Mrs. George Hyde's dance last Friday evening was one of the best given by anyone for a long time. The company was a large one, there being responses in person to nearly seventy invitations. Mrs. Hyde and her daughters are always charming hostesses, and at no time was their ingenious capacity in this direction more apparent than on Friday evening dast.

Mrs. Hyde received her guests in a most becoming gown of black challie. Miss Hyde wore black lace, satin bodice. Miss Flora Hyde looked charming in canary colored net. Miss Georgie Hyde, pink chiffon, natural flowers. SPRINGHILL.

YARMOUTH.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Yarmouth at the stores of E. I. Vickery, Harris & Horsfall and Dr. Lovitt's Drug Store.]

Aug. 9 .- An unusually large number of parties have been given this week in honor of the many visitors in town. At no time during the year are there so many guests in Yarmouth as during the month of August. Canadians visit their friends here at all times during the season, but it is the Americans whom we see this month, and it is well that the heat in their own country induces them to make August their holiday season for it is just now that our town looks most attractive.

Miss Isabel Bingay entertained a large number of her friends at her home on Monday evening. Danc-ing continued throughout the hours, and was indulged in by almost all present, a very few preferring the more staid amusement of the card table.

Miss Clara Killam visited in Weymoth during this and last month, returning home this week.

Miss Baker is visiting friends in Cape Breton. Rev. Dr. Day spent a few days in town last week, returning home on Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary Bishop, of Massachussets, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Millar for a few days last Miss Susie Brown is absent from town on a visit to relatives in Canso.

The Misses Mabel and Ethel Cann returned from a very pleasant trip to Bear River on Wednesday. During their stay in the above place they were the guests of Miss F. Hardwick.

Miss Carrie Killiam entertained a number of her friends at Milton, on Monday evening. The principal amusement was cards and the party broke up at a reasonable hour.

Visitors from Kentville are spending the month at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Guest, Forest street, the guests of their daughter, Miss Nellie. Mrs. Charles Pratt and Miss Ladd are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Jones, at Weymouth, for a few

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jolly left on Saturday for New York, where they will remain for some weeks.

Miss Alice and Master P. Jolly will visit in Port

Maithand during their absence.

Miss Bertie Brown is in St. John, where she has gone to attend the Summer School of Science.

Mr. Wm. McKennon left this week for Boston Among the visitors in town are Rev. and Mrs.

W. H. G. Temple, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stoneman, Argyle street. Mr. Temple, tormerly of Yarmouth, has for some years been formerly of Yarmouth, has for some years been residing in Boston.

vacation in town. Mrs. Washburn and son, Mr. Murray Washburn, of New York, are making their annual visit at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Main street. Mr. Frank K. Killam returned home last week after a prolonged trip to British Columbia and other western cities.

Mr. James Farish, of Liverpool, N. S., is the guest of his brother, Dr. George Farish. A very pleasant dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eakins, Parade street, on Wednesday evening of last week. A large number of guests were present and the property and the prope of guests were present and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed until the hour Cinderella disappeared from the ball room, when the dancers dispersed according to programme intimation. This plan of stating the hour of departure, as as arrival, is a very good one, particularly in Yarmouth, where the practise of keeping up gaities until a very late hour is universally indulged in.

Miss Roberta Lovitt arrived home on Thursday from a fortnight's visit in St. John.

Mr. Frank Stuart, who has been spending a few weeks in town, left last week for St. John.
Mrs. Chas. Godfrey went to St. John last week for a short stay, returning home on Friday with Mr. Godfrey, who has been for some weeks in British Columbia attending the meetings of the Agricultheir daughter, Miss Annie Stearns and friends, the Misses Bond of Tusket. Dancing and other amuse-ments continued throughout the evening until sup-per was served, about twelve, the company break-ming up an hour or two later.

Miss Julia Hilton returned on Wednesday from Boston, where she has been attending the New England Conservatory of Music for the past year.

This (Tuesday) afternoon there was a large gathering on Collins street, the site of the new Tabernacle church, to witness the laying of the corner stone of the building. All the clergymen of the town and Rev. W. H. G. Temple of Boston were present and delivered addresses. This building will, when completed, be a beautiful one, and in nany ways an improvement on the former church on Main street, which was this spring destroyed by

Among the many visitors in Yarmouth from St. John are Mrs. C. E. Burnham, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Haley, William street. Mr. William Burnham, of New York, is also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Haley.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley.
The convention of the Y. M. C. A. held here during the past week has made quite a stir in the town. The meetings which were conducted chiefly in St. John's presbyterian church were interesting and instructive. About 200 ministers and laymen arrived on Wednesday as delegates from the States and maritime provinces. Among those from St. John were: Mr. A. W. McLeod, Mr. J. E. Irvine, Dr. Morrison, Rev. G. M. Campbell, Mr. F. Burpee and Rev. G. M. Young of Centenary church. During the session of the convention a reception During the session of the convention a reception was given in the Association rooms to the delegates and Yarmouth members by a number of ladies interested in the work of the Y. ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book stores of G. S. Wall and, in Calais at O. P. Treat's.] Aug. 10 .- Visitors still continue to arrive and there seems to be no cessation of picnics and parties. Every day there is some sort of an entertainment to make time fly and make the summer days pleasant. Today Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Lee, with a number of friends have gone on a buck board ride to Robbinston, where they will have supper and will return late this evening.

A number of young ladies have arranged a leap year party to be given in the Grand Army hall, Calais, this evening. Dancing is the chief amuse-

Mrs. William Boardman entertained very happily a party of friends at tea at her summer cottage at the Ledge on Monday evening. Among the varied and pretty parties and entertainments given in Calais since my last letter, the prettiest was a "german" given by Mrs. Bradley Eaton for the amusement of ner daughter, Miss Janie Eaton, and her young friends, of which there were some twenty present. The favors used on this occasion were exceedingly pretty and unique. Some of them were quite elegant. The figures of the "german" were extremely varied; the most noticeable were the flower figure, the shawl and candle figure, and the prize figure, at which Miss Ida Boardman and Mr. Fred. McNichol were the fortunate ones to receive the prizes. During the evening fruit punch and chocolate waters were served, and at midnight sherbert and fancy cakes evening fruit punch and chocolate waters were served, and at midnight sherbert and fancy cakes were partaken of. Major and Mrs. Chipman's water party on the steamer Arbutus yesterday afternoon was decidedly the most delightful affair of the kind society on the St. Croix has enjoyed this summer. The Arbutus left here at three o'clock with a jolly party of about one hundred ladies and gentlemen. After sailing nearly to Eastport, they returned to Hotel de Monts and all had supper. After supper each guest amused themselves as they best cared to, and at nine o'clock the shrill whistle of the little steamer. announced it was time to proceed up river. The sail home by the bright moonlight was charming, and now and then some musical guest would start a song in which all would join. On arriving at the wharf and when saying "good night," three cheers were given for their host and hostess, and as each were given for their host and hostess, and as each guest slowly went home it was the general opinion that the Mayor and Mrs. Chipman had learned the true way and secret of entertaining.

Fraser Winslow are the guests of Mrs. F. E. Win-Mrs. T. A. Vaughar of New York, is spending the ummer with her sister, Mrs. D. G. Smith. Last week was one of great enjoyment in the way of private pienics and excursions. A large party, headed by Mrs. W. C. Winslow, Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Hutchison, made an excursion to Redbank on the steamer Rustler, leaving town about one o'clock on Tuesday, and a number of their gentlemen friends followed in the Str. Sarcelle about four o'clock, both boats coming down the river together.

The same parties had an outing on Thursday on the beautiful grounds of the old Hutchison homestead, at Douglastown, going from Chatham at 2 p. m., and being joined by the gentlemen at 4.30. After a beautiful supper under the trees they took the steamer Nelson and ran up-river several miles and then down, under the moonlight and cooling breezes of the lower stretches of the river.

Saturday night saw them affoat again soon after eight o'clock on the steamer Rustler, their moonight excursion coming to an end only in time to avoid borrowing something of the early Sabbath

On Friday evening last the steamer St. Nicholas left town for the lower bay and straits. She had on board Senator Snowball and family, Mrs. William Snowball, and Misses Maggie and Bertha Maclaren of St. John. They returned to port Monday even-ing, having had a very enjoyable trip. They ran some ten miles east of Escuminac Point into the straits on both Saturday and Monday, where they had good luck cod fishing, and in the atternoon steamed in nearer the shore where they caught mackerel. The ladies did the fishing, while the senator and his son Archy, who were the only male members of the party were kept gallantly busy baiting the hooks. I am told that Miss Laura Snowball caught the most fish, but Miss Berta Maclaren took the biggest—a twenty pounder. The party's fare for the trip was over one hundred codfish and seventy five mackerel. The fair participants in this trip, as they landed, on their return looked "bewitchingly brown" and suggested thoughts of "Nancy Lee," "Grace Darling," "the Mermaids," and other poetic things.

Bailey and Irving drove to Moncton last Monday and returned next day. The second concert given in aid of the band came off on Tuesday evening of this week and was considered by many to be the best entertainment that has yet been given by local talent. The stage was tastefully decorated and its beauty was much enhanced by the pretty dresses worn by the ladies taking part. Perhaps the numbers most worthy of mention were the vocal selections by Mr. Malenfant and the rendition of several pieces on the violin by Mr. McDonald. The gentlemen are both favortes and were greeted with loud applause. Prof. Stewart gave an excellent cornet solo, and Mr. Bailey delighted the audience with his selections given on the harmonica. Too much praise cannot be given Miss Florence White for her execution of "Jennie MacNiel's Ride," Miss White shows markability in elocution. Miss Winnie Harper as pianist played in her usual good style.
