black broadcloth, English make, "right from London," diamond ornaments. Mr. Henry Pike, black and white toilet "coupon ut," most er viable. Mr. Frank Woods, handsome black broadcloth,

"first quality, all wool and a yard wide " Mr. Ernest T. Lee wore black evening dress decplette, corsage of "Hartford policies and beit of Loan Association coins. Mr. Ralph Wood, evening dress, and just "out the fold" a "ninety and nine" shirt bosom, tout ensemble was perfect.
