FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton at the bookstore of W. T. H. Fenety and by James H. Hawthorne.]

Aug. 10.—Nearly everyone seems to have left town for the warm weather, and those who have not seem to fill in the time pretty much with picnics and boating parties. Picnics seem to be the order of the day, and scarcely a day passes but one hears of gay parties making up for a day's outing, or if the day be very hot a moonlight water party takes its place.

The Sunday-school of the Baptist church are holding their picnic today at Burton, having gone down river by the steamer Florenceville.

The F. O. M. W. and their intimate friends are having a delightful day at the O'Malley homestead, and still another picnic party, chartered by Mrs. Jas. S. Neil, Mrs. F. J. Porter and A. S. Massie, Burkhardt and Miss Whitte are having gypsy fashion on the green in O'Dell grove.

One of the most novel boating parties of the season arrived here on Monday morning on board The Pearl, a woodboat of 50 tons register and a very pretty and gay appearance she presented as she lay in the river opposite the city gaily decorated with bunting and flags, and the light catching costumes of the ladies flitting about the decks.

The party are, believe it or not, for a two weeks outing on the river and have provided themselves with every necessary for driving full day, having on board a cabinet organ and violin.

Aug. 10.—The drowning of little Willie, the twelve year old son of J. A. Johnson, of the L. C. R., which occurred on Tuesday morning, has been one of the saddest events in the history of the town. The accident occurred shortly after the steamer Christina had left the wharf with a happy group of Sabbath school children on their way to the picnic grounds. The little fellow, unobserved, had entered the small boat in tow of the steamer, when the rope broke and the frail craft upset, precipitating the hapless boy into the water, and he disappeared before assistance could be given. Notwithstanding that diligent search has been made for the body, it has not yet been recovered. Mr. Johnson and family have the deepest sympathy of everyone.

AMHERST.

[Progress is for sale at Amherst, by George Douglas and H. A. Billicot.]

Aug. 10.—The saddest news received in Amherst for many years came by telegram from Mr. A. R. Dickey on Saturday evening from Halifax announcing the death of his brother, Mr. Stewart Dickey, who, being a renowned cricketer, was there with the Ottawa team attending the tournament, the melancholy result of which, has thrown into deepest grief one of our oldest and most highly respected families. Among the large number of relatives present at the funeral were Col. Stewart and Judge Townsend, of Halifax, and Dr. Townsend, of Parrishboro, who was the guest of J. M. Townsend while here.

Mrs. D. A. Steele and daughter, Grace, returned on Monday from Pugwash; also Miss Maggie Purdy and Mr. H. A. Hunt.
