[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor and at the book store of G. S. Wall in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Oct. 19.—Mrs. T. J. Smith gave on Thursday evening another of her pleasant parties. This time it was drive whilst, and the prizes were very pretty, and souvenirs of Miss Nellie Smith's recent trip to Europe, the desire to obtain them created much fun and enthusiasm which made the party a most delightful one. Mrs. Wetmore was the fortunate lady to receive the prize, which was a lovely Venetian vinaigrette. Mr. C. G. Whitlock was awarded the gentleman's prize, a pretty cut ivory paper knife, from Switzerland. There was also a second prize, but I have forgotten to whom it fell. After the distribution of the prizes supper was served, and this ended one of the most pleasant drive whilst parties we have had for some time.

The next evening (Friday) Mrs. Smith kindly invited a number of friends to meet at her residence, Miss Kathleen O'Malley and Mr. Will Zabriski, of New York city. Drive whilst made the hours fly, and when the score cards were gathered it was found that Miss Emma Harris and Mr. Lyman Washburne were the happy winners of the prizes.

Last evening Mrs. Lewis Mills gave a small whilst party for the amusement of her sons, William, Will, and Marks Mills. It was a very enjoyable party. Among the invited guests were: Miss Kathleen O'Malley, Miss Margaret Todd, Messrs. Will and Marks Mills. Miss Cora Algar, Messrs. Harry Graham and Will Zabriski.

At high mass on Sunday morning, Professor A. McDonald sang a solo in his usual good style. Mr. McDonald has a fine voice and is indeed an acquisition to the musical circle in Summerside. Speak- ing of music recalls to my mind the "Orpheus Glee club" of last winter. It is a very enjoyable club and it afforded our people several enjoyable evenings. The music too was of a high class, and would in time educate the people. The songs and choruses were in excellent style and more select than small towns usually offer.

"My kingdom for a servant!" This cry echoes from one end of the town to the other. Go to the east end and it is heard—visit the houses in the west and the same exclamation is made—take a stroll up the hill and house keepers talk of nothing else but the scarcity of maids. They have all been wooed to Boston.

I am sure we are all charmed to know that Judge Kelly and family will be in town for the winter, especially in social life. Mrs. Kelly be welcomed, for she is a great favorite.

Miss Bessie Compton, we are sorry to hear, intends leaving us for the winter. Miss Compton will be greatly missed by all her friends, and St. Mary's church will lose a sweet voice.

We boast of a few sportsmen in Summerside who are seen in the early morning walking briskly along with javelin over their shoulders, later on I have watched the homeward march—wary and tired after a day of hard work (?) but when the birds' chirping is most energetic I will mention Mr. K. J. Martin, Mr. E. P. Staver and Dr. Bearisto. I believe on their last expedition two snipe were captured.

A few of our young men have reorganized the literary society known as "The Girls Own Club." The first meeting of this season was held Saturday night in the library and Mr. McLeod has again honored the club by becoming their instructor.
