BURPEE, THORNE & CO., 60 and 62 Prince Wm. St., ST. JOHN, N. B.

St. John—South End.

The death of Mr. James J. Kaye, which occurred at his residence, Peel street, on Sunday last, was heard with deep regret. Mr. Kaye has been in failing health for some time past though it was not thought his end was so near. Mr. Kaye was the oldest and most prominent lawyer of this city, and has practised his profession for 50 years, and was much respected by every member of the bar as well as the citizens of St. John. He was 78 years of age and leaves a widow and nine children—five daughters and four sons. Three daughters are married and are: Mrs. L. C. Allison, Mrs. F. Allison and Mrs. Carr. One daughter, Miss Florence Kaye, is at present visiting relatives in England.

Mr. H. W. Frith left this week for Cornwall, Ont., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McKenzie. Dr. A. A. Stockton returned this week from a trip to England.

Miss Grace Vernon, Amherst, is visiting St. John. Mr. Warren C. Winslow, Chatham, spent this week in the city. The engagement is announced of a popular young lady residing on Germain street, daughter of a prominent merchant of St. John, and a young man engaged in the hardware business in this city. The marriage of Miss Florence Kaye, a daughter of the bank of B. N. A., New York, takes place early in August.

The ladies composing C squad in the late drill have presented Capt. Edwards with a handsome set of standard works and Capt. F. Fraser with a silver pencil case in recognition of the pains taken by both these officers to perfect them in their drill. Miss Berryman, of West End Lane, West Hampstead, England, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Prescot, Colong street. Mr. John Seas, who has been ill for some time past, is able to get out again.

Mr. Watson, of Glasgow, Scotland, is the guest of Dr. MacLaren, Charlotte street.

An awfully sudden death occurred in this city on Tuesday last, when M. E. Price, who resides on Orange street with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Corwell, passed away after only a few minutes illness. She had retired for the night apparently in the best of health, when an attack of suffocation, proceeding from heart failure, caused her almost instant death. Miss Price was a relative of the late Mr. James Charles, whose death occurred in the same house only a short time since. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Trinity church, of which she was a prominent member. Miss Price was of a pleasing and kindly disposition, and her sad and sudden death will be heard with deep regret by her many friends in St. John.

Mr. Charles Kerr, brother of Chief Engineer Kerr, is in the city, having been called here in consequence of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. David Shanks Kerr.

There is a rumor that H. M. S. Blake will be in port about the 1st of July. Should this be the case there will be a little gaiety which will brighten up this dull summer. As a man-of-war is now of such a rare occurrence in St. John, that it will surely be an incentive to our entertainers.

The ladies of St. Stephen's church repeated their successful presentation of Mrs. John's wax works, at Rochesay, on Tuesday evening, in aid of the Presbyterian church there. Notwithstanding the down-pour of rain, many went out from the city and the hall was well filled.

Major E. T. Sturdee having been appointed supply officer for the camp at Sussex, will be on his way to the north on Wednesday. Mrs. Sturdee is remaining during the camp.

Mrs. John Kinnear, who at present is visiting St. John, will be in the city on Wednesday, in consequence of the death of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Stretton, which occurred at her home at London, England. Mrs. Kinnear is the widow of the late Major Cowper, 15th regiment, by whom she leaves one daughter, who is married and lives in England, and two sons, one of whom, Dr. Stretton, having died several years since leaving two sons.

Sister Paula left for England this week to spend some time.

Miss French arrived in St. John this week from Philadelphia. She is staying with her nephew, Mr. W. A. MacLaren, on Main street.

Dr. P. R. Inches is on his way back from England. On his arrival here he will hear the sad news of the death of his brother, Mr. Charles Inches of Blairgowrie, Scotland, which occurred only four days after Dr. Inches took passage for home. Mr. Charles Inches formerly resided in St. John.

Miss Louise Jack, sister of Mr. D. R. Jack of this city, came off with high honors at the recent examination of the Windsor church school, winning the Bishop of Nova Scotia's gold medal and also the prize of $15 given by the synod of New Brunswick. Miss Jack is attending the school here and has come home for the summer vacation.

Rev. G. M. Campbell left Tuesday morning for Charlottetown to attend the conference of the N. B. and P. E. I. presbytery.

Rev. Mr. Kempton the new pastor in the Carleton Baptist church occupied the pulpit of that church last Sunday.

Mrs. David Hall has gone up to Gorham's for two weeks.

Mr. D. G. Smith, of the Chatham Advance, was in town this week en route for New York.

Miss Chubb, of Orange street, has gone to Nova Scotia for the summer.

Mrs. Will Furdy will spend the summer at Bel-yea's Point.

Rev. A. Arnold Ross, of Haverhill, Mass., and wife are visiting friends in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. James Estey went North last week for a short trip.

Mrs. Ingram spent a few days this week in Chipman, the guest of Mrs. Magee.

Miss Jennie Hall has returned to St. John again after two weeks among the gaieties of the celestial city.

Mrs. Wm. Alwood and Miss Fannie Taylor went to Fredericton Wednesday. They will be the guests of Mrs. Henry Bay.

Mr. Norman Edgecombe, of Fredericton, is the guest this week of Mrs. A. C. Edgecombe, King street, east.

Miss Smith, of Halifax, is the guest of Miss Shenton, Charlotte street.

Mr. Frank Wood is in St. Andrews this week. Mrs. Richard Estey, Fredericton, has returned home.

Miss Cassey Coy, of Fredericton, who has been visiting friends in St. John for some time, has returned home.

Mrs. Agnes Carr has returned home from the normal school, Fredericton.

Prof. Tweedie, of Mount Allison, was in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harding has gone to Westfield for the summer.

Mr. A. H. Hamington left on Wednesday night for Halifax to reconvert and Ottawa.

Mr. William Ewing went to Boston on Wednesday evening.

Mr. George Hallett spent part of this week at Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Miss Hamilton, of Dorchester, is staying at the Berrow house; Judge Hamilton also spent Saturday in the city.

A very enjoyable reception was given on Wednesday afternoon, between the hours from 4 and 6, by Miss Nettie Holly, at her home on Douglas avenue. Miss Holly was ably assisted in the duties of hostess by her sister, Miss Carrie Holly and Mrs. C. A. Swinton, of Boston. Among the invited were: the Misses Tapley, Miss Holly, Miss Peters, Miss Dolle-Pullen, Miss Josephine Puller, Miss May Fleming, Miss Ethel Robertson, Misses DeForest, Miss Beverly, Miss Nellie Fleming, Miss Lillie Courtenay and others.

Miss Grace Campbell who has spent the past fortnight in St. John, returned on Saturday to her home in Moncton.

Mrs. R. V. Gass spent Thursday in town.

Mrs. T. A. Waking and Miss Mary Waking are visiting friends in Nauyasewick.

Mrs. Nutt arrived here on Monday in the Winthrop, and is the guest of Miss Jones, Sydney street.

On dit, that a wedding will shortly take place between a widower of Colong street and a young St. John widow now residing in Washington.

Mr. H. Beavie leaves this week to accept a position in Montreal.

An event of much interest took place in the Queen street Methodist church, Tuesday evening, when Miss Sarah Shenton, daughter of Rev. John Shenton, pastor, was married to Rev. Oskar Gronlund, of Seattle, N. S. The church, which was crowded to the doors with guests, members of the congregation and their friends, was beautifully decorated for the occasion. While the choir sang, the bride and groom were seated at the altar. The bride wore an elegant and becoming white Duchess satin dress, trimmed with white chiffon and orange blossom and wore a handsome veil, and carried a white velvet bible, the gift of her sister. Miss Shenton was attended in a pale blue silk with a pale blue silk green and white and carried a bouquet of forget-me-nots.

Miss Emma Shenton wore a pink Bengaline silk and had a basket of roses. Miss Smith's dress was of white tulle silk. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The groom was supported by Prof. Tweedie of Mount Allison college. The ushers were: Dr. McAlpine, Dr. Addy, Duncan Smith and A. F. Beavie.

After the wedding the bridal party and a number of friends drove to the residence of Rev. Mr. Shenton, on Charlotte street, where several hours were spent. After the supper the health of the bride was proposed by Dr. Addy and the groom replied. The bride then proposed the health of the bridesmaids and Mr. Tweedie replied.

The following is a list of invited guests and the presents:
